

Student falls to death

By BOB YUKSAVAGE
Collegian Staff Writer
State College borough police continue to investigate the case of a University student who plunged to his death Friday from the fifth floor of an apartment building.

Edward E. Kuhn (11th- psychology-Orrtanna) died from a compound fracture of the skull sustained in a fall from a 5th floor balcony outside his apartment at 521 Beaver Hills Apartments, police reported.

Police said the death, was accidental pending the coroner's report.

According to Charles

Grimm, senior vice president of Central Counties Bank, the amount of money taken from the North Hills branch, 1821 N. Atherton St., in a daylight robbery Wednesday was $17,630.

State Police at Rockview, FBI agents, and borough police continue to search for leads to the identity of the lone gunman who left with the money on foot.

Four persons, including two University students, received hearings Friday on charges of shoplifting before State College district magistrate Clifford H. Yorks.

Yorks fined John C. Mood (6th - agronomy - Horsham) $150 plus costs on a charge of shoplifting from Weis Market Feb. 14. Mood pleaded guilty to the charges and already had made restitution. In a hearing before the district magistrate, Yorks found Ronald Migdon, of State College, "guilty on a charge of shoplifting from Penn Traffic in the Nittany Mall Feb. 23. Migdon received a fine of $150 plus costs and restitution for taking a double stereo tape priced at $17.95.

Steve S. Hennessy, of 243 S. Pugh St., State College, plead guilty before Yorks on a charge of shoplifting from Weis Market. Hennessy received a $100 fine plus costs and restitution for taking a package of cheese and a package of sardines priced at $1.04.

Yorks fined Harry H. Hamilton (8th-civil engineering-Imperial) $100 plus costs and restitution on a charge of shoplifting from McLanahan's Feb. 11.

Steve E. Swarm, of Milesburg, arraigned Thursday before Yorks on charges of burglary, larceny, and receiving stolen goods, remains in Centre County jail in lieu of $2,500 bail.

Rockview state police arrested and charged Swarm with the Jan. 18 burglary of the Wee-Wee Hut on North Atherton Street. A hearing on the case has been set for today.

Swarm was also fined $5 plus costs on a charge of trespassing on University property. University security filed the charge.

Borough police reported two accidents with injuries Friday, one involving a University student.

A car operated by Michael A. Tilbrook, of Pittsburgh, turned left from College Avenue into the parking lot of Roy Roger's restaurant and skidded on ice into the building, Friday at 8:27 p.m., police said.

Both Tilbrook and a passenger, Peggy Conrad (11th-consumer related studies - Vandergriff) sustained minor injuries and were taken to Centre Community Hospital. Both were released after treatment.

Damages were estimated at $300 to the auto and $50 to the restaurant.

Police reported at 7:46 a.m. Friday a car driven by Christopher T. Flynn, Bellefonte, collided with an auto on the inside lane of East College Avenue operated by David L. Rotolo, Charleroi. The Flynn vehicle attempted to move from the outside to the inside lane, police said.

Upon impact, the Rotolo vehicle bounced into the opposite lane and collided with an oncoming vehicle operated by Sharon L. Keramati, of 445 Waupelani Dr., State College, police reported.

Della Merryman, of State College, a passenger in the Keramati vehicle, complained of injuries but did not require immediate medical treatment.

Damages were estimated at $500 to the Keramati vehicle and $200 each to the Flynn and Rotolo vehicles.

Commissioners must be notified USG revises strategy

The Undergraduate Student Government, yesterday revised its statement of last week regarding the problem of students whose voter registration, applications have been rejected by the Centre County Board of Commissioners.

In the earlier statement, USG Department of Student Political Affairs urged contested registrants to boycott appeal hearings scheduled last Wednesday through Friday, and again today, if they had not yet obtained any of the proof of residency documents required by the Commissioners.

USG petitions for unification

The USG Department of Student Political Affairs has started a petition for a separate University Park voting district. Currently, the campus falls into three different voting precincts that also include off-campus areas.

Bruce Shaw, department director, explained the campus now includes parts of the East, East-Central and West-Central districts.

Of all the students eligible to vote, Shaw says "a rough guess is that a minimum of 350 have registered to vote on campus. By the primary we hope to have 500."

According to the law, a voting district must have at least 100 voters. Shaw added, "The ideal size is about 600 to 800."

The petition will be submitted to Centre County judge R. Paul Campbell. "We hope to have the petition filed by the end of the week," Shaw said, "or by next Monday."

Once submitted, there will be a two-week period during which opinions can be

The department now advises rejected applicants to notify the commissioners' secretary if they will not be appearing to appeal their rejection at the date and time prescribed by the commissioners. "The phone call or other communication to the commissioners' office is the vital element," according to the new statement.

The department also urges every rejected applicant who was scheduled for an appeal last week and who did not show up, to notify the commissioners' office today that they would like to appeal at a later time.

USG officials explained their failure to establish the necessity of contacting the commissioners for an appeal delay. "We were led to believe that the rejected applicants could show up at a later date (until April 10) and wait for the commissioners to have some spare time in which to listen to the appeal," the statement reads.

This impression was held, they said, after a brief conversation with Commissioner J. Doyle Corman of Feb. 14 and after numerous communications with staff members at the Elections Office in Bellefonte.

However, The Daily Collegian reported Friday Corman had criticized USG's advice to contested registrants to boycott their appeal appointments until a drivers license, credit card or some form with a local address to prove residency could be obtained.

Corman said he would consult the county solicitor to find out if those who did not show up for their scheduled hearing would be permitted to appeal later.

Nevertheless, USG still maintains part of its original statement which reads "Under no circumstances do we advise that rejected applicants should go to the Courthouse (in Bellefonte) to appeal their rejections until they have one of the documents which the commissioners require."

Berrigan trial awaits emergence of witness

HARRISBURG (AP)—The government's chief witness at the Harrisburg 7 conspiracy trial comes out of hiding this week to testify how he kept the FBI informed about an alleged anti-war plot to kidnap presidential adviser Henry Kissinger.

Everybody is waiting for the surfacing of Boyd Douglas, Jr. — the judge, the jury, and especially the defendants.

He disappeared 13½ months ago, immediately after he was paroled from prison and went secretly before a federal grand jury that later indicted the Rev. Phillip Berrigan and his six codefendants on conspiracy charges centered around their opposition to the Vietnam War.

Without Douglas there probably never would have been a trial, now expected to cost the Justice Department around $1.2 million and the defense about half that much.

"He's the key, no question about that," acknowledged the government lawyers. "He knows what happened and how."

Besides the Kissinger scheme, the defendants are charged with conspiring to blow up tunnels that carry heat to federal buildings in Washington, D.C., and vandalize draft board offices around the country.

The defense has told the jury of nine women and three men that there was neither kidnaping or bombing and that draft board raids, when they occurred, were the acts of concerned individuals.

Douglas, 32, met Berrigan in April 1970 when both were in prison at the Lewisburg, Pa. Penitentiary — Douglas for assaulting an FBI agent and forging checks, Berrigan for destroying draft files.

Douglas, at the time, was attending classes during the day at nearby Bucknell University, the only inmate among 1800 on a work-study release program.

The government claims the Catholic priest recruited the prisoner to smuggle mail in and out of the prison via his school note-books and that he turned informer when discovered.

Construction started for tallest apartments

Excavation has already begun on what will be the tallest building in the Borough of State College: a 12 story apartment house on lower East Beaver Avenue between Locust Lane and McAllister Street. The State College Planning Commission authorized last Thursday the building permit for this new venture of Alex Woskob, owner of Parkway Plaza and Beaver Hill Apartments.

Although State College has an ordinance against buildings above 65 feet in height, permission was granted for Woskob's 100 foot-plus construction.

Wallis Lloyd, chairman of the Planning Commission gave several reasons for the exemption. The developer allowed for a pedestrian recreation deck to cover about two thirds of the parking deck in the rear of the building as well as promising to screen all utilities on the roof. He is also allowed only the same number of units (about 120) that he could include if the building were under the 65 foot limit.
