

Gangbusters! The Lions Are Here

WEAKENED HURRICANE Vince Opalsky (37) from McKeesport lies on the ground after being stopped cold by the marauding Nittany Lion defense. In on the play are rover Pete Johnson (40) linebacker Jim Kates (55), linebacker Dennis Onkoiz (35), tackle Steve Smear (76), tackle Mike McBath (79) and end Jim Litterelle (85). These Lions formed a core of the outstanding defensive wall that held Miami to 69 yards rushing and 170 in the air, playing a major part in the 17-8 upset win.

WRA Clubs To Meet Today

Three clubs and two interest groups of the Women's Recreation Association will hold their first meetings of the term today.

At 7 p.m. Orchestral—coeducational dance club and interest group—will meet in the White Hall dance studio with Adviser Patricia Heigel.

Each evening, the dance club, Senior Orchestral, presents a concert, incorporating techniques learned during the year. Fall term this year will be spent concentrating on technique and choreography. Miss Heigel said. There will be no tryouts fall term, she added, so that the dancers will have a chance to work with the group to build up confidence and skill.

Ballet, jazz and modern dance are all included in Orchestral's repertoire, and every year the club sponsors a Day of Dance with workshops by a professional. In past years the group has worked with such people as Bruce King, Betty Jones, Alvin Nickolai and Helen McGee, both at Penn State and other schools.

Orchestral is open to all graduate and undergraduate men and women and meets every Tuesday.

Another coeducational meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. when the coed archery interest group convenes in the White Hall gymnasium.

Weather permitting, Adviser

Ellen L. Perry plans to adjourn the group to the women's athletic field to shoot. Equipment will be provided, but use of personal equipment is permitted. The group will hold tournaments and continue meetings from 1-2:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays until bad weather sets in.

Competitive Swim Miss Perry also advises the competitive swim club, the predecessor of a future varsity swim team. Open to all women students, the club will meet at 7 p.m. at the White Hall pool for the first splashes of the term.

The club meets once a week only during fall and winter terms, with other practices on an individual basis. This year the Penn State club will meet other schools in competition at the Wilson College Sports Day Winter Term.

The field hockey interest group will meet at 4 p.m. on the women's athletic field for instruction, individual help and an informal game. Advised by Nancy J. Bailey, the group meets Tuesdays and Thursdays and is open to women students at all levels of ability.

Phone Rings

he told everyone how great it was. When Mrs. Paterno started striking the Wagner Building bell with a mallet, counting off the 17 points scored, you knew it was for real.

Hey, I have to hang up now... I don't know what I'm going to write about, but if you don't get off the phone, I might be forced to print this whole conversation.

Why put me on the spot and ask me what I think. I thought we were going to get killed at Miami, so you know what my ideas are worth... The players? I haven't heard too much except what they said at the rally Saturday night. Oh yeah, Lenkaitis put it appropriately. He said, "We're going to give 'em hell," so I suppose his word is as good as anyone's... Right. See you in the fiery depths Saturday.
