

Spiraling scores plague golfers

By GUY GUERRIERO
Collegian Sports Writer

A freeze on inflationary golf scores? One thing coach Joe Boyle wouldn't mind enacting is a ceiling on the Lions' spiraling scores.

Penn State, which spends the day in the nation's capital testing the Georgetown Hoyas, ended a 20 match win streak Monday when its 402 score was one more than Kent State registered.

Boyle admitted having mixed emotions as to what effect the loss will have on his squad. "Only time will tell," he said. "The guys were all pretty low yesterday, but they know we aren't well diggers and should have the ability to bounce back."

One member of the squad that doesn't have to worry about bouncing back is captain Danny O'Neill. O'Neill fired one-under-par 71 Monday, and isn't concerned as much about his golf game as he is about the team's attitude.

"That loss should help this squad," O'Neill said. "We were so happy about Saturday's win over Maryland, half the team went into the Kent State match like they didn't know we were playing another team."

"They took it too lightly and we got our ass beat," the Lion captain said. "Maybe it will wake the team up to the point where they start playing more serious golf."

If the loss does "wake the team up," Fred Von Barga and Harry Hamilton could benefit the most. Von Barga has slipped from shooting rounds in the mid-70s to those in the low 80s, high 70s area. Hamilton, who recorded rounds of 82 and 87 in his last two outings, says his problem lies in his getting his head together.

"Everything is going wrong right now and it's all psychological," Hamilton said. "I can't get it going and once I hit one bad shot, I lose my confidence and hit two or three more."

"It's getting me in trouble, but this weekend I am really going to work on it and try to straighten things out."

Hamilton and the rest of the 1 on golfers will have a chance to turn things around this afternoon at 1 p.m. against Georgetown.

The Hoyas, with a 4-2 duel match record, start a young squad headed by sophomore Dave Hill. Hill, shooting in the high 70's is followed by senior captain Tom Piscetta. Piscetta is the only experienced member of the squad, but has had trouble breaking 80 this season.

Georgetown coach, Steven Stagberge, says his team has not done an outstanding job this year, but is looking forward to meeting the Lions.

"Penn State is the best team we'll play all year and the guys really like to compete against good golf teams," he said. "I haven't any great illusions about beating them, but it will be fun to see how we make out."

Renko outduels Carlton

MONTREAL (AP) — Steve Renko won his first game in exactly a year when he outduelled Philadelphia's ace left-hander Steve Carlton for a 2-1 Montreal victory yesterday.

Renko, whose last victory was last April 18, had a no-hitter through five innings but gave up hits to Larry Bowa and Cesar Tovar in the sixth and allowed two more hits and a run in the ninth.

The Expos collected their two runs in the first inning. Pepe Frias, playing in his first major league game, led off with a single, moved to second on a bunt and scored on a single by Hal Bredeen. Jorge Roque's single scored Ron Woods with the other run. The Phillies' lone run in the ninth came after a walk to Bowa, and singles by Willie Montanez and Tom Hutton.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bobby Bonds' home run in the 11th inning carried the San Francisco Giants to a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves yesterday.

Bonds connected with one out against Tom House, who relieved starter Carl Morton at the start of the 10th.

Atlanta got two men on with none out in the top of the 11th, but House bunted into a double play and Rod Gilbreath struck out.

CHICAGO (AP) — Dick Allen drove in four runs with a homer and a double yesterday, helping the Chicago White Sox overcome some faulty fielding and edge the Texas Rangers 6-5.

Allen hit a three-run homer in the first inning, then broke a 5-5 tie by doubling home a run in the fifth.

Bill Melton followed Allen's homer with one of his own and catcher Chuck Brinkman singled in a run in the fourth for Chicago's other runs.

Texas stayed in the game on a wild pitch by Wilbur Wood, 2-2, three passed balls by Brinkman and two errors on the same play by second baseman Jorge Orta.

BOSTON (AP) — Detroit veteran Jim Perry (2-1) pitched a five-hitter yesterday as Al Kaline, Willie Horton and Eddie Brinkman cracked homers in a 7-1 victory over Boston, the Tigers' third straight at Fenway Park.

The 39-year-old Kaline slammed his second homer of the year in the first inning and twice singled in runs later. Horton homered in the second and Brinkman in the fourth, both with the bases empty.

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Designated hitter Frank Robinson, who had struck out three straight times, slammed a leadoff homer in the eighth inning yesterday to give California a 3-2 victory over Minnesota.

American League strikeout king Nolan Ryan fanned 14 and pitched a five-hitter to win his third straight game. Ryan now has 37 strikeouts in the three starts. The victim of Robinson's tie-breaking smash was Bert Blyleven, 1-3.

It was the second Robinson homer of the season and No. 524 of his glittering career.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Skip Lockwood and Jim Colborn combined to pitch a six-hitter yesterday as Milwaukee clung to a one-run lead for eight innings, then exploded for a 4-0 victory over Cleveland.

Netters unwind in D.C.

The Penn State tennis team may have plenty of time to tour the nation's capital after meeting Georgetown this afternoon. The Hoyas (2-5) could be easy prey to the Lion netters.

State coach Holmes Cathrall tried to spoil the netter's easy day by rescheduling the rained out George Washington match, but could make no arrangements as of last night.

"I'll make any concessions I have to play them," Cathrall said. "I want to get them in."

The Hoyas are led by junior Rick Kentz. The most consistent of the Georgetown netters, his best match thus far was a three set victory against Villanova.

In the number two and three positions, the Hoyas will use Chuck Lohrfing and Vince Haas. Lohrfing is capable of solid tennis, but has been playing in spurts this season.

The remaining singles positions are still up in the air. Hoya coach Robert Thomas refused to release the bottom half of his lineup, presumably because he contemplates some changes after Georgetown was shellacked by Navy 9-0.

Before yesterday's shutout he was using Henry Thompson and Matt Keese at the fourth and fifth spots, respectively. Sixth position has been a question mark all year.

Thomas may also be planning a few innovations for his doubles teams. He said he has decided Kentz and Lohrfing will face the Lions Walker Shivar-Tom Wright duo, but has withheld the other doubles pairings.

Although Wright admits he is not yet performing up to last year's standards, his doubles play has been adequate enough to carry the pair to a 3-1 record. By himself, he has earned a 2-2 record.

"I'm not sure exactly what it is, but I think my game will come back as I regain some confidence," he said.

Today's match resumes a series that was broken last season when Thomas refused to travel to University Park and play on the two indoor courts. No substitute day was agreed upon and the series lapsed. Georgetown currently leads the competition 9-15.

Soccer club opens with split

Penn State's two International Soccer Club teams opened their Recreational League seasons last weekend, but only one walked off with a victory.

Paced by two-goal performances by Fernando Robles and Charles Egborge, the White team trounced "The Hash" 5-1. Angilos Oswili also scored for the winners.

The Penn State Blue squad lost a tough 1-0 decision to "Los Toros," last year's league runner-up.

The White team will play another league contest April 26 and the best players from both squads will host the Lock Haven varsity April 28 at 2:00 P.M.
