

Cindermen break six records at Pitt

By DAVE DUNLOP

Charlie Maguire collected one of five Penn State firsts Saturday as he ran his impressive unbeaten string to six victories in six meets by winning the three-mile at the Pitt Invitational Track Classic.

Also grabbing firsts for the Lions were Ken Andrews in the javelin, Al Jackson in the shot put, Fred Singleton in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 440 relay team of Doug Finkel, Singleton, Mike Sands and Jimmy Scott.

Twelve Pitt Stadium and meet records were cracked by the 34 teams on hand and Penn Staters had a hand in six of them. The eight Lions who picked up firsts were also awarded wrist watches.

Olympic gold medalist Dave Wottle of Bowling Green also won a watch when he set a Pitt Stadium record in winning the half-mile in 1:50.2.

Wottle also anchored his school's mile-relay team but was unable to overcome a large deficit as Pitt won the event by 20 yards.

Maguire, who has won a race in every Penn State meet this spring, beat off a determined drive late in the race by teammate Gary Gittings to win at the wire. Both runners were clocked in 13:38.4, a meet and stadium record, but Maguire broke the tape ahead of Gittings.

The pair burst away from the rest of the field with a half-mile to go and ran virtually side-by-side the rest of the way. Maguire edged to a slim three-yard lead, Gittings caught him with a half lap remaining but was outkicked on the home stretch.

"Both boys wanted the watch," coach Harry Groves remarked, possibly referring to when Gittings and teammate Ken Wilson crossed the finish line smiling and shaking hands in a dead tie to win the two-mile versus Kent State earlier this year.

Maguire and Gittings both belted out the final quarter mile of Saturday's race in 59.2 seconds.

Singleton took the 120-yard high hurdles in a Pitt Stadium and meet record 13.9 seconds. His time also established a new school record in a race Mike Shine's 14.4 timing netted fourth.

The 440 relay triumph also snapped meet and stadium marks in a time of 40.8 seconds. The team had broken those records Friday in the trial heats and broke them again the next day.

Jackson's shot put win came on a toss of 50' 1 1/4" while in the javelin, Andrews paced a Lion sweep with his fling of 227' 8". Tom Stevenson took second (222' 2") and Joe Feerrar was third (214' 3").

In other Penn State developments, Sands set a meet and stadium record for the 220 Friday at 21.2 seconds but slipped to 21.4 seconds in the semi-finals. He and Finkel each ran 21.8 seconds in the final race to tie for fourth.

Lion nine blasts Buffalo in DH sweep

By STEVE REITZEL

After playing three games in three days, a weary Buffalo nine crawled into State College at 1 a.m. yesterday for an afternoon doubleheader against Penn State.

Twelve hours later, the Nittany Lions wore the visitors down some more, pounding out 23 hits, scoring 23 runs and sweeping the two games 17-0, 6-0.

Buffalo could sense it was in for a long afternoon from the start. The Lions reached four Buffalo pitchers for eight hits, seven walks and 15 runs in a first-inning rally that took nearly an hour.

While a laughter from the start, the contest did showcase the pitching of John Maier, who raised his record to 5-0. Maier struck out four and gave up only two hits in a four-inning stint cut short by Lion coach Chuck Medlar, who is saving Maier for a probable start in Wednesday's doubleheader at Indiana (Pa.).

Maier said he was concerned about his long layoff between the first and second frames, but felt the overabundance of runs helped his pitching in the long run. "You always worry a little bit," Maier said after the game. "I threw a little bit in the bullpen and was all right when I went back in."

"When you're up 15 runs there's a lot less pressure. You can relax and just throw the ball."

Len Bartek came in to clean up, and didn't allow a hit the rest of the way to gain a save in his first mound appearance. He also picked up a save in the nightcap, coming in to fan one batter for the final out of the afternoon.

The Lions also received fine pitching in the second contest. Mitch Lukevics went five innings, giving up only four hits and walking one to pick up his fifth win in six starts. He ran into trouble only once, filling the bases in the fourth on two walks and a single.

Lukevics managed to strike out the side and shrugged off the inning with a comment that plate umpire Gus Stiner was "not giving me the knees."

Penn State's hitting still shared the spotlight. The Lions kept up the barrage in the nightcap as leading batter Dennie DeWitt stroked a double and triple, Greg Vogel lined two doubles and Lukevics helped his own cause with a two-bagger.

"The fellows are hustling, they are scrapping," Medlar said after the sweep. "They went out there today and really took charge."

But while Medlar praised his team's overall performance, he would not admit to the probability of a playoff berth that should be nearly assured with State's present 15-4 season mark.

"We're not in the playoffs yet," he said. "We have to do well the next three ball games."

Netwoman tops pregnant foe

An Ohio State women's tennis player eight months pregnant provided the highlight of the women's weekend sports scene. Carol Kovaleski, the reigning Ohio state champion, played despite her condition and lost to Penn State number one singles player Carol Backenstose and her team lost to the Nittany Lions 4-1. It was the first loss of the year for Kovaleski, who was allowed to play only after two physicians gave their approval.
