

O'Neill, Lions capture Easterns

"I knew I needed to par out on 18 to win," O'Neill said. "The coach told me how close it was, so I played it safe. "After I missed that short birdie putt on 14, I wasn't taking any chances. The pace of the tournament had slowed down, and it took a little off my game. When I get going, I like to move, but that holdup at 14, on top of the missed putt, threw my concentration off. "Coming into 18, I just wanted to get down in five, but I was happy to get the birdie."
When O'Neill's closing 72 was added to Krumrine's 76, Von Bargen's 78, and Ferguson's 80, it was all over except for the celebrating.
Pre-tournament threat

Penn had long since dropped out of the race as its number one man, Keith Griffin, recorded more bogies than pars on the closing day to finish the two-day event at 161 and drown the Quakers' hopes.
"I hate to blame it all on one guy, but Griffin's performance knocked us out," Penn coach Robert Hays said. When he played here in the fall, he shot in the mid-70s, and if he played that kind of golf this time around, we would have been right in the middle of things.
"I'm sorry it had to come now, because until this tournament, we had had a really fine season," the Quaker coach added. "In fact, this is the first time all season Griffin didn't break 80 in two rounds, it's just not like him."

Lion coach Joe Boyle also expressed being surprised at Penn's disappointing showing.
"They have three excellent players, and I really expected a much stronger showing from them," Boyle said. "Everybody seemed to have their troubles though, only two par rounds were shot during the two days of play."
Speaking of his own squad's performance, Boyle seemed less than surprised that the Lions repeated as EIGA champs. "Danny did everything that was expected of him," he said. "As for Fred and John, they played a lot better than they scored. Freddy had some putting trouble, and he's usually good in the greens.

"The real surprise for us this season has been Rex Ferguson," Boyle added. "He's been coming through for us all season and its made this a much stronger team."
"On the whole, I'm pleased with this squad, though, I had hoped they would break 300 on the closing round today, because I know if we're to do anything in the nationals, it will take some super rounds under 300. We went over that a little, but right now, the most important thing is that we won."

LACROSSE—Tim McGuire and Kurt May each scored two goals Saturday to lead Penn State to a 6-5 victory over Lehigh in Bethlehem. Bob Cohen and Ron Schneider added single tallies as the Lions outshot the Engineers 46-36. State scored three times in the opening quarter but managed only single tallies in the other three periods. Lion goalie Bill Giacalone limited Lehigh to two goals in the second period and lone tallies in the rest as he posted 12 saves. Loser Bob Vitale was called on to make 19 stops. The victory was Penn State's third in eight starts.

The women's match with Cornell scheduled for Saturday morning was forfeited by Cornell when the New York school could not field a team due to injuries and final exams. Penn State's record now stands at 2-4.

TRACK—Penn State took 13 of a possible 17 firsts to easily outdistance West Virginia and Syracuse in a tri-meet held Saturday in Beaver Stadium. State scored 124 points to WVU's 20 and Syracuse's 9. The Nittany Lions swept first place in all the field events, with Al Jackson winning the shot put with a toss of 49' and Mark Bilyk taking the long jump with a leap of 21' 5 1/2". Ken Andrews won the javelin throw, John Reihner took the discus. Dave Angstadt won the high jump and Jon McCoy took the triple jump. State also won the 440 and mile relays, relinquishing firsts in only four events: the mile run, the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash and the three mile run.

Penn State's women's club garnered 11 medals, the third highest total in the meet, in Saturday's "University of Maryland Track and Field Championships for Women" at College Park, Md. Laura Troy scored a second place finish in the 80 meter intermediate hurdles, while Karen Johnson, who set a women's record in the event two weeks ago, fell on the last hurdle. Lion Autumn Colton took a second in the half-mile run and Nancy Mark took a photo-finish second in the 60 yard dash. State also placed second in the 440 yard relay.

RUGBY—Saturday's home match with Sud-Americano R.F.C. was cancelled when the visitors failed to show up, opting instead for the Commonwealth Cup Tournament in Virginia. Penn State was not informed in time to set up an alternate match and was forced to play an intrasquad scrimmage instead.

GOLF—The women's team saw its 20 match win streak disappear Saturday as it lost to Ohio State 390-396 on the wind-blown White Course. Lion Andrea Dutcher took medalist honors with an 87 stroke total. Nancy Shafer's 92 was low for the Buckeyes, who were the last team to defeat the Lions before the streak began. The loss, which Penn State coach Annette Thompson blamed on the bad weather and her team's lack of playing time, dropped the women's spring mark to 2-1.

TENNIS—The women upped their record to 2-1 with a 5-0 shutout over William and Mary Saturday on the varsity courts. The Indians didn't bring their top four players due to illness and academic reasons.

NEW YORK (AP) — Willis Reed scored 22 points and Earl Monroe contributed 21 as the New York Knicks held off the Los Angeles Lakers for an 87-83 victory yesterday and gained a 2-1 lead in their National Basketball Association championship playoff series.
Game No. 4 in the best-of-7 set will be played tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden.
The Knicks rallied in the second half to overcome the Lakers, who were hampered by the loss of highscoring Jerry West. The Lakers' leading scorer through the first two games with a 28-point average sat out the entire final period with a pulled groin muscle.
Los Angeles' Wilt Chamberlain was tagged with a technical foul after waving his hand angrily and screaming at the referee.
CHICAGO (AP) — Second-period goals by Yvan Cournoyer and Chuck LeFley in a span of 90 seconds powered Montreal to a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks yesterday and gave the Canadiens a commanding 3-1 lead in the best-of-7 Stanley Cup finals.

The scene now shifts to Montreal where the Canadiens can clinch their 18th Stanley Cup tomorrow night.
BOSTON (AP) — Larry Pleau scored three goals and Tommy Webster contributed two more as the New England Whalers defeated the Winnipeg Jets 9-6 yesterday for the first World Hockey Association championship. The Whalers, who won nine consecutive playoff games at home, took the best-of-7 series 4-1.

17 years on the American pro golf tour picked up $41,000.

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Mike Caldwell pitched a two-hitter yesterday as the San Diego Padres went on a 16-hit rampage, including home runs by John Grubb and Clarence Gaston, to score their second straight victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-0.
The Pirates advanced only one runner as far as second base.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The backstretch at Churchill Downs was still breathless yesterday morning after Secretariat's clock-shattering victory in the 99th Kentucky Derby.
The morning after his record 1:59 2/5 clocking for the 1 1/4-mile Derby, his rivals in the race were calling him a super horse and one trainer said he might be another Man O'War.

SUMMER OF '42

"A story of growing up, of three boys spending the summer with their families on an island, of their adolescent yearnings, their adventures, their hesitant forays into the mysteries of the opposite sex. An unforgettable film that recalls everyone's youth."
