Tennis To Open; Frosh Hold Key

tennis team may be tiring of all the bad weath pete somewhere and Wright and Shivar may fill the first

New Hampshire Plans To Take in Patriots

Schedule

Changes

The combination of extremely fine balance and considerable personal depth of the U.S. Military Academy's track team will be the most difficult enemy of Penn State when the two meet this af-ternoon at Beaver Stadium. The opening events are scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. Army is the first opponent for the Lions in this outdoor season. The Cadets were formidable in indoor circles this winter, establishing a 10-1 record. Frontrunners of the State attack are con-centrated in the weight throwing area, with good talent in the hurdle and distance events providing the follow-up punch. Roger Kauffman in the shot put, Rick Allen and Gene Becker in the triple and long jumps, Scott Chatham, Don McCourt and Chuck Harvey in the hurdles and sprints provide State's nucleus. Greg Fredericks and Jerry Henderson will be relied upon to supply distance running points. Army's outstanding sprinters are Tony Dedmond and Kevin Flanagan, with an excellent quarter miler in George Forsythe. Jim Osman is Army's team cap-tain and a fine miler. State recently completed a successful Southern four.

