

Fencers Dumped By Temple Owls

By DON MCKEE
Collegian Sports Writer

Traditional weaknesses have a habit of cropping up at the most inopportune times and wiping out a team's best efforts.

Penn State's fencing team found this out Saturday, and what could have gone down as the upset of the year turned into merely another of those frustrating "near-misses."

The Lions played host to Temple in the season opener for Dick Klima's fencers and the Owls arrived with a two-year winning streak of 16 matches.

Toughest Opposition
When the visitors left they carried with them a 17-match string, but State had provided the toughest opposition the Owls had encountered this year.

The sophomore-laden Lions won two of the three fencing categories, capturing both the sabre and epee events by scores of 5-4. But State's traditional weakspot, the foil bouts, dashed any hopes for an upset when the Owls grabbed eight of the nine possible points to emerge with a hard-fought 16-11 victory.

What pleased Klima most was the fine showing of his rookies. Five of the Lion's nine starters had never appeared in varsity competition before Saturday.

Harry Hill made a promising debut by easily capturing his first two bouts. The sophomore then carried Temple's two-time All-American, Demetri Merdushev, to the final point before bowing, 5-4.

Senior Co-Captains Jerre Claus and Joel Goza each won two of three bouts for the Lions. Claus lost only to Merdushev and Goza's sole defeat was at the hands of Temple's Middle Atlantic Conference epee champion, Alan Levy.

Top Performance
State's Rick Wright turned in a top performance in defeating Levy, 5-3. Wright, a junior, was the fourth Lion to win two of three bouts. Merdushev paced the Owls by winning all three of his bouts.

The good showing against a more experienced team pleased Klima. "I wasn't discouraged on Saturday," said Klima, "we weren't overwhelmed."

The fencers meet Newark College of Engineering this Saturday in Rec Hall. "A few corrections will have to be made," said Klima. If the coach can whip his charges into the same spirits as prevailed against Temple, State could capture its first win of the season.

Lombardi Ponders Future

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Vince Lombardi relaxed in the sun at poolside yesterday and insisted once again it probably would be a month before he made up his mind whether to continue coaching the Green Bay Packers.

Although there are persistent reports that he will spin off the coaching chores, possibly to Phil Bengston, his veteran defensive coach, and concentrate on his job as general manager, Lombardi denied he had made a decision.

"I really don't know," he said.

"I am being very truthful with you. In a month's time, I should be able to say something. I have no offers, football or businesswise. Green Bay is my job. I really have to sit down for some serious self conversation and give Vince Lombardi a good hard look. I am going to be in Green Bay."

The Packers scaled the heights this season, winning an unprecedented third straight National Football League title and dumping the Oakland Raiders 33-14 in Sunday's Super Bowl game at the Orange Bowl.

Speaking of the game and the Packers' future, Lombardi sounded like a man who would not know what to do with himself if he were not coaching.

"We have to make some decisions on some people," said Lombardi. "Talent isn't all. You have to be able to play under pressure. We have some men who do an excellent job all year but don't do it under pressure in the big games."
