Lucas Pleased By Smith's Fifth Place

By STEVE SOLOMON

By STEVE SOLOMON Collegion Sports Writer With all the data-maps in the streets over Prim Rinh's ac-containce of the thator Bowl bid this week, it's little wonder that Ray Smith's spectacular performance in Alonday's 161A Championships has guidhered so little print. In tact, the only person who has been cele-brating Smith's tifth place tin-ish has been . . . well . . . Ray Smith. Smith.

Without a doubt it was one of the finest individual efforts I have ever seen," cross coun-try coach John Lucas said. "And it's even more impres-tion when you realize that he sive when you realize that he left almost 300 runners behind. Ray is now the fifth best run-ner east of the Mississippi." Wanted First Place Only Bright Light The performance of the Bing-hamton, N.Y., native was the only bright light for the Lions Smith won't deny that he had first place on his mind. It was evident when he jumped off the in a dismal afternoon. State, starting line like a souped-up which was supposed to be fighting for second place, fin-ished eighth, behind such teams gazelle and covered the first mile in a blazing 4:22. He led the field of 300 for two more as Georgetown and Navy. The miles before dropping back to Nittany harriers beat both quite fifth.

"If was planned and strat way," Lawas sold, "Itay and I Ialland II over helare the should and we decided that he should get a last start That's the ideal lactle in a race of this size. If you stay hash you might never be able to make your more because there's hundreds of runners to bey you in But I never expected him—in fact nobody expected him—to get such a tremendous start."

Such a tremenous spart." Smith's times for the first two miles were the fastest ever re-corded in the classic's 70-year history. In fact, Art Dulong of Holy Cross, the individual champion, ran in Smith's fool-stars for three miles and later steps for three miles and later attributed h is re ord-shattering time of 24:24 to the Lion's
