Thieu blasts Americans

SAIGON (UPI) - President Nguyen Van Thieu said vesterday the American people "are not living up to their promises" and have cut aid to South Vietnam "back below our lowest expectations.

He called corruption a "national disease" but blamed the Communists for accusations that he himself is involved.

Thieu said the precipitous withdrawal of U.S. and other allied troops had contributed to the bad economy and the deteriorating military situation in South Vietnam.

"We don't have our allies here any more." Thieu said. "This permits North Vietnam, which now is not being bombed, to build in peace, while we have to struggle alone against aggression Thieu said South Vietnam must remain strong and ."I think the American people and their elected representatives understand that But they are not living up to their promises. This year, aid will be reduced to even a lower level than last year," he said. "It is not only that we do not have an excess of funds from which to draw, we have been cut back below our lowest expectations.'

Last month the U.S. Congress cut military aid to South Vietnam from $1 2 billion a year to $700 million. Economic aid. for which the Administration requested $750 million, is expected to total less than half that much.

Makarios okays Soviet plan

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) - Archbishop Makarios, speaking to the U.N. General Assembly as the elected president of Cyprus, yesterday accepted the Soviet proposal for an expanded international conference on the future of the Mediterranean island

The plan had been turned down cold by Turkey, although Greece - brought to the point of confrontation with its NATO neighbor over the Cyprus dispute — *d*avored it. The United States and Britain do not favor the proposal which would place the Cyprus problem before the entire 15-member Security

Cõunci Makarios made his first appearance here since last July when he appealed to the Security Council for help against the Greek military junta which was ousted shortly after Makarios himself was deposed July 15 in a coup led by Greek officers.

He said negotiations on Cyprus must take place in a wider international conference than the unsuccessful peace talks held at Geneva among Britain, Turkey and Greece, guarantors of Cypriot independence under a 1960 treaty.

"We consider the proposal for an international conference within the framework of the United Nations as constructive and therefore acceptable to us," said Makarios.

Egypt lists peace talk aims

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Egypt, while saying it welcomed Middle East peace talks, said yesterday Israel must be punished for aggression, pay for destruction of Egyptian cities and take responsibility for looting Arab resources.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmi told the General Assembly his government was ready to resume talks at Geneva with two objectives: liberation of Israel-occupied Arab territory and recognition of Palestinian rights.

Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaddam of Syria said "Israel should withdraw from all Arab territories occupied in 1967, and restore the rights of the Palestinian people. If it refuses, the United Nations should deprive Israel of its membership and take the necessary measures to implement its resolutions." Fahmi defended the action of Arab oil states in raising petroleum prices and said they rose only after other world prices went up.

He expressed appreciation of Soviet support of the "Arab Nation" and said Cairo also "welcomed the relative change that has taken place in the American attitude as a result of the glorious October battles against Israel last year and has considered it a step in the right direction which is worthy of response.'

Irish police protect politician

BELFAST (UPI) - Northern Ireland security authorities yesterday assigned extra men to protect a prominent rightwing British politician after being tipped that an assassin had been hired to kill him, security sources said.

The death threat was made against militant Protestant Enoch Powell, who earlier this year resigned from Britain's Conservative party in protest against its policies. Powell is a candidate of the Protestant Ulster Unionist party in the upcoming general election.

The sources said police received a report that a killer was offered $2,300 to shoot Powell during his tour yesterday of the border town of Newry - an Irish Republican Army stronghold.

The extra protection for Powell was ordered as police mounted a major manhunt for gunmen who killed two Roman Catholics and a Protestant in apparent random assassinations within the past 48 hours. Cardinal William Conway of Northern Ireland told the World Synod of Bishops in the Vatican yesterday that the conflict in Northern Ireland is "political and social" and not religious. He said most of the people are "utterly sick of the violence and passionately pray for peace.'

LONDON (UPI) - Prime Minister Harold Wilson said yesterday the British people will be allowed to vote on whether they want to remain the European Common Market only if they give a new mandate to his Labor government in the Oct. 10 general election.

"Under a Labor government they will have the right and the chance to exercise it within 12 months of polling day Oct.10," Wilson said in a campaign speech to a Labor party rally in Yorkshire.

"But under any other party or any other combination of parties that right will be denied to them.

Wilson charged that former Conservative government Prime Minister Edward Heath in 1972 took Britain "bound and gagged" into the cnine-nation Common Market "on humiliating and crippling terms.

Wilson conceded that his own Labor party, like other British political parties, is deeply divided on remaining in the Market. But he said it is united in determination to renegotiate Britain's entry terms.

Guerrillas killed in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) - Reinforced police killed three guerrillas, one of them a woman, when they opened fire on a police patrol in Cordoba yesterday, bringing to 127 the number of persons killed in political and guerrilla violence in Argentina this year.

The shootout in the industrial city 440 miles northwest of Buenos Aires was the first known guerrilla battle since a tough new anti-subversive law was signed Monday.

Police said the guerrillas opened fire on a group of officers attempting to check their identification and were cut down by police reinforcements who arrived almost immediately.

President Maria Estela "Isabel" Peron Monday signed an anti-guerrilla law designed to "eradicate subversion in this
