

Old Blue captures Phyrst crown

By BILL HUMPHREYS
Collegian Sports Writer

At half-time of yesterday's game with Penn State, Old Blue Rugby Football Club, leading 16-0, was informed that it needed 11 more points to win Penn State's fourth annual Phyrst Cup Tournament.

Rising to the occasion, Old Blue scored 12 in the second half to whip Penn State, 28-0, and edge Washington R.F.C. for first place, 55 total match points to 53. Both clubs finished with 3-0 records for the tournament, which necessitated the use of the tournament's tie-breaking point count rule. "They definitely showed that they were the tournament champions," said Penn State Club President Jim Twiford. "We were outclassed."

Old Blue did all its scoring on tries, the four-point rugby equivalent of football touchdowns. Its best kicker was absent, and his substitute missed all seven conversions, worth two points apiece.

This lack of kicking could have cost Old Blue the tournament, but when Corky Galant scored the club's seventh try, the kicker was off the hook. Old Blue also won the tournament in 1969 and thus becomes the first two-time winner.

Washington Captain Andy Pemberton said he thought Old Blue deserved to win. "They made the plays when they had to," he said.

Penn State opened the tournament with a win over Ohio State at 11 a.m. Saturday. Dave Lobbs put the local club on top in the first half by diving into the end zone for a try, and Dr. John Reidell converted to make the score 6-0.

Later in that half, Lobbs drop-kicked a goal to give Penn State some breathing room, 9-0. Ohio State never caught up.

That afternoon, the situation was reversed; George Washington held a 10-0 lead at the half, and Penn State was forced to play catch-up. The local club almost pulled out a victory. Buddy Knisely, after taking a lateral, bulled over the goal for a try in a style reminiscent of a football fullback to make the score 10-4. Reidell missed the conversion, but later he put a 40-yard penalty kick through the uprights to pull Penn State to within three points at 10-7.

However, Penn State was unable to capitalize on several more scoring opportunities, and GW added another try to put the game out of reach at 14-7.

"I was really proud of the guys," said Penn State Captain Brian McKenzie, referring to the way that the local club, now 3-4, came back after being down 10-0 at the half.

All of the games were played on the fields next to the flower gardens across from East Halls.

Netters put the bite on Panthers 9-0

By RICK STARR
Assistant Sports Editor

The Nittany Lion tennis squad yawned past the outclassed Pitt netters 9-0 Saturday in a comedy of errors on the indoor tennis courts.

After taking last Monday's match with Ivy League power Penn, the Lions had an easy time with the Panthers, winning 18 of the 19 sets played. Penn State number three Miguel Maurtua yielded the only set of the afternoon when he decided to do some practicing in his second set with Pitt's Tom Current.

Lion number one Jan Bortner opened up the slaughter with a pair of 6-1 victories over Joe Kanton. Bortner, while leading only 4-1 in the first set, apparently got a little worried and decided to switch rackets. However, the switch had little effect on the match as Bortner kept right on winning.

Kanton had his share of difficulties throughout the contest as he was never able to adjust to Bortner's first serve. His most consistent return of the match was a wood shot that he ricocheted off the half-inch wide heating pipe above the court. Kanton used the shot twice in the first set.

Penn State number two Walker Shivar upped his record to 8-0 with a 6-1, 6-2 straight set win over Joel Hurwitz. Lion tennis coach Holmes Cathrall said Shivar is now in a position to challenge Bortner for the number one spot on the team.

"Walker is playing the best tennis anybody has ever played for me at Penn State right now," Cathrall said. "Walker will probably challenge Jan in the next few weeks—probably before the Navy match."

"I think Shivar should be given the opportunity since he has been number one for three years. A Bortner-Shivar challenge will be the fairest way to settle this."

In the number three singles, Penn State's Maurtua took an easy 6-1 first set victory over Current but then dropped the second.

Current amazed the crowd at one point during the match when he hit the ball off the wood twice in one swing.

Maurtua hit two double faults along with a series of mistakes at the baseline and finally dropped the second set, 2-6, by netting a forehand service return.

"In the second set, I was practicing some shots for another match and my big shots weren't going in," Maurtua said afterwards.

The Lion freshman stopped practicing in the third set and won 6-0. "I couldn't afford losing that one," he said.

Tom Wright took 12 straight games from Pitt number four Mike Pines and Bruce Issadore also shut out his competition at number five singles.

Doug Pollock filled the final singles position after John Karr was late arriving. Unfortunately for Pitt, Alan Levin arrived on time and Pollock promptly beat him 6-2, 6-0.

Bortner and Maurtua played number one doubles for Penn State after Cathrall sent Shivar and Wright home. The two roommates, who wear the same good luck beads, had good luck with Kanton and Woods, 6-3, 6-2.

The final two doubles teams also posted wins.

A Marantz speaker system breaks up that old gang of yours.

Separation of sound is a true test of a speaker system. And to put Marantz—or any speaker—to the test you should listen to something you are already familiar with so you'll be able to hear for yourself that it's the speaker and not the recording that makes the difference. Oh, what a difference Marantz makes! What you thought were two oboes are now clearly an oboe and a flute and that barbershop quartet...well, they're really a quintet.

Let's face it: ALL speakers claim to be the very A-1 HOT SHOT MOSTEST BEST.

But the proof is in the listening. And that's where Marantz speakers come in. Each model is engineered to handle a plethora of continuous RMS power and each employs a long excursion woofer and a tweeter with fantastic off-axis response. And Marantz offers you a wide selection of sizes. Each model for the money is truly the very A-1 HOT SHOT MOSTEST BEST.

However, keep this in mind. Marantz speaker systems are built by the makers of the most respected stereo and 4-channel equipment in the world. The same quality that goes into Marantz receivers and amplifiers goes into the entire line of Marantz speaker systems.

To find out how much better they sound, listen. That's all we ask. Listen.

We sound better.
