

Stemmer snaps course mark Lion harriers earn split this time

What Penn State athlete has had the most productive season thus far in 1974?

a) Tom Shuman
b) Mike Hartenstein
c) Greg Murphy
d) Chris Bahr
e) None of the above

The answer may be slightly disputable, but a look at harrier Paul Stemmer's stats should convince the most avid Nittany Lion gridiron fan that the best choice is 'e'.

Stemmer, in possibly his finest performance this year, nabbed first place in record-breaking fashion to pace PSU's cross-country split with Georgetown and William and Mary Georgetown beat the Lions, 22-36, and host W&M, 18-41. Penn State earned its split by upending the Indians, 25-30.

Stemmer won the six-mile race in 29:45, an impressive effort which erased the Williamsburg, Va., course record of 29:46 set last year by W&M American Bill Lou.

In five races, the transfer from Allegheny Community College in-credibly has amassed four victories and a third place finish.

The 5-7, 128-pound junior's record time was even more spectacular considering he lost some valuable yardage by straying off the unfamiliar course. Stemmer also had to rise to the occasion to beat the Hoyas' tough trio of Jim Peterson, Gordon Oliver, and Ken Moliski and W&M's Reggie Clark.

"Stemmer had control the entire six miles," Lion coach Harry Groves said. "Stemmer, Oliver, and Peterson battled most of the way, and finally Moliski came up over the last two miles to get outkicked by Stemmer."

Despite Stemmer's victory, Penn State's overall team strength was no match for the Washington D.C. club who tallied five runners in the top nine. Last year PSU lambasted the Hoyas, 15-48, but Georgetown (9-0) has completely revamped its cross-country program since then.

"Georgetown had great team strength and got a super effort from their previously no. 4 man, Ken Moliski," Groves said. "It was a battle of giants."

The Lions avenged last season's 20-40 loss to W&M as George Malley (6th), Ken Wilson (10th), Ron Secord (13th), and George Christopher (16th) came through to edge the Indians.

Penn State, 4-3, is ineligible for the ICAA meet this year since it withdrew from the ECAC, so the harriers will make the long trek to Bloomington, Ind., to compete in the Central Collegiates this Saturday. —DB

Middies booted; tie streak ends

Jose Mendez scored the game-winning goal with under 12 minutes to play and Tim Dantzig sparked in the nets as the Nittany Lion booters ended a three-tie skein by edging Navy 2-1 Friday night.

Mendez scored the tie-breaker after Navy goalie Bruce Montgomery had blocked one of his prior efforts. As the ball ricocheted into a crowd, Mendez sneaked in and drilled it into an open net.

The first half was scoreless until Navy's Tom Panik stole the ball from Scott Mallowack and booted into an open net. Goalie Dantzig had raced Panik to the ball but was late, thus leaving the net unattended.

Matt Bahr scored the first Penn State goal of 6:55 gone in the second half. Rich Reice set up the play with a pass to Bahr that was tipped by a Navy player. Bahr got to the ball and placed a powerful 18-yard kick into the left corner of the net.

The game was again marked by a goalie's battle. Both Dantzig and Montgomery were proficient in the webbing as they stopped 14 and 13 shots, respectively.

Penn State waged its offensive mostly at the beginning and the end of the game, while Navy concentrated its efforts in the middle.

Both teams are ranked third in their respective areas. The loss was Navy's first of the year giving the 18th-ranked Middies a 5-1 record. The 15th-ranked Lions are now 5-0-3.

Penn State's next game is its last home showing this season. It'll be against Shippensburg Friday night.

Ladies stick M-ville

By GORDEN BLAIN
Collegian Sports Writer

Rebounding from a slow first half and dropping a second half two goal lead, the Penn State field hockey sticks struck lucky lightning for two late goals to trip Millersville State College stickwomen 4-2 Saturday morning in Lancaster.

Coach Rattray commented about the slow first half that left the teams at a scoreless stalemate.

"Our 0-0 halftime score is our usual thing. We are a slow starter. The girls woke up about 10 minutes from halftime."

"At the 56 minute mark of the contest it was promising freshman forward Chris Larsen that ripped the Millersville net to break the 2-2 tie and insure the Lady Lions of their fifth victory of 1974."

In the final minute Sue McCoy scored her second goal of the day to give the ladies their two goal margin of victory.

Anne Chamberlain got the Lions rolling 10 minutes into the second half with her fourth tally of the season. Two minutes later McCoy scored to make it 2-0.

But Millersville rose to the occasion on homecoming day to knot the score at the 52 minute mark, tallying a breakaway goal against the blue and white defense.

Gal spikers 3rd

Penn State's women volleyball club took third place in the Princeton Invitational this past weekend.

The lady spikers chalked up a 7-4 slate along the way. Salisbury State won the tournament with a 9-3 log, in round robin competition.

"We only had one bad game," said spike coach Tom Tait, "and that was against Delaware. The rest of the way we played very consistently."

"The Salisbury and Catonsville matches were not only tight but very good matches," commented Tait. "I think it showed our girls that we are capable of playing any team in the east."

Tait indicated there were some standout performances on the court.

"Fredina Ingold really helped pick up the leadership," lauded Tait of the former Altoona Campus standout. "She turned around the Catonsville match and she was spiking a lot but finished the match off with a dink (soft drop shot)."

Friday night the women play host to Indiana and then it's off to Pitt for a Saturday afternoon match.

Meanwhile, the men's team will host the Alumni Friday (8 p.m.) in the South Gym. They will then travel to Millersville Saturday for a scrimmage.
