Lion bats down Hoyas, shock Devils

Assistant Sports Editor The Penn State baseball team stopped at Dickinson 22-3. along the road to Georgetown last Friday, and if coach emphasis switched a little Chuck Medlar was looking for more to pitching as Penn than he bargained for.

With Penn State runners 2 constantly circling the base times as the Lions put 50 men to the plate, churned out 26 hits and shocked Dickinson the batter's box. His

Then on Saturday the a workout, he got a bit more State took Georgetown 6-4, pushing its season record to 7-

Catcher George Coval paths, the Dickinson contest started the Penn State looked like a track meet at avalanche downhill in the

Golf team takes on two The Lion golf team travels year Penn State forged a to Lehigh this afternoon for a relatively comfortable 384-400

1.30 p.m. tri-meet.

Princeton, a last minute addition to the meet, and Lehigh should supply the 4-1 Lions with somewhat formidable competition. Last

MAY 12th

WEST HALLS

victory out of the Lehigh meet and holds a 20-1 advantage

Princeton, however, owns a 3-7 advantage on the Lions.

LEARN TO BELLY DANCE

DANCING TO TRIM AND TONE

YOUR FIGURE

Call today 237-5701

Elaine Powers Figure Salon

323 R. E. Beaver Ave.

CHAOS-IN-THE-QUAD 1973

over the years.

runs in his first two trips to the batter's box. His roundtripper in the first inning was a grand slam that traveled farther than any ball hit on Dickinson's field in recent memory.

Penn State third baseman Greg Vogel also came up with two homeruns on the fenceless field. His first was in the third with two on and the second, a solo shot, came in the fourth. Pitcher Brian Masella picked up his second win along with his first home run. Masella's shot came in the sixth with a man on.

Masella allowed single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth for the Red Devils and was innings while walking five finally relieved in the fourth innings while walking five and striking out 10 in his six innings on the mound. Medlar then brought on junior Tom

we are now offering instruction in the

Serena method of belly dancing. Free classes are open to our members only.

ARTS & CRAFTS EXHIBIT

(Lighted display tables will

$25 prize for best exhibit.)

INFORMATION — QUESTIONS

University Park, Pa.

Call: 865-1124, OR

WRITE: 114 Watts Hall

No entrance fees.

1 p.m. May 12 - 1 a.m. May 13th

be provided.

the Collegian

6-The Daily Collegian

Kirsch for two innings of work before closing out the game with Mitch Lukevics. The Lions got a look at quite a few Dickinson pitchers during the afternoon.

Crobach started the game after surrendering 12 hits and 14 runs. His relief help held the Lions to just eight more runs in the final five innings. Things settled down a bit Saturday at Georgetown. lead in the first after Vogel singled and center fielder Dennie DeWitt doubled. Georgetown came back in with his pitches on Saturday," Medlar said, "but we know he's going to come around soon. He's too good a pitcher not to."

Sherkel took himself off the hook and put the Lions back in the lead in the fourth with a three run homer. Stine walked to start the inning and after two outs were recorded, Coval was hit by a pitch moving Stine to second. Relief pitcher John Maier Penn State got off to a one run then singled in Stine and Sherkel followed with his home run.

Penn State closed out the Georgetown came back in scoring in the seventh after a the third with three tallies to walk to Vogel and a single by knock out Lion starter Rick DeWitt that advanced Vogel Sherkel. Sherkel had his fast to third. With two out Medlar stuff working, but was getting tried the double steal and Vogel scored before DeWit "He was coming upstairs was tagged out in a run down

> Maier was credited with the win, his second against no loses, after allowing only one hit over six and two thirds

Penn State Dickinson	431 403 416— 906 111 900-
AB Driviti Ochs Lammie HR Coval 2 Stine 2 Maseira	18 Burke Galott
	E8 8 H 91
Miseda W 20	8 5 3 5
K rsh	2 3 9 0
Lukevics Crobasiti	1 2 4 1
Costatt	373 12 14 2
Cohn
Worr &	223 1 2 5

	GEORGETOWN					PENN STATE
STATE						ab r h
95 r /r 5:	Contry 11 Stakem Jo	4	0	ō	0	De Witt	5	3	2	3
4 3 3 0	O Briene!	i	ĭ	i	ž	MICSKY	55	7	ŏ	á
1 1 1 0	LICCI IN	4	ı		1	5 no 36		3	. 1	,
5 3 7 0	- ord no c	3	Û	0	С	Burket	1-1	4	. 3	С
2 5 1 1	Lambourss	4	а	2	٥	Bartek	to	4	- 2	i
5 3 4 8	Tetzet	4	0		ō	COVALC		1	1	2
3 4 4 2 1 2 1 0 0	Gilliagher 25	2	Ó	0	ō	Burker	* * *	1		ā
	Marringly &	- 5	ī	ĭ	- 5	Sherket	0 1+		i i	ĩ
3 1 1 0	Lawensen	1	e		ă	Maiorio	,	í	- 1	•
4 0 1 1			_	-		-
4 2 1 1	TOTAL	31	4	ô	3	~ 7.4	1	12	6	•
4 3 1 1
4 2 1 1	Penn State						10	9	400	10
4 3 7 5	Georgetown						00		016	30
5 . 3 3	E Barrek	5	eri	•	28	Dew	9 74	- 2	Sħ	er k
5 0 5 0	Sherkel					2 1 3	5	PH	R	889
0 0 0 0	Maier (w. 20)					623	i	1
22 24 22	Marting y L						9			-

sportscene

Penn State. Princeton at Lehigh, 1:30 p.m.

Penn at Penn State, varsity courts, 3 p.m. Canadiens hand

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rejean Houle's score keyed a three-goal second-period rally as the Montreal Canadiens beat the Philadelphia Flyers 4-1 yesterday to take a 3-1 lead in their Stanley Cup semifinal series.

The Canadiens get a chance to wrap up the best-of-7 game set tomorrow night in their home rink.

The turning point came early in the second period with Montreal trailing 1-0. With two men in the penalty box, the Canariens held off a Philadelphia onslaught.

Then, in less than nine minutes, Montreal had three goals. In addition to Houle, Mac Tardif and Ivan Cournoyer scored for the Canadiens.

The defeat left the Flyers facing the herculean task of beating the Canadiens three straight, including two on Montreal ice, if they hope to reach the Stanley Cup finals. Bill Barber, who led all National Hockey League rookies in scoring this season, fired a 30-footer that was deflected into the net by Bobby Clarke at 4:08 of the first period to give Philadelphia a 1-0 lead. The score was on a power play as Montreal's Jim Roberts rested in the penalty box for tripping.

In the second period, Montreal's Larry Robinson was caught hooking at 2:01, and 37 seconds later was joined in the box by Roberts, guilty this time of hooking. The Flyers appeared a cinch to boost their one-goal margin with the 5-3 advantage but didn't.

This failure to exploit the two-man edge seemed to take the fire out of the Flyers. Houle tied it when he deflected a 45footer by Pierre Bouchard past Flyers goalie Doug Favell at

AΣΔ

PRE-MED HONORARY

will be accepting new members

Must be at least 6th term

Gary 865-0268

Leslie 865-8073

Stacey 865-2824

GENTLE

THURSDAY

May 10, 1973

10:30 A.M. until ???

Old Main Lawn

A day of sharing,

love and music

For details call:

Flyers' Andre Dupont muscles Frank Mahovlich to the ice

LOOKING FOR HOUSING?

Want to help your fellow students? Look no further!

You can now rent an efficiency or one-bedroom apartment in

Beaver Hill

Cedar Brook

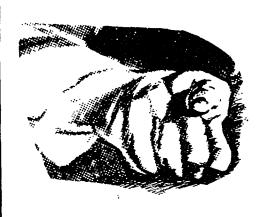

Park Hill

Parkway Plaza

Pann Towars

For further information visit the OTIS office, Room 20 HUB

ARE YOU QUALIFIED?

- Between 18 and 58 years old
- Willing to help in the treatment of hemophilia and other blood diseases.
- Available for a 2 hour interval Monday through Friday

IF SO, THEN WE WANT YOU

Why not become a plasma donor at Sera Tec. Biologicals? You may come to donate 8:30 AM to 7:00 PM Monday through Thursday or 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM Friday and earn as much as $40/month for your efforts

SERA TEC BIOLOGICALS

Private Co-Ed Camp

in the Pocono Mountains will be interviewing on campus April 28th. 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. For more information contact Mr. Boyd at Student Employment office.

Looking for specialists in drama, archery, boating and an assistant water-front person.

