PITTSBURGH (AP) — Carson Long kicked two field goals to help Pitt to a 13-11 football win over Navy, but a penalty nullified another field goal by the strong-legged sophomore that would have been the longest in Pitt history.

The 53-yard kick that didn't count came in the final second of the first half Saturday with Pitt leading 3-0 at Annapolis. Only an illegal procedure penalty, a lineman moving before the snap, kept Long from surpassing the Pitt record of 52 yards set by Fred Cox vs. Notre Dame in 1961.

Nonetheless, Long was successful on kicks of 46 and 35 yards and Pitt boosted its record to 5-2 with the help of 108 yards rushing by Tony Dorsett, who slashed two yards for the Panthers only touchdown.

Dorsett's touchdown came in the final quarter to end a 67-yard drive that he kept alive with a 5-yard run on a fourth-and-five situation at the Navy seven.

That score gave Pitt a 13-3 lead, but Navy came right back with an 80-yard drive led by freshman quarterback Mike Roband.

Fullback Bob Jackson scored from the one and Roband passed to Kevin Sullivan for a two-point conversion with 1:21 left in the game.

Navy then booted a successful onside kick, recovered by Ed Jeter at the Pitt 40-yard line.

However, the Panther defense tightened, sacking Roband twice and blocking two pass attempts to stop the final Navy threat and send the Middies to their fifth loss in seven games.

Steve Mizerak added another feather to his cap Saturday night as he walked away with first place in the Pabst-Brunswick professional billiards tournament.

Mizerak entered the finals with a 5-1 record to play against a closely matched Ray Martin, who had gone unbeaten in the round-robin segment of the tournament.

Though Martin held the high run of the match at 123, Mizerak came through in the 11th inning to finish off after two consecutive scratches by Martin. Martin's final score was 135.

Both players were faced with difficult shots throughout the match and on three occasions they chose to use the safety option. All attempts were unsuccessful, however.

Mizerak, who is the four-time U.S. Open Champion, disagreed when asked if it seemed he was getting the more difficult shots.

"It's all the way the ball rolls," he said.

At the end of the first inning and Mizerak's high run of the match at 44, some controversy was raised when the student referee moved the cue ball after Mizerak failed to sink the called four-ball.

Mizerak had to replace the cue ball where he thought it had rolled, as the referee said he could not remember. The student then was replaced by one of the Brunswick officials with the tournament.

Saturday night's match ended three days of competition held in the HUB Ballroom.

Mizerak was awarded a check for $1,200 as first place winner. He also received a two-foot-high trophy.

Martin received the second-place check of $1,050. Third place went to Irving Crane and fourth to Jim Rempe. Jack Colavita took fifth and Willie Munson finished up in sixth place.

Mizerak, Martin, Crane and Rempe all will go on to compete at the second segment of the tournament, at the University of Florida. Two other players will be added to the roster for this competition.

According to Warren Kelley, international promotion manager for Brunswick, the top 16 professional billiards players in the country were invited to participate in the tournament.

The top four winners of each contest will move on to the next one, with two new players being added, he said. After competing at the University of Florida, the players will go to the University of Tennessee and will end the tournament at Ohio State University.

Kelley said that besides promoting Brunswick pool tables and Pabst beer, one of the reasons for the tournament is to try to start a trend of the professional billiards player being able to support himself solely on professional competition.

Pointing to Mizerak, who is a full-time junior high school teacher in Edison, New Jersey, Kelley said if professional billiards competition became as accepted as professional tennis or golf, the players would be able to devote all their time to the sport.

Martin explained that he operates a billiards hall in Fairlawn, New Jersey and relies on that for income, rather than on the tournaments he enters.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Jess Phillips swept over from four yards out with 1:10 left in the game to give the New Orleans Saints a 14-10 National Football League victory over the Philadelphia Eagles yesterday.

Phillips' score climaxed a 78-yard drive in which Archie Manning threw three times for 45 yards and raced 23 yards on a busted pass play.

The Saints also scored early in the second half, rolling 78 yards to the Eagles one-yard line. Phillips got the call, was driven back by a solid wall of Eagles defenders, and laterated to Manning who sprinted left into the end zone unmolested.

Philadelphia's scores came on a five-yard pass from Roman Gabriel to Harold Carmichael in the second period and on an 18-yard field goal by Tom Dempsey in the third period.

For a while, it looked as if New Orleans would receive a rare penalty assessed against the fans for their vocal disagreement with a personal foul call against the Saints.

After 18 minutes of trying to get off a play, officials sent both teams to the sidelines while the band attempted to soothe the fans.

When Gabriel returned, the boos diminished and he was able to call a play, but momentum had been destroyed and they had to settle for Dempsey's field goal.

Gabriel was unable to move the ball in the one minute following the Saints' final score.

A tenacious New Orleans defense sacked the big quarterback once and forced him to run out of the pocket with less than 30 seconds left, eating up valuable time.
