

FINALISTS in the Miss Penn State 1968 Contest are (clockwise) Patty Disbro, Karen Giebalhaus, Jan Hartzell, Marcia Joseph and Janice Steubner. The new University queen will be named at Spring Week Awards ceremonies Tuesday night.

Five Finalists Vie For Miss PSU Title

By MARGE COHEN

Of The Daily Collegian Staff
Patty Disbro, Karen Giebalhaus, Jan Hartzell, Marcia Joseph and Janice Steubner have something in common. Each girl is seeking the title of Miss Penn State 1968. Choosing the new queen, contest chairman Peter Bowers said, will be very difficult for the judges since each girl is "well qualified to represent the University." And, he continued, each girl has participated in many activities, one of the checkpoints in the judging.

Finalists
Patty Disbro, sponsored by Pi Beta Phi sorority and Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, is a ninth term English major from Hershey. Her activities include the chairmanship of the central Association of Women Students Review Board and membership on AWS Senate and executive board.

She has also worked as philanthropic chairman, pledge trainer and scholarship member in her sorority. And, she is interested in sewing and sports.
A ninth term Speech Pathology and Audiology major from New Cumberland, Jan Hartzell has also made her mark at the University. She is sponsored by Delta Gamma Sorority and Delta Upsilon Fraternity.
Cheerleader
One of the University's cheerleaders, she has worked as residence hall representative to WRA in addition to being WRA executive board representative for the sophomore class.

Miss Hartzell is also Public Relations and Communications chairman for Women's Review Board and is a member of Chimes junior women's honor society.
President of her sorority, Miss Hartzell is interested in sports, the arts and music.
The fourth finalist in the competition is Marcia Joseph, sponsored by Gamma Phi Beta Sorority and Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity.
A ninth term art education major from Pittsburgh, Miss Joseph has participated in several Thespian productions, including playing the lead in "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Queen contests are nothing new to Miss Joseph. She was a runner-up in the Miss Centre County 1967 contest and a finalist in the Sigma Chi Fraternity Derby Darling competition.
Her interests include drawing, sculpture, piano and literature.
Janice Steubner, sponsored by McElwain Hall and Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity, is the fifth finalist in the contest.
A ninth term rehabilitation education major from Reading, Miss Steubner is a member of AWS Council and Alpha Lambda Delta freshman women's honor society.
She is also on the La Vie Staff, works with the Women's Chorus and is an orientation leader.
Her interests range from volunteer work in state mental hospitals to creative writing, sports and music.

U.S. Offers Complete Bombing Pause Hanoi Refuses De-escalation

PARIS (AP) — A spokesman for North Vietnam's chief envoy at the Paris peace talks declared yesterday that "no ransom will be paid to the American aggressor" for an end to all U.S. attacks on his country.
Thus Xuan Thuy, the North Vietnamese diplomat, made known a refusal to yield to U.S. requests that North Vietnam show restraint in bombing for a complete bombing pause.
"The United States must stop all bombing," his spokesman, Nguyen Van Sao, told reporters as the negotiations took a break after the opening session Monday.
"Find Some Basis"
But the play failed to deter Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, the American negotiator. He said he had been "hard at work with a microscope" going over Thuy's opening policy statement of Monday. "We have got to find some basis on which to move ahead," Harriman added.
The negotiators go into the second round of their talks today in France's International Conference Center.
The Hanoi spokesman also asserted it was a

U.S. "slander" to say North Vietnamese were fighting in South Vietnam. Asked about this, Harriman replied that the presence of North Vietnamese in South Vietnam had been established, some had been captured, and added: "I don't know why they keep up this fiction."
Comment, Action
Comment and action bearing on the Paris talks came from these distant places:
—In Washington President Johnson acknowledged Harriman's team faces "very hard negotiations" in the bid to silence the guns in Vietnam.
—In Moscow the state radio claimed Red China's Mao Tse-tung told Thuy frostily he considered "it was erroneous that Hanoi agreed to meet" the Americans. So far Peking's information organs have blacked out all word of the talks.
—In London Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart announced plans to visit Moscow May 22 for two-day talks with his Soviet opposite number Andrei A. Gromyko. As co-chairmen of the rusting Indo-China conference machinery, the two men would share the task of convincing any new, wider peace conference that Thuy and Harriman might agree upon.

Thuy has said he wants "a clear and positive answer" from Harriman on whether the Americans will quit bombing and all other acts of war against North Vietnam.
If the Americans agree, he has said, the two sides can move on then to "other problems of interest," meaning wider peace issues. If the Americans decline, or equivocate, he added, that there can be no progress.
Harriman quoted Johnson as saying all American attacks could stop soon "if our restraint is matched by restraint on the other side."
The purpose of the President's condition, Harriman said, is to safeguard "the lives of our men and allies."
Then he went on to list seven stages to a settlement beginning with the restoration of a demilitarized zone as a genuine buffer between North and South Vietnam. It seemed clear the Americans regard these points as an outline to be considered at the peace table in the weeks or months ahead.

Letters to University Senate

MRC Passes Visitation Bill

By MARYANN BUCKNUM
Collegian Staff Writer

The Men's Residence Council voted last night to intensify its campaign for the passage of a more lenient women's dormitory visitation code.
The MRC resolution includes a decision "to explain the rationale of its visitation proposed to each University senator in the form of a letter and any personal contact possible." The bill also seeks the support of the Undergraduate Student Government for this "step in making residence hall living a richer experience."
According to Gene Cavallucci, MRC president, the visitation bill is now in the Senate committee for consideration and will come before the entire body during Summer Term.
In other legislation, the council members unanimously passed a bill calling for the formation of a joint Association of Women Students and MRC committee to consider any topic of common interest to both organizations. The members of the Ad Hoc committee may only submit recommendations to the central bodies. MRC said it feels the idea will "foster good and meaningful relations with AWS."
Ed Allison, chairman of the Housing Committee, reported that information supporting the use of private television sets in the dormitory has been prepared and will be presented to Otto Mueller of University Housing for consideration. According to Allison, the committee has received favorable comments from the Dean of Men's office on the proposal.

The format included in the resolution includes the results of a student survey conducted by the committee. The survey showed that residence hall TV rooms are often overcrowded. It also pointed out that dorm residents consider this restriction a form of discrimination.
In other business, John Shuman, vice president, announced that the annual banquet will be held 6:30 p.m. Monday, in the Terrace Room of the Hetzel Union Building.

Professor Poll Scheduled

Faculty opinions on the admission of black students, women's being allowed to live downtown, and other questions on University policies will be polled in a Daily Collegian survey this week.
More than 100 professors and instructors, representing all the colleges and most of the departments on campus, will receive questionnaires in the next few days. Faculty members are requested to answer the questionnaire or give it to a colleague who will so the survey will be representative.
Next week a second survey will be sent to other faculty members, asking them to evaluate their students' behavior in class and on campus.
