

Gymnasts, Wrestlers Crush Syracuse

Undefeated G-Men Not Even Pressed

By DAVID NEVINS

Collegian Sports Writer

Some of the scores recorded by the Syracuse gymnasts in last Saturday's gym meet sounded more like their all-university averages than gym scores. Scores like 2.75 and 2.90 sound pretty good for grades but are equivalent to academic probation in the gymnastics world.

One of the Syracuse performers couldn't even manage a score that sounded decent in the academic world as he registered a 0.00 on the long horse. He received this distinction when he performed two vaults that were exactly alike, resulting in an automatic disqualification.

All this added up to what was more of an exhibition by State's talented gymnasts rather than a dual meet. Even though the Lions seemed invincible in slaughtering the Orangemen, 185.30-120.15, they still lacked the consistency to break the 190-point total. This lack of consistency could be costly next week in the crucial meet of the season against undefeated Temple. The Lions are 5-0.

High Risk

One reason for State's inconsistency was the high degree of risk in many of the routines. Dick Swetman only received an 8.90 on the parallel bars for one of the most difficult routines around. He lost as much as .5 of a point when he had trouble holding a handstand coming from a back somersault.

Bob Emery had similar problems as he registered a 9.10 on the parallel bars, and the routine contained a dismount never performed by anyone in the world. Although he did complete the dismount successfully, he tripped on the mat coming out of it to cause a point reduction. Had he performed a less spectacular dismount perfectly he would have registered a higher score.

In one of the best routines of the meet, Joe Litow received a 9.35 on the horizontal bar. While this score is nothing to complain about, he probably could have received an additional .2 or .3 of a point if he had not attempted a unique and risky dismount.

Vexler Beaten

After four weeks of undefeated performances on the still rings and long horse, specialist Paul Vexler fell from the undefeated ranks. In scoring a 9.1 in the vaulting, Vexler fell short of his usual 9.50. Although the fans thought he deserved a better score, Vexler had contrary feelings. "I didn't get a big enough hop to get a really good score," Vexler said. "The bad hop caused my free flight to be a lot lower than usual."

Vexler proved to be as consistent as ever on the still rings, as he won the event with a 9.50. Even the Syracuse gymnasts were impressed, giving him a standing ovation. Ironically, though Vexler did get a 9.50, he had to change his dismount in the middle of the routine because he had tired himself out.

The Lions next meet will be Saturday at Temple where they battle for the championship of the Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastics League.

Killy, Kidd Star

GRENOBLE, France (AP)—United States skiers regained some of their lost glory yesterday while Jean-Claude Killy, France's king of the hills, captured another crown in his race toward an Alpine sweep in the Winter Olympics.

Killy, the 24-year-old world champion who won the downhill race last week, added the giant slalom to his growing gold medal chain with a second heat run of 1:46.54 for a combined time of 3:29.28 and an easy victory.

Only One More He now needs only a triumph in the special slalom Friday and Saturday to become the second man in history to win all three races.

His victory Monday was fully expected, leaving the day's most stunning showing to America's Billy Kidd.

Kidd of Stowe, Vt., a silver medal winner at Innsbruck four years ago and plagued by injuries since, outdid even the great Killy on the second heat as he blistered the 57-gate, 1,780-meter course in 1:46.46, the fastest clocking of the day. His performance moved him from eighth to fifth place with a combined time of 3:32.37, still out of the medals but reviving U.S. hopes in the special slalom.

Heuga Falls Teammate Jim Heuga of Squaw Valley, Calif., a bronze medal winner in 1964, fell from seventh to 10th with a time of 1:48.43 for 3:33.89.

Kidd easily was the highlight of the day for the United States. Jeanne Ashworth of Wilmington, N.Y., managed only a 10th place behind winner Johanna Schut of The Netherlands in the women's 3,000-meter speed skating and the best American finish was 27th in the biathlon, won by Norway's Magnar Solberg.

The U.S. hockey team scored its first victory after four losses by trouncing West Germany 8-1. The Americans broke open a close game by scoring four goals in the last 10 minutes of the second period.

Czechoslovakia and Sweden pulled into a first place with idle Russia with victories for 4-0 records. The Czechs walloped East Germany 10-3, and Sweden topped Finland 5-1.

Killy, a ski shop owner who attacks the slopes with a flare of reckless daring, said he did not worry about winning Monday's race after building a 1.2-second lead over Willy Favre of Switzerland by winning the first heat Sunday. He still increased his victory margin over Favre to 2.22 seconds by turning in the second fastest time of the day.

Afterward, mobbed by his adoring countrymen, he expressed confidence that he could equal the triple of Austria's Toni Sailer in 1956.

Lion Matmen Flatten Orange By 34-5 for Fifth Victory

By PAUL LEVINE
Collegian Sports Editor

It had not been an easy week for Bill Koll.

Things began badly for Penn State's wrestling coach and then got progressively worse. It wasn't bad enough that he was nabbed by a local constable for going the wrong way on a one-way street. And it wasn't the worst thing in the world when he buttoned his shirt, donned his sport coat and headed for Harrisburg without putting on his tie. But when he suffered a second degree burn in the process of lighting a cigar, Bill Koll sensed that something was amiss.

"Everything was going so badly that I was worried Syracuse would upset us," Koll said, remembering how the pack of matches exploded in his hands.

The worries were unfounded, however, as the Lions chased Syracuse all over the mat and flattened the Orangemen, 34-5 in Rec Hall Saturday.

State started early en route to its fifth victory as the first four Lion wrestlers compiled a 16-0 lead.

Sophomore Bruce Balmat registered his third victory of the season with a 4-3 decision over Joe Palmieri at 123 pounds and the Lions were on their way.

Veterans Wally Clark and Dave Spinda raised their records to 5-1 as each recorded pins. Clark, at 130 pounds, was in full control with an 8-2 lead when he flattened Ken Peters at 6:43 of the match. It took Spinda even less time to deck Alan Heugh. After scoring an early takedown, Spinda began the second period in control. Using a Princeton arm bar, Spinda turned over Heugh and referee Salvatore Spinelli slapped the mat only 20 seconds after he had whistled in the period.

Hectic Day

Heugh's brief look at the Rec Hall lights marked the end of a rather hectic day for the Syracuse athlete. Originally, a member of the gymnastics team, Heugh filled in for double-duty Saturday, as he competed in both the gym meet and wrestling match.

His performances in each, however, received less than rave reviews. Competing in a losing cause in the afternoon, Heugh scored 2.90 on the trampoline and 6.80 on the rings. Heugh's friends didn't fare much better Saturday night.

The Orangemen's John Terboss at 145 pounds, suffered the humiliation of ending on the short end of a 15-2 score. It was the Lions' Vince Fitz who administered the thrashing, but he had a little help from Terboss, who seemed intent on doing anything to avoid being pinned. As it turned out, Terboss did nothing, and Fitz was awarded a total of four points in stalling penalties.

The Lions' only loss came at 152 pounds when senior Tom Hostetter, wrestling two notches above his weight class, was decisively 9-3 by Eric Greenberg. It was Hostetter's first match of the year.

Bob Abraham got State back on the winning track at 160 pounds with a 5-3 victory over Ken Haynes. The win evened Abraham's season record at 3-3.

Singles Out Abe

"If I had to single out an outstanding performance tonight, I would have to mention Abraham," Koll said. "He's been down lately after losing a couple, and now it looks like he's on his way back.

At 167 pounds, the Lions' Matt Kline raised his record to 5-1, but may have ended the evening as the most frustrated wrestler on either team. For the better part of three periods, Kline pushed, dragged and rode Orangeman Jim Rosell around the mat. Kline wanted his third pin of the season, but Rosell was satisfied to sprawl flat and be ground face down into the mat. After one warning, one single point penalty, and a pair of two-point penalties, Spinelli disqualified Rosell and awarded five points to Penn State.

First He's Ever Seen

"That was the first time I've ever seen a wrestler disqualified for stalling," Koll said afterwards. "But it was a good call. It's up to the referee to make him wrestle. If the guy won't wrestle, he should be disqualified."

At 177 pounds, Bob Funk failed to keep his victory string alive but avoided losing by hanging on for a 5-5 tie with Bob Rust.

Rich Lorenzo raised his season mark to 5-0 as he outlasted Lee Castner, 4-1. Syracuse, now 1-6 on the year, forfeited the heavy-weight bout.

The Lions (5-1) swing back into action Saturday night as they entertain powerful Navy. The Midshipmen (7-0) have already defeated Lehigh and last Saturday pounded Maryland, 26-8. Meanwhile, Lehigh, the Lions' opponents on Feb. 28, lost its fourth match of the year, being drubbed by Army, 21-13.

Wrestling Stats

123—Balmat, State, dec. Palmieri, 4-3.
 130—Clark, State, pinned Peters, 6:43.
 137—Spinda, State, pinned Heugh, 2:20.
 145—Fitz, State, dec. Terboss, 15-2.
 152—Greenberg, Syracuse, dec. Hostetter, 9-3.
 160—Abraham, State, dec. Haynes, 5-3.
 167—Kline, State, won by disqualification over Rosell, 3rd period.
 177—Funk, State, and Rust, Syracuse, drew, 5-5.
 Wt.—Lorenzo, State, dec. Castner, 4-1.
 Wt.—Hollackers, State, won by forfeit.

Swimmers Lose To Syracuse

(Continued from page six) Oleyar finally injected a little spirit into the sagging Lions by winning the 200-yard breaststroke. His 2:34.0 tied the school record for the event. Yarema glided into the deck at 2:38 to capture third place.

The 400 free relay would have needed a miracle to catch the Syracuse quartet's 3:34.6. As it turned out, the Lion foursome could not even equal their previous best of 3:39.6, ending the race at 3:41.

It certainly was not one of State's more impressive efforts. Syracuse entered its second best swimmers in most of the events and often only entered one contestant, giving its guests automatic second and third places.

Coach MacNeill considers the "most important part of the meet the competition between the State swimmers. Feeling outclassed by about every team in the country,

MacNeill figures his swimmers have to be concerned with improving their personal times and ignore the competition.

Tomorrow, the Lions get to ignore some of the best competition in the country as they travel to the University of Maryland.

Despite Negro Boycott Meet a Near Sellout

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Athletic Club indoor track meet this Friday, which is being boycotted by most Negro athletes, is almost a sellout, the meet director said yesterday.

The meet, first to be held in the luxurious new Madison Square Garden, will be picketed by groups who say the NYAC discriminates against Negroes and Jews in its membership policies.

Despite this, all but about 1,000 of the 17,800 available tickets have been sold, said Ray Lupp, the meet director. Still to be determined is exactly how many athletes will cross the picket line that may itself have some track stars. Harry Edwards, the San Jose State teacher who helped organize the boycott, is due here later in the week to oversee the operation.

Lee Evans, star quarter-miler for San Jose State, said last week he expects 1,200 pickets at the meet.

Lupp distributed a final list of entrants Monday, and it contained several Negro stars, including Southern California's star hurdler Earl McCullough; his teammate, sprinter Lennox Miller, and long jumpers Ralph Boston, Jerry Proctor and Bob Beamon.

Last Friday at the U.S. Track and Field Federation meet, however, McCullough made it clear he had no intention of competing in the meet and it seems unlikely that many Negroes, if any, will be there.

Peggy's Not Turning Pro

GRENOBLE, France (AP)—Peggy Fleming's Olympic gold medal in ladies' figure skating apparently isn't in jeopardy because of unconfirmed reports that she plans to turn professional.

After she had won the Olympic competition Saturday night, it was reported she probably would sign a $500,000 contract with a touring ice show. Both Peggy and her mother, Mrs. Doris Fleming, denied it.
