4-The Daily Collegian Tuesday, March 7, 1972

Defending ~ champ

ANDY MATTER, who compiled a 16-0 mark this year for the

Penn State wrestling squad, will defend his 167-pound title at this week's NCAA championships in College Park, Md. Matter is one of six Lions competing in the event.

Wrestlers prep for Nationals

By RAY MCALLISTER Collegian Sports Writer After a disappointing weekend in Philadelphia, Bill

Koll and company are nearly set to head for Maryland. College Park is the place to which Koll and assistant Rich Lorenzo will take their six qualifying wrestlers for this veek's nationals. Hopefully, the University of Maryland will be-more to their liking than was Temple, where the Lions were upset, 92-88.5, by Navy.

Conditioning, Koll feels, played no small part in that upset and he is determined not to have his squad again be-the victim of any lacking in that department.

"We've been running hard sprints since last week," he said, "'running up, then walking back. We do this for about twelve minutes, which is about the time of a match when you add the time spent walking around the mat and everything.

"This is just starting from a complete standstill and building up momentum," he continued. "Running like this builds up endurance.

This is not," Koll said. "the type of workout you can have all season. We only use it during the tournaments."

The grapplers, because of some scheduling which bordered on the insane, were denied this endurance-building training before the Easterns. Facing Navy, Pitt and Lehigh in an eight-day period, the Lions came back to University Park only four days before they hit the road again for Philadelphia.

"They wrestled a tough match at Lehigh on Saturday, drove back in a snowstorm on Sunday and were still tired when they came in here on Monday," said Koll. "I'm not making excuses but it did affect us in several instances. "This extra week off," he added, "has really been a help." Koll, though, realistically admits that Penn State has little or no chance for the top spot at Maryland this weekend - not with powers like IowaaState, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Michigan State in the field. The head coach, though national championship, does expect a strong performance from his half-dozen.

"I expect strong showings from our seniors (Andy Matter and Dave Joyner)," he said. "Maybe a first-place finish or two.

"(Bob) Medina I expect to do well; the same goes for (Tom) Teagarden. With a little luck and some good draws, both of them could place," Koll said. John (Fritz) and Chris (Koll), if nothing else, will pick up experience which could be valuable later.

"And you never know, with some luck they could move up there, too," he continued. "Any time you've got a wrestler out there he could win.

While Matter and Joyner both leave the team after the tourney, the other four will be around for a few years. Teagarden and Fritz are freshmen; Medina and Koll, only sophomores. And well aware is the coach of how much the experience of the nationals could help them. ~ 'those four against anyone.' 'Look at Don Stone, for Koll and the rest viewed the instance," he said. "His first time he did nothing but last films of the Eastern touryear he came back and was in nament recently and were not contention all the way, finishing third. And Joyner' exactly thrilled with at least one of the matches they saw. Medina was tripped up by Navy's Andy Tolk, 7-6, in that one. A Medina win would only won a few matches his first year but was runnerup last year.

"That may be all a kid like Teagarden or Medina needs — a chance to get in the tournament and see that he could actually win it," said Koll.

In addition to giving some after it was awarded, Tolk escaped from what would of the newcomers this ex-perience, the NCAA chamhave been a predicament, pionships might also give Penn State a high finish, despite the strength of the (i.e., two points and therefore the match for Medina). The referee conferred with two others watching the match and they split on the call, Midwest teams.

"All this talk about team meaning the 2-1 decision went against Medina. ''Seeing those films makes points is kind of funny, anyway," said Koll. "A high finish just means you have two or three good wrestlers, not ten.

you mad all over again," said Koll, slowly. "I think Medina had a pin in there." "Just because one of them "I had a team a few years saw it and the other two didn't," said Lorenzo of the back that was 5-9-1 and yet we finished fourth in the nationals," he said, proving the point. "We only had four referees' decision, doesn't mean it didn't hapguys, really, but I'd match pen.

WRA Sportsday The Women's Recreation Association sponsored its annual Commonwealth Campus Sportsday Saturday afternoon in White Building. Nine teams participated in the two leagues, Extramural and Sportsday. At the end of the day placques were presented to the-two-league winners by Debbie Noves, representative from the WRA board. Ogontz won the Extramural League and University Park won the Sportsday League.

East Halls Radio presents

"FUN FLICKS PHASE II"

featuring Charlie Chaplin in W. C. Fields in 'Circus Slicker" and "Love Panas" and 'The Big Thumb" "Face on the Barroom Floor"

also featuring

Daffy Duck Speedy Gonzales Røadrunner ... Bugs Bunny 🗁 Foghorn Leghorn

Mon. March 6	FUB	only
7:30 & 9:30	Rec	3 1/4 rupees
Tues. March 7	Room	(50°)
7:30 & 9:30

Football players think off field, too; 24 Lions on fall athletic honor roll

A total of 24 players — more than a third of Penn State's varsity football roster — have credit to the type of people we been named to the Nittany Lions'Athletic Honor Roll for the last grading period.

Penn State's Athletic Honor Roll is for varsity team members with averages of 3.0 or better in Penn State's 4point system.

Penn State rolled through the 1971 season with a 10-1 record and posted a 30-6 win over Texas in the Cotton Bowl, and team members found time to excel in the

"Their academic achievements are a great have in our football program," says Penn State coach Joe Paterno. "We have always tried to recruit people who want to excel in the classroom as well as on the football field." Paterno's plan has been working to perfection. Penn State's varsity football let-termen have attained a higher academic average than the rest of the male student body at Penn State for 25 consecutive terms. Defensive end Bruce Bannon and center Tom

Shoemaker had perfect 4.0 averages during the last grading period. Bannon, a junior from Rockaway, N.J., carries a 3.89 cumulative average in geological sciences. A Rhodes Scholar candidate, Bannon earned All-East honors during the 1971 season and was named the Outstanding Defensive Player in the Cotton Bowl. Shoemaker, a junior from Blairsville, Pa., is majoring in business administration. Bannon was one of seven Cotton Bowl starters who earned averages of 3.0 or better last term.

Other regulars on the honor list are sophomore fullback

Tom Donchez, Bethlehem, and is a two-time Eastern Pa., 3.40 in business ad-ministration; junior offensive guard-Carl Schaukowitch, McKees-Rocks, Pa., 3.30, year at Penn State. mechanical engineering; Other members sophomore defensive back Athletic Honor Roll a Buddy Ellis, Pittsburgh, 3.10, averages: business administration; sophomore linebacker, Tom Hull, Uniontown, Pa., 3.08, arts and architecture; junior safety Gregg Ducatte, Plattsburgh, N.Y., 3.00, political-science;-and-senior-offensive tackle Dave Joyner, State College, Pa., 3.00, premed. Joyner, who earned All-American honors in football

Other members of the Athletic Honor Roll and their Jack Koniszewski, Peckville, Pa., 3.70, business administration; Scott Mit-chell, Grand Blanc, Mich.,

heavyweight wrestling champion, has a cumulative average of 3.33 in his fourth

3.70, liberal arts; Doug Allen, have given the title to Penn-

was as the referee was cautious in awarding Medina

A controversial match it reversal. A split-second

''that

State.

Corning, N.Y., 3.67, liberal --arts;—Regis-Lagler,—Pitt--sburgh, 3.67, electrical engineering; Jack Aumiller, Bellefonte, Pa., 3.60, electrical engineering; Mark Markovich, Latrobe, 3.31, business administration; John Susko, New Castle, Pa., 3.27, biology; Barry Johnson, Kane, Pa., 3.25, general arts and sciences; Wayne Mun-son, Saddle Brook, N.J., 3.13, physical education; Steve Joachim, Havertown, Pa., 3.10, liberal arts; Phil LaPorta, Valley Stream, N.Y., 3.10, business ad-ministration; Mike Orsini, ministration; Mike Orsini, Hummelstown, Pa., 3.09, science; John Hull, Union-town, Pa., 3.06, consumer related studies; Dave Bland, Philadelphia, Pa., 3.00, counseling; John Cappelletti, Upper Darby, Pa., 3.00, education; and John Lewchenko, Darlington, Pa., 3.00, business administration.

NIT adds conference teams; Lions waiting

NEW YORK (AP) — The leaving eight more berths for National Invitational Tournament added Princeton, Texas-El Paso and St. Joseph's to its field Monday; then announced it would wait "and let the rest play their way in." "We're in an enviable position because we have a lot of good basketball teams to choose from,'' said Ben Carnevale, chairman of the NIT selection committee.

terested __ in ` ---twelve----in-dependents" including Oral Roberts, Detroit, and Duquesne,<sup>17</sup> said Carnevale. Princeton's debut in the 35-year old New York tourney marks the first time that an Ivy League club will be represented. The Tigers finished the season with a 19-6 record, including nine straight vic-tories at the end. Among their victims were North Carolina, the regular season ACC champions; Ivy League king Penn, and Villanova, an NCAA tournament selection. The committee also is in-St. Joseph's, runner-up in the Middle Atlantic Con-ference, will be making its fourth NIT appearance. The Hawks, with victories over Villanova and NCAA-bound Providence had a 19-8 mark.

Texas-El Paso, the last team to win a national championship before UCLA's five straight NCAA titles, will be in the NIT for the second time. The Miners, who finished with a 21-6 record, own triumphs over Brigham Young and Memphis State.

3.00, business administration. We do all types of auto ITALIAN FOOD repair at reasonable prices. Free pick-up & SPECIALTIES BEER AND FINE WINES THE COPPER KITCHEN delivery. Long's Arco, 624 E. College Ave., 238-9935. 114 S. Garner St.

there are a lot of good ones." The NIT probably will choose teams from the

"This is the strongest field in my recollection." Atlantic Coast Conference, Addition of the three brings those selected so far to eight, are decided.

INTERNATIONAL FILMS

presents

the 16-team post-season tourney which begins March 17 in Madison Square Garden. Last week, Jacksonville, Fordham, St. John's, Niagara and Syracuse were picked. "Naturally we're looking at every conference race in the country for the other eight spots," said Carnevale, "and

