

East RAs outman North-South

By FRED BREWER
Collegian Sports Writer

Jim Grant's great defensive play in the second half was the spark "The Beasts of East" needed to make a comeback and edge North-South 6-0. "I was pissed off," Grant said, "because they kicked me in the mouth." The Beasts needed something to ignite them because they were pathetic the entire first half. North-South should have their name shortened to North. Nobody from South showed up and the North had to make do with only eight players. North was making do so well the first half it looked like they had the game under control with their 2-0 bulge in first downs. Neither quarterback was having much success completing passes on the rainy, windswept field, but Ernie Hinderliter managed to connect often enough to get two first downs for North-South.

Much of the first half was spent watching North-South go back and forth. Jim Haggerty caught a 32 yard pass for a first down, then they were penalized. Chris Horn pulled in a ten yarder then another penalty against North-South. When it appeared East II would get the ball for the first time they were penalized. North-South was finally forced to try a field goal. Hinderliter's boot was blocked and East had their hands on the ball for the first time. In contrast with North-

South's ten minute control of the ball the Beasts tried three passes and punted. After a short runback of Paul Barakat's 35 yard punt North-South went through the whole routine once again. Horn dove for a ten yard grab putting North-South over the line for their second first down. Another catch by Haggerty, and a pile of penalties both ways, enabled North-South to control the ball the rest of the half. North-South received the second half kickoff. After a couple incomplete passes they tried some razzle-dazzle that backfired. Hinderlite lateraled to Mike Brachus who lateraled back to Hinderlite. The slippery ball eluded him and was picked up by Grant on N-S's 20 yard line.

Primos move to IM finals

By BILL GUTHLEIN

The Primos, named after the Hawaiian beer, moved to the independent finals last night by clinging to a broken play score to defeat Mike's Heroes, 7-0.

The victory gives the Primos the chance to meet Wacky Tabacky (8-0) in tonight's independent final. The Tabacky team has now scored 202 points this season against none scored upon. Tabacky eliminated Kelly's Heroes 19-0 last night.

The Primos are enthusiastic about challenging the defending independent champs. "It'll be the 'Battle of the Weeds,'" one said.

The game's only score came on a 40 yard ramble by Primo quarterback Al Terraro on the game's second play from scrimmage. The ball was centered from the midfield stripe, Terraro was rushed, he rolled out, found running room, and the Primos were ahead 6-0.

"I got by one guy and no one else was there," Terraro said. "I was waiting for a whistle when no one ran after me."

It was fitting that the only tally of the evening came on a rushing play. Neither team could generate much offense during a night of heavy drizzle.

"Our defense was not too good," Terraro conceded. "You couldn't throw the ball, no one could run patterns, but our defense was exceptional. I don't think they would have gotten in our territory except for some penalties and me dropping the ball."

The defense managed to dump the quarterback only once but did pick off five passes of Heroes' QB Lee Slocum. Three of the interceptions came on bombs that Slocum hung up.

John McQuillen nabbed two of Slocum's passes. In his second he performed a ballet-like leap but landed undignifiedly on his rear and slid five yards forward.

Terraro made two from his linebacker spot to protect his winning score. Dave Berger picked off a fourth down desperation pass with 34 seconds remaining to end the Heroes' chances.

Mike's Heroes first threatened late in the first half after they took over the ball on the Primo 30 after a Terraro fumble. Slocum tried two bombs that fell incomplete but followed up with a 20 yard completion and a first down.

With a first and 10 to the goal Slocum dumped a pass into the crowd while under heavy pressure. McQuillen made his first interception of the night to end the threat.

At last... condoms for men who hate condoms

For years condoms have been a necessary evil—essential but not very nice to use. So we at Adam & Eve sorted out all the little things that make condoms less than pleasant, and we developed new Jade.

ONE: Most condoms are too thick for real pleasure. Jade is so sheer you can hardly feel it. Yet because it is made of the very finest latex under strict government standards, Jade is as reliable as any condom you can buy.

TWO: Cheap lubricants have an unpleasant medicinal smell. Jade is specially lubricated with ADESS silicone "love oil" which is odorless and won't evaporate. This makes Jade easier to put on and gives much greater sensitivity.

THREE: Ordinary condoms come in a cold clinical pack. Jade comes in a tastefully-designed soft wallet. It's sensual not clinical.

FOUR: Jade sheaths are pale green, which apart from being the color of masculine energy, makes them readily visible so you don't have to worry if they're on properly.

FIVE: Jade even eliminates the awkward problem of what to do after. Each sheath comes with its own self-seal plastic envelope for neat, esthetic disposal.

So if you hate to use condoms, mail the coupon and have the pleasure of letting Jade, the very-unordinary contraceptive, change your mind. It will be sent with our illustrated catalogue in a plain package. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back.
