

As a customer; are you generally dissatisfied with stores' attitudes toward you? Ever felt the effects of a Mickey Mouse return policy which sends you home dissatisfied? How about the seemingly universal check hassle?

We at Lester's have different ideas about customer relations. You won't be annoyed by aggressive sales people; but should you need help, friendly, capable service is always available — JUST ASK. If you're dissatisfied with a purchase, we'll fix it, replace it, or gladly refund your money.

WE CARE,

Jeff, Steve, Rich,
Mary, Jim, & Carl

Lester's Varsity Man
in the Nittany Mall

THE OFFICIAL PENN STATE CLASS RING

The ring with a LIFETIME GUARANTEE by Josten's

1. Defects of workmanship or materials will be repaired at any time free of charge.
2. Rings may be resized at any time free of charge.
3. Year dates will be altered at no charge if a student changes his year of graduation.
4. If a student fails to graduate and wishes to return his ring, a full refund will be made.
5. All synthetic stones are fully guaranteed and will be replaced at any time free of charge.
6. Rings will be refinished at no additional charge.

moyer jewelers
216 EAST COLLEGE AVENUE

Vote! This week's P.S. includes a special pull-out section dealing with Tuesday's Municipal Election, pages 5 to 16. Articles compiled by Jeff DeBray, Carl DiOrio and Nancy Lowry. Cover by Jennie Atty. Election photographs by Randy J. Woodbury.

An analysis of Tuesday's election predicts Democrats will be on the winning side — with changes for State College, page 6.

The Home Rule question will be on the ballot on Tuesday. An analysis examines possible implications for State College, page 7.

The candidates for borough council and mayor speak out on election issues: consumer protection, revenue-sharing, mass transit, the environment, landlord-tenant relations, police and openness in local government, pages 7, 8, 13, 15, 16.

Special League of Women Voters pull-out section, pages 9 to 12.

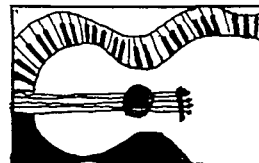

Student taxation in State College is now a reality. The candidates for tax collector speak out on this and related issues, page 14.

Inside

P.S.

"One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," Dale Wasserman's "hip morality play" opens at the Playhouse, page 3.

The original rock musical of University student Eric Diamond, "Brother-Hood," will be presented this weekend in Schwab, page 3.

Don't waste your money on "Werewolf of Washington," our film reviewer says, page 4.

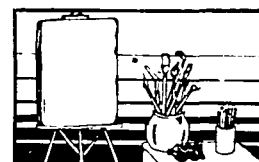

Capsule reviews of films showing around campus this weekend, page 4.

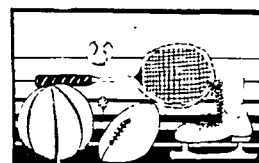

The diary of a madman, Arthur Bremer, the man who shot Gov. George Wallace, is reviewed, page 5.

Hot and nourishing stews and chowders to ward off the November chills from our camp cook, page 17.

Got a little free browsing time this weekend? Check out the listing of arts exhibits on campus, page 17.

The coaches play games, too, page 18. The soccer fullbacks, page 19.