Redskin defenders honored Vols' Holloway top college back

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee's Condredge Holloway played the 1972 football season under wraps. Coach Bill Battle simply didn't want to run the risk of his star quarterback getting hurt.

But Battle had to turn Holloway loose Saturday night after Duke, taking advantage of Tennessee fumbles, built a 17-7 halftime lead.

The shifty little junior from Huntsville, Ala., ignited a Tennessee comeback with a 49-yard scoring run in the third quarter and set up the winning TD with a fourth-down dive to the Duke one in the waning minutes.

He also completed a 27-yard touchdown pass, ran 18 times for 64 yards and hit six of 12 passes for 50 yards in leading the Vols to a 21-17 come-from-behind victory.

These exploits brought the 182-pound Holloway recognition as The Associated Press national Back of The Week.

Others nominated for back of the week included quarterbacks Jeff Grantz, South Carolina; Danny White, Arizona State; and Don Woods, New Mexico; running backs Freddie Carolina, Tulsa; Mike Esposito, Boston College; Archie Griffin, Ohio State; Cleveland Cooper, Navy; Alvin Maxson, Southern Methodist; and Rufus Myers, Texas Tech; and defensive backs Jim Bradley, Penn State; and John Provost, Holy Cross.

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Washington Coach George Allen acquired Ken Houston from the Houston Oilers for five second-line players, he was one of the few people who thought the veteran defensive back would be important to the Washington Redskins.

Since last May 15, however, the Redskins' secondary has learned how important it was to get Houston. The Redskins had planned to play Roosevelt Taylor at free safety and Brig Owens at strong safety.

But Taylor broke his arm against Detroit. Owens moved over to the free safety position and Houston was inserted at strong safety.

Working together in their first regular-season game last Sunday, Owens and Houston led a defense which helped shellshock the San Diego Chargers 38-0.

Owens recovered a fumble — caused in part by a Houston tackle — and scampered 36 yards for a touchdown. Houston returned a fumble six yards and set up another Redskins' touchdown.

Houston intercepted two Johnny Unitas passes, one setting up a touchdown. Owens also picked off a Unitas aerial, setting up a field goal.

For their efforts, the Redskins' secondary stars were named The Associated Press Defensive Players of The Week in the National Football League.

They also received the cheers of their teammates when Allen made the announcement at a meeting before practice.

Others nominated for defensive honors were Atlanta's Tom Hayes, Green Bay's Ken Ellis and Miami's Nick Buoniconti.

Aaron still chasing Babe; but where are the fans?

ATLANTA (AP) — Henry Aaron's dramatic chase of Babe Ruth's career home run record continues in virtual obscurity at home, despite a massive program initiated by local businesses to honor the 39-year-old superstar.

Aaron, now needing only three homers to tie Ruth's lifetime mark of 714, played before more than 135,000 fans during a three-day trip to Cincinnati last weekend.

He returned home Monday night to a crowd of only 1,362 — lowest ever for the Braves game in Atlanta — and smashed No. 711.

Despite massive coverage of the home run in local newspapers and the fact that the Braves were facing another road trip, only 4,236 watched Tuesday night's battle with San Diego, in which Aaron had a single in four trips.

(The Braves were to face the Dodgers in Los Angeles late last night.)

"It's disappointing to see only 1,300, but being a professional ball player I feel like the 1,300 who came are entitled to see you play as hard as you can," Aaron had said following his home run. "We've got to have a contender," said Manager Eddie Mathews. "I think that's the answer. Gimmicks won't do it. We need a winner."

Atlanta has drawn only 726,520 in 64 playing dates at home this year, while 1,457,016 watched Aaron and the Braves on the road in 73 playing dates.

The club has been out of contention most of the year and was mired in fifth place before last night's action, 21 games behind Cincinnati in the National League West.

The Chamber of Commerce announced a massive "Atlanta Salutes Hank Aaron" program the day before he hit his 710th home run against San Francisco, before only 2,872 fans on Sept. 10.

Highlight of the campaign is a four-year college scholarship in Aaron's name.

The city donated 20 billboards throughout Atlanta reflecting Aaron's home run total to date for the remainder of this season and it will be done again next spring if Aaron fails to break the record this year.

A committee is encouraging all scheduled events in the city during the next year to include salutes to Aaron on their agendas. A special dinner honoring Aaron is planned for next February.

"A stunning piece of cinema. A rare achievement. 'O LUCKY MAN!' is an irresistibly fascinating movie. It's the kind of movie that will haunt you for weeks afterwards. An epic movie, a symbolic personal odyssey."
— Kevin Sanders, WABC-TV

"A masterpiece. It leaves the audience shattered. Savagely funny, humor-rich, dextrous and musical. It is satire with a point of view, and it makes for fresh, surprising, relevant entertainment. Alan Price has contributed brilliant music interludes. Lindsay Anderson's direction is a majestic achievement. The most significantly important motion picture I have seen in a long, long time." — Rex Reed, New York Daily News
