

Blank Whistler's Mothers

Undertakers end drought

By JEFF YOUNG
Collegian Sports Writer
"It's been a long dry spell for us. We're 22-3 over the last three years, and this is our first championship," defensive lineman and kicker Roy Schuyler said after the Undertakers' 3-0 defeat of Whistler's Mothers for the Graduate Division championship last night.

Schuyler led a charge on Whistler's Mothers' quarterback Terry Spraker that kept him harassed the entire game and forced four interceptions. And ironically his was the foot that hit on a 15-yard field goal for the game's only score.

First half action was almost nonexistent, as Spraker couldn't complete a pass in 11 attempts, and the Undertakers' only first down of the game came on a penalty.

After returning the Undertakers' first punt to his 36, Spraker missed on two passes and was then intercepted by Tom Kennedy at the Undertakers' 6. Kennedy, playing quarterback, could move the Undertakers only three yards in three plays, and Schuyler punted to the Mothers' 30.

Here Spraker began to feel the pressure. Schuyler batted down a pass, and Hollenbeck and Bud Davis helped to hurry Spraker's throws. The Mothers had to punt and did to the Undertakers' 15.

After a short completion, Kennedy dropped back to pass and was rushed by John Kurgan of Whistler's Mothers. The pass fell incomplete, but Kurgan couldn't stop himself, and knocked Kennedy down.

The two knocked heads, both suffering slight cuts above the left eye. Unnecessary roughness was stepped off against Whistler's Mothers, giving the Undertakers a first down at their 30. They then stalled, and punted to the mothers' 36.

An apparent first down pass from Spraker to ex-Penn State tackle Craig Lyle was called back for offsides. After a short run and an incomplete pass, Hollenbeck sacked Spraker twice, the second time on fourth down, giving the Undertakers great position at the Mothers' 23.

However, the Undertakers' offense had not yet been found. Kennedy missed three straight passes, and Schuyler put on his kicking shoe to try, and fail, from the 23.

On the second play of the second half, Spraker found his center, Roger Carrier for his first completion and a first down at his 25. Two plays later, the Undertakers' Tim Curci picked off a pass five yards downfield, giving his team another chance to score. Again Kennedy and his receivers couldn't get together, and Schuyler's attempt from the 30 fell short.

However, the Undertakers' defense was not to be denied. On third down, Kennedy came up with his second interception and was knocked down by Spraker at the Mothers' 25. A second unnecessary roughness call on Whistler's Mothers placed the ball at their 10.

Kennedy hit one short pass to Paul Zelanko, then threw two out of the end zone. Schuyler put on his kicking shoe one more time, finally meeting with success at 9:20 in the second half.

Undertakers	0	2-3
Whistler's Mothers	0	0-0
Undertakers—FG	Schuyler 15
first downs	1	4
rushes-yards	1-(-7)	4-(-1)
Passing yards	12	17
Return yards	10	23
Passes	5-22-0	2-30-4
Punts	4-27	1-15
Fumbles-lost	1-0	1-0
Penalties-yards	2-41	3-35

Photo by Joe Rudick

Wacky Tabacky QB Joe Feerrar couldn't find too many receivers last night

Re-Elect BROWN DISTRICT ATTORNEY Experience Counts

Of vital importance in our society is the confidence the public must have in the criminal justice system. To justify this confidence, qualified persons, concerned about educating and informing the public and setting an example for our young people, must be involved in important roles. To that end I have dedicated my years as District Attorney of Centre County. With your help and vote I will continue to do so.

Vote BROWN Nov. 6
Proven Leader In the Fight Against Crime

Paid for by Committee to Re-Elect D.A. Charles C. Brown, Jr.

Primo upsets defending IM champs 7-0

By FRED BREWER
Collegian Sports Writer
Primo Quarterback Al Torriero hit Joe Bennelli with a 47-yard touchdown pass with about eight minutes left in last night's Independents Championship game against Wacky Tabacky.

This touchdown was the only one scored by either side, enabling Primo to upset last year's champions 7-0.

Before the game Wacky Tabacky Coach Robert Angelo said, "Most of our team has been together for three years. We're the defending champions and we promised everybody we'd repeat, so all the pressure is on us."

When asked to compare

I.M. games with high school games, W.T.'s quarterback Joe Feerrar replied, "There isn't the same kind of excitement here, but we psych ourselves up before a game."

The most prophetic quotes were turned in by Wayne Walton and Torriero of the Primos.

Walton said he didn't feel intimidated playing against a team that hadn't been scored on yet.

"They haven't played us yet," he said defiantly.

Torriero reasoned, "They haven't been scored on yet because they play their defenders deep. I'm going to work on short stuff first and then hit 'em with a long one."

The only thing accomplished by either team in the first half was a first down for Primos, which they got on a penalty. Feerrar didn't complete any passes and all Torriero could manage was a 12-yarder to Joe Turchi.

Constant pressure by Rich Stern and Randy Nichols kept Wacky Tabacky bottled up. Robert Angelo and Tommy Delgottis did the same to Primo.

Both teams were a little more successful in the second half, but the good defenses and the freezing cold kept gains to a minimum.

Feerrar hit Bill Whitaker with a 15-yarder for W.T.'s initial first down. Stan Zoltak and Tom Delgottis caught one apiece. After Primo scored Angelo tried to shake things up by taking over at quarterback. The only pass he completed was to Feerrar, who was continually diving for passes. If Feerrar had had someone like himself to throw to Wacky Tabacky might have won.

Dennis McLaughlin earned Primos first first down with a 20 yard catch. Torriero hit their defensive star Nichols with a short pass just before he connected with Bennelli for the game winner.

The Gods didn't take kindly to Wacky Tabacky's two year winning streak being broken. With four seconds to go in the game, the lights went out. Unfortunately for Wacky Tabacky, the lights came back on after a ten minute delay and Primos were the new champions.

Wacky Tabacky	0	0-0
Primos	7	7-1
Primos — Bennelli 47 pass from Torriero (Giampapa kick)
Wacky Tabacky	3	4
Primos	2-5	3-6
first downs	30	57
rushes-yds.	18	30
passing-yds.	18-32	13-5-2
return yds.	2-20	+50
penalties

Dormitory
Ogontz 28, Pottstown 0 (semifinal)
Bradford 6, Beaver 0 (semifinal)
Fraternity
Sigma Tau Gamma 3, Phi Gamma Delta 0 (semifinal)
Sigma Pi 3, Delta Theta Sigma 1 (td) (semifinal)
Independent
Primo 6, Wacky Tabacky 0 (final)
Graduate
Undertakers 3, Whistler's Mothers 0 (final)

Lion notes of little note

Penn State Ice Hockey Club's A and B teams face off against the Pitt Panthers on Sunday. The A team contest begins at 7:30 p.m., the B game at 5:00.

The Lions hold a 2-1 edge in the series but are out to avenge last year's loss. Larry Hendry, former All-America right wing for Cornell IM, is expected to lead the team to another fine season.

The White golf course will close for the season following play Nov. 11.

Those interested in working as a manager for the Penn State gymnastics team should sign up in 238 Rec Hall. In addition to regular season meets, managers also will work the NCAA Championships here.

johnny got his gun

Presented by North Halls

November 2, 3, 4 7:30 and 9:30 105 Forum

PENN STATE THESPIANS

present the

PREMIERE RUN

of

BROTHERHOOD

an original rock musical written by

ERIC DIAMOND

NOV. 2, 3 Schwab Aud.

UNIVERSITY CALENDAR

Friday-Sunday, November 2-4, 1973

SPECIAL EVENTS

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Colloquy, 7-10:30 p.m., HUB main lounge; 8:30-10:30, HUB reading room.

Friday-Saturday, Nov. 2-3 -- Thespians show, "The Brotherhood," 8:30 p.m., Schwab.

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Open House, 3-4 p.m., at the Liberal Arts Tower to mark dedication of the building.

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Penn State Brass Chorale, 8:30 p.m., Music Bldg. recital hall.

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Folk and Square Dance Roundup, 7:30-10 p.m., North Gym White.

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Commonsplace Coffeehouse, 8 p.m., Room 102 Kern.

Friday-Saturday, Nov. 2-3 -- University Theatre, "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," 8 p.m., The Playhouse.

Friday-Sunday, Nov. 2-4 -- Sports: Women's field hockey, Susquehanna Field Hockey Tournament.

Saturday, Nov. 3 -- Sports: Rugby, vs. Kent State, 2 p.m.

Saturday-Sunday, Nov. 3-4 -- The Press Association Fall Training Conference; registration in HUB lobby 12 noon, Saturday.

Sunday, Nov. 4 -- Chapel Service, 11 a.m., Eisenhower Chapel. Charles L. Coleman, Religious Affairs.

Sunday, Nov. 4 -- Black Christian Fellowship worship service, 11 a.m., Black Cultural Center.

Sunday, Nov. 4 -- Open men's and women's fencing tournament, for members of Amateur Fencers League of America, beginning at 8 a.m., Room 69 Recreation Building.

INTEREST GROUPS

Badminton Club, Friday, Nov. 2, 6:15 p.m., Rec Hall.

Interlandia Folk Dancers, Sunday, Nov. 4, 7:30 p.m., HUB ballroom.

Students Against Fire, Friday, Nov. 2, 7:30 p.m., Room 71 Willard. All students of all majors are invited.

Press Association, Saturday, Nov. 3, 12:30-2:30 p.m., room 201 Carnegie. Sunday, Nov. 4, 12-4:30 p.m., Room 201 Carnegie. Workshop.

Eastern Orthodox Fellowship, Sunday, Nov. 4, 10 a.m., HUB assembly room.

FILMS

Friday-Saturday, Nov. 2-3 -- Student SF Films, 7 and 9 p.m., HUB assembly room. "The 39 Steps."

Saturday, Nov. 3 -- Free-U children films, 12:30 and 2:30 p.m., HUB assembly room. Cartoon Festival.

OFFICIAL

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Last day for signing NSDL, SEOG, and University long range loans for Fall Term.

LECTURES

Friday, Nov. 2 -- Dr. Clark Kerr, chairman, Carnegie Commission on Higher Education and former President of the University of California, will speak on the role of Liberal Arts in the coming decade of higher education at 2 p.m., Room 112 Kern, in connection with dedication of Liberal Arts Tower.

24 RENASCENCE
Renascence symbolizes rebirth, a time of vitality and creativity.

PENN STATE HOTEL AND RESTAURANT SOCIETY presents a
SUNDAY BRUNCH
Nov. 4 and 11
10 A.M. to 1 P.M.
MAPLE ROOM
Human Development Building
All You Want To Eat
Adults - $1.95 Children under 12 - 8.95

→ Attention all undergrad and grad students

→ The Student Trustee Selection Committee has reopened the Application period for a position on the Penn State Board of Trustees

→ All students who have participated in any governmental, political or student activity and who wants to have an important role in the future of Penn State are urged to apply

→ Applications are available in 202 HUB. Deadline is Nov. 7

→ Students who previously applied need not reapply. The applications are being kept on file.