

Swimming Team Away For Meet at Syracuse

By DICK ZELLER
Collegian Sports Writer

Penn State's varsity swimmers are on their second journey outside the confines of the Natatorium today with a meet at Syracuse.

The Lions will be in the familiar position of underdogs, and again winning an event will be considered a major accomplishment.

Mehner Again

The most likely to put a win on the Lion side is Erich Mehner. The sophomore freestyler currently leads the team in the 200, 500 and 1,000-yard freestyle events. With his great improvement over the last few weeks, Mehner can be counted on to set at least one school record per meet.

John Oleyar is the other hope in the individual events for a few points for the struggling Lions. His breaststroke times have enabled him to lead the team but have not been enough to win in very many meets.

Third in Row?

The 400-yard freestyle relay team will be looking for its third win in a row. The foursome of Gene Weber, Jeff Pearson, Jim Conrad and Dennis Burkett has cut its pool and school record to under 3:40.

By far the most respectable of the timed swimmers, the relay team has bettered all competition at the Natatorium. It's not going to bring any lasting fame to any of the four swimmers, since the mark will probably be lowered repeatedly over the next few years. A truly competitive time on the national level would be around 3:15.

Killy, 3 U.S. Girls Win Medals

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Jean-Claude Killy, France's superman on skis, triggered his drive toward an Olympic triple by winning the men's downhill yesterday after three girls brought the United States an unprecedented three medals in a speed skating race.

There were no honors, however, for the winless U.S. hockey team, which suffered its third straight defeat, this one a 10-2 drubbing by the power-laden Russians.

At the same time, there were more trips to the hospital for members of the U.S. Olympic squad as two skiers, Jim Barrows and Jere were injured in falls in the downhill.

Gaining the Games' first medals for the U.S. were Dianne Holm of Northbrook, Ill., Mary Meyers of St. Paul, Minn., and Jenny Fish of Strongsville, Ohio, all of whom tied for second in the women's 500-meter speed skating event.

Each zipped across the finish line in 46.3 seconds, only two-tenths of a second behind gold medalist Ludmila Titova of Russia, and received a silver medal. No bronze was awarded.

Schuylkill, Adams Win IMs

In intramural action last night, Schuylkill House held on to defeat Chester, 27-23, in section D of the Dormitory League. The first half, spotted with several turnovers, ended with Schuylkill leading 15-11, largely due to the defense and rebounding of forward Larry Steinberg.

Chester hit a cold streak in the second half and fell behind, 20-11. They then crept up behind Schuylkill, only to fall short as time ran out.

The Schuylkill attack was paced by Jim Arnone's 12 points and Jim Mieske's 10. Chester was led by Joe Young with 8 points and Jack Pezdic with 6.

In an unusually high-scoring game, Adams' sharpshooters downed a spirited Bedford team, 56-41. Adams shot to a 34-18 halftime lead and coasted to the win behind Jim Lis' 20 points.

John Garhammer scored 12 and Bob Claraval 11 for hustling Adams, while Mark Fuller tallied 15 and Doug Svitchan 10 for Bedford.
