Johnson Attacks Budget, Praises Military Men

AUSTIN, Tex. (P) - President Johnson deficit Johnson is battling to reduce. waded into new phases of the huge federal budget yesterday shortly after praising America's military men for investing dollars as well as courage and brawn in America's

The praise came in a ceremony at Bergstrom Air Force Base here where Johnson presented a Minute Man flag to the Tactical Air Command's 12th Air Force for 90.2 per cent participation in the U.S. savings bond

Afterward Johnson motored to his office in the Federal Building in downtown Austin for talks about the budget of the Agency for International Development with Director William Gaud, the Justice Department with Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, and the government's big housing and housekeeping agency, the General Services Administration with a General Service Service Service Service Service States with one with the strom.

The Minute Man flag, harking back to Revolutionary War days when citizen soldiers came to the aid of their country, was presented to Maj. Gen. Charles R. Bond Jr., 12th Air Force commander.

Johnson told a throng of uniformed men accombiled before the operations office that into how spending on the foreign aid program affects the U.S. balance of payments are helping their country with their dollars.

Because of uncertain weather during the morning, the trio of Washington officials, accompanied by presidential assistant Joseph A. Califano Jr., flew into Bergstrom instead of the LBJ Ranch 65 miles west of here. And Johnson flew in to Bergstrom in order to do his conferring here.

First there was the airport ceremony.

Viet Cong Hit Mekong Delta

The U.S. 9th Infantry Division reported at least 47 men of the Viet Cong's 261st Battalion were killed in a 10-hour fight set off yesterday with the landing of a 150-man infantry company from assault boats on a Mekong Delta canal 54 miles southwest of Saigon. American losses were 18 killed and 50 wounded in the engagement, in which gunboats, helicopter gunships, fighter-bombers and artillery hammered the enemy ranks.

Viet Cong operations included an attack on the hilltop bivouac of a South Vietnamese battalion in the highlands of Binh Dinh Province 270 miles northeast of Saigon. Guerrilla riflemen charged behind a mortar bar-

At Least 47 Dead

A government spokesman said the raiders killed 24 men-14 soldiers and 10 ammunition bearers—and wounded 30, while 23 Communists were killed and two captured. He said the ammu-nition bearers were Vietnamese army deserters who had been caught and were being used as unarmed laborers.

The U.S. Command, in confirming the Communist death toll of 2,868 in the Dec. 31-Jan. 6 reporting period, said more were killed than in "any comparable period in the history of the Vietnam conflict." The previous high was 2,774 in the week of March

In addition to 184 Americans killed in action last week, 1,132 were wound-That compared with 185 killed and 437 wounded in the previous week. South Vietnam reported 263 of its armed forces killed and the other allies 19. The respective figures for the previous week were 227 and 37. Announced American losses in combat since 1961 rose to 16,181 killed, 100,874 wounded and 915 missing or American deaths from non-hostile causes such as illness and accidents totaled 3,213. There were 23 such cases last week.
