

Start of Season Only 30 Days Away

Time Nears To Trim Major League Rosters

EDDIE STANKY
... will have to work

By The Associated Press
There are only 30 shopping days left until the start of the major league baseball season and during that time managers will have to decide more quickly than ever whether they picked up any real bargains during the winter.

That's because each club must trim its roster to 25 players by opening day April 8. In the past, they were permitted to carry 28 players for the season's opening month.

The decision-making starts today when, for the first time, all 20 teams are slated to see action in spring training games.

Opened Thursday
The exhibition schedule opened Thursday with the New York Yankees blanking Washington 1-0. Five games were booked yesterday.

Today's schedule features eight games in Florida—Atlanta and Los Angeles in West Palm Beach; Cincinnati and the Chicago White Sox at Sarasota; Houston and Washington at Cocoa; the New York Mets and St. Louis at St. Petersburg; Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at Ft. Myers; Boston and Oakland at Bradenton; Minnesota and Detroit at Lakeland, and the Yankees and Baltimore at Ft. Lauderdale.

The Chicago Cubs and California meet in Palm Springs, Calif. and San Francisco and Cleveland at Tucson, Ariz.

"A manager has got to earn his money this year," said Eddie Stanky, the White Sox skipper. "I like the idea of getting down to 25 players. When we expand we'll have to get down to 22 or 23 men and we might as well get ready."

Add K.C. and Seattle
The American League will add Kansas City and Seattle for the 1969 campaign. The National League hasn't announced its expansion plans.

Oakland is the only new city in the big leagues this year, having shifted from Kansas City. Bob Kennedy of the A's is among the six new managers. The others are Gil Hodges, moving from Washington to the New York Mets, Larry Shepard at Pittsburgh, Luman Harris at Atlanta, Jim Lemon at Washington and Alvin Dark at Cleveland.

Gene Mauch, an incumbent, already has what appears to be a major problem: Richie

Allen, his star third baseman, departed suddenly yesterday from the Phils' training base in Clearwater, Fla. Allen is recovering from a severely cut hand suffered last season and he said he went home to have his own physician check his hand.

Phils Get Five
The Phils got five of the some 80 players traded during the off-season. They obtained pitchers Woody Fryman, Harold Clem and Bill Laxton and infielder Don Money from Pittsburgh and catcher Mike Ryan from Boston.

The champion St. Louis Cards got catcher Johnny Edwards from Cincinnati and shortstop Dick Schofield, the former Dodger. They also acquired a new general manager, Bing Devine, to replace Stan Musial.

Cincinnati, among the favorites to win the NL pennant, got outfielder Mack Jones and pitcher Jay Ritchie from Atlanta, infielder Bob Johnson from the Mets, first baseman Fred Whitfield and pitcher George Culver from Cleveland, pitchers Bill Keiso and Jorge Rubio from California and outfielder Johnson from St. Louis.

Atlanta added shortstop Sonny Jackson and first baseman Chuck Harrison from Houston and infielder Deron Johnson from Cincinnati. The Cubs got outfielder Lou Johnson from Los Angeles. Houston picked up pitcher Denny Lemaster and shortstop Dennis Menke from Atlanta and pitcher Fred Gladding from Detroit.

Dodgers Secure Versailles
The Dodgers secured shortstop Zoilo Versailles and pitcher Jim Grant from Minnesota, catcher Tom Haller from the Giants and infielder Paul Popovich and outfielder Jim Williams from the Cubs.

The Giants strengthened their second-short situation by obtaining Ron Hunt and Nate Oliver from the Dodgers. Star pitcher Jim Bunning and Dave Wickersham, another pitcher, were acquired by Pittsburgh from Detroit. The Mets' new men are catcher J. C. Martin, outfielder Tommie Agee and infielder Al Weis from the White Sox, pitcher Al Jackson from the Cards and first baseman-outfielder Art Shamsky from the Reds.

Every American League team also participated in winter player transactions.

Five Wrestling Champs Return

Five defending champions, a 1966 winner and seven runners-up last year will be among the top competitors in the 38th National Collegiate wrestling championships March 21-23 in Rec Hall.

The returning champions in the 11-class field are Rick Sanders of Portland State at 115 pounds; Dave McGuire of Oklahoma at 130 pounds; Dale Anderson of Michigan State at 137 pounds; Don Henderson of Air Force at 145 pounds, and Fred Fozzard of Oklahoma State at 177 pounds. Sanders will be shooting for his third straight title.

Dave Porter of Michigan will attempt to regain the heavyweight crown he won two years ago but lost in last year's semi-final round at Kent State.

Returning runners-up include Masaru Yatabe of Portland State at 137 pounds, Mike Gluck of Wisconsin at 145, Wayne Wells of Oklahoma at 152, Cleo McGlory of Oklahoma at 160, Mike Gallego of Fresno State at 167, Mike Bradley of Michigan State at 177, and Don Carolo of Adams State, runner-up at heavyweight in 1967 but now a 191-pounder.

Oklahoma State and Oklahoma are expected to wage a duel for the team title. Michigan State, the 1967 champion, came on strong last week to win the Big Ten title but doesn't appear to have the overall strength to challenge the Big Eight powers.

Oklahoma State has dominated the NCAA tournament, winning 25 times. Oklahoma is second with six titles.

Penn State is the only Eastern team ever to win the championship. That victory came in 1953, the last time the Nittany Lions played host to the tournament.

ONE OF THE FIVE returning NCAA wrestling champions, Oklahoma's Dave McGuire is shown in his bout with Penn State's Wally Clark last December in Rec Hall. McGuire, a 130-pound national champion last year as a sophomore, dethroned Clark, 5-4, in that bout and will be back to University Park in 11 days when the national championships get underway in Rec Hall.

Shocker: N.C. State Upsets Duke, 12-10

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina State held the ball for 13 minutes and 45 seconds in the second half last night, then scored six points in the last 2 1/2 minutes for a shocking 12-10 upset of Duke, ranked sixth nationally, in the semifinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Basketball Tournament.

North Carolina, ranked fifth in the nation and top-seeded in the tourney, whipped South Carolina 82-79 in overtime in the other semifinal and meets North Carolina State in Saturday night's final.

Duke led 4-2 at the half as each team had only eight shots for one field goal in a game that produced both single and combined low records for the tournament. The previous record was set two years ago when Duke defeated North Carolina 21-20 in the semifinals, overcoming a Tar Heel freeze.

The game produced the lowest score in a major college game in recent history and knocked the Blue Devils out of a chance for the NCAA and probably the National Invitational.

In the next few years, Du Pont engineers and scientists will be working on new ideas and products to improve man's diet, housing, clothing and shoes; reduce the toll of viral diseases; make light without heat; enhance X-ray diagnosis; control insect plagues; repair human hearts or kidneys; turn oceans into drinking water...

and anything else that you might think of.

The 165-year history of Du Pont is a history of its people's ideas—ideas evolved, focused, and engineered into new processes, products and plants. The future will be the same. It all depends upon you.

You're an individual from the first day. There is no formal training period. You enter professional work immediately. Your personal development is stimulated by real problems and by opportunities to continue your academic studies under a tuition refund program.

You'll be in a small group, where individual contributions are swiftly recognized and rewarded. We promote from within.

You will do significant work, in an exciting technical environment, with the best men in their fields, and with every necessary facility.

Sign up today for an interview with the Du Pont recruiter. Or mail the coupon for more information about career opportunities. These opportunities lie both in technical fields—Ch.E., M.E., E.E., I.E., Chemistry, Physics and related disciplines—and in Business Administration, Accounting and associated functions.
