

Shorts: Cronin on way out?

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Globe reported yesterday that Joe Cronin will be replaced as American League president by club owners. The Globe said it had learned the owners will name Lee McPhail, the New York Yankees' executive vice president, to replace Cronin at a meeting in Chicago next Tuesday.

NEW YORK (AP)—O.J. Simpson continues to be the runaway star, literally, in the National Football League this season.

Following his 166-yard effort last Sunday against Baltimore, the running back of the American Conference's Buffalo Bills has amassed a phenomenal 813 yards. He's ahead of the pace Jim Brown set a decade ago, when he established the NFL single-season rushing record of 1,863 yards.

In the rest of the NFL, according to statistics released yesterday, Calvin Hill of the Dallas Cowboys is No. 1 among National Conference rushers with 439 yards, Harold Carmichael of Philadelphia and Charley Taylor of Washington share the NFC pass-receiving lead with 28 receptions apiece and John Hadl of Los Angeles, with 50 completions on 74 passes for 817 yards and 12 touchdowns, is the NFC's No. 1 quarterback.

In the AFC, Len Dawson of Kansas City is the top passer with 49 completions on 75 attempts for 499 yards and two touchdowns, and Fred Willis of Houston is first in receiving with 26 catches.

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight of this weekend's 13 National Football League games were sold out yesterday — at least 72 hours before kickoff — and will be televised locally.

Penn State roundup

Former team tough Groves foe

CROSS COUNTRY — Harry Groves shoots for his 290th win as a cross country coach tomorrow when Penn State hosts Georgetown and William and Mary in a 1 p.m. tri-meet tomorrow at the White Course. If the Lions beat William and Mary, the win would be a sweet one for Groves, who started his coaching career at the Virginia school. Groves spent 14 years at William and Mary, earning a 261-80 mark for cross country meet ever held in the state.

Next week the class competition returns to Penn State for the Eastern United States Track and Field Federation Championship, which the Lions won last year.

From there Penn State finishes out the dual meet season at Pitt, then IC4A and NCAA tourneys follow on consecutive weeks.

country meets. Added to his 28-5 totals in six years as the Lion track boss (3-0 this season), Groves has never had a losing season as a coach.

The football team is away at Syracuse and the booters are scheduled to entertain Maryland tonight at Jeffrey Field, so that leaves Groves without any competition for spectators.

WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY — Penn State's field women just coming off a tough 2-0 loss at Ursinus College Tuesday, face another potentially big game today when they host SUNY-Cortland, 3 p.m. at the Pollock fields.

"The kids kind of got down after the Ursinus game," said Penn State goalie Mary Beth Morgan, "but we're looking for a victory. We may need a little luck, but we're gonna be psyched."

They better be. Cortland, now 6-0, is the second-seeded team in New York State. It's an experienced team, made up mostly of juniors, and led by center forward Gayle Botcher. Botcher has 11 goals in Cortland's six contests.

Penn State this year is 1-1-1, with a 3-0 win over Bucknell, a 3-3 tie with Slippery Rock and the loss to Ursinus. The leading women scorers are center forward Anne Findlay and right inner Peggy Gerhart, with two goals each.

Penn State's left wing Lyndell Shindler will not be present at the game for personal reasons. She will be replaced by Chris Kassab. —JY RUGBY—The Penn State rugby club has a busy weekend, hosting games on Saturday and Sunday. Both games start at 1:30 p.m., at the flower gardens.

Saturday the rugger, now 3-2, oppose Philadelphia's A team, while the Philadelphia B team meets the Barbarians, from the Harrisburg area. The Pittsburgh Law School provides the opposition on Sunday.

is the time to talk to us about futures.
Yours.
And ours.

At Atlantic Richfield, our concern is how to respond to the need for energy in creative new ways that make maximum use of our nation's resources with minimum disruption to our nation's environment.

It's a big order. It's also a big opportunity... opening up exciting new possibilities for innovation and career growth... a whole new dimension for the oil industry, for us and you.

For you, the opportunity is immediate. You'll learn by doing on assignments that will call for everything you know... and add to your knowledge... and lead you to bigger and better assignments as fast as you show us you can handle them.

We have openings in many locations throughout the U.S. To determine if your background and our requirements match, please see your Placement Director regarding an appointment with our campus representative.
