

Penn State- Eagles tie; Gerhart—2

By GORDEN BLAIN
Collegian Sports Writer

Peg Gerhart scored her second goal of the game and her tenth of the season with only 20 seconds left to pull her Lady Lion teammates to a 3-3 stalemate with arch rival Lock Haven State field hockey team yesterday in Lock Haven.

On an afternoon of steady rain that turned an already poor playing surface into a sea of mud, Gerhart's last second heroics came after Penn State had squandered a 2-0 halftime lead.

Gerhart had a golden opportunity to tie it with 1:50 left when she was awarded a penalty stroke, but Eagle goalie Kathy Sherman answered the call with a diving save in the one-on-one showdown.

Gerhart talked about her rejected penalty flick that was high and to the right of the Lock Haven netminder. "I couldn't believe that I missed it. I practice them all of the time."

Coach Gillian Rattray added sympathetically. "But you never practice them in the mud."

And that seemed to tell the entire story: the mud.

With the complete scoring circle engulfed by the oozy stuff at one end of the playing surface and it being Penn State's offensive net in the first half, the Lady Lions sticks made the first noise on the scoreboard with Gerhart scoring her first tally early and junior forward Sue McCoy adding another three minutes before the half.

But after the clubs changed ends it was Lock Haven's contest. The momentum and the mud stuck together to have the Eagles come roaring back to take a 3-2 advantage with three lightning-quick goals in nine minutes in front of frantic hometown partisans.

Anne Chamberlain, who had two assists on the Gerhart goals, spoke of the Lock Haven offensive barrage in the second half. "The circle was bad on the defense. Once you committed yourself you couldn't get back to cover."

Chamberlain, playing in her last regular season game at Penn State, reflected about the tie. "It's kissing your sister again. I've been here four years to beat them. It's really discouraging."

On a treacherous field and against a team that has lost only once to the blue and white stickwomen in 10 games, the Lady Lions fared well.

"I was really proud we were able to come back," Chamberlain said about the last minute goal.

The Penn State stickwomen might get another shot at their arch rival Lock Haven as they will make the trip back to the Susquehanna rivertown on November 9 and 10 to play in the Susquehanna tournament in which all stars of the round robin action will advance to Mid East play in Pittsburgh.

The Lady Lions field hockey varsity finished the campaign with a 5-2-2 record while the junior varsity wound up its season by edging the Lock Haven jayvees 1-0 and compiling an impressive 8-1 log.

Lions to 7th Big O's still tops

The two Big O's of college football, Ohio State and Oklahoma, continue to dominate the weekly Associated Press poll, but Alabama has bumped Michigan from the No. 3 spot.

Ohio State, with a clean bill of health from the National Collegiate Athletic Association, remained No. 1 while Oklahoma, quarantined from postseason play for league infractions, again settled for the runner-up role, only 122 points behind the Buckeyes.

However, Ohio State, 8-0 after a 49-7 victory over Illinois, had a big edge over the Sooners in the number of first-place votes received from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters. The Buckeyes wound up with 49 top votes and 1,212 of a possible 1,240 points. The Sooners, 7-0 after a 28-10 triumph over Iowa State, reaped 10 first-place votes and 1,090 points.

Alabama, fourth a week ago, took over the No. 3 spot after blitzing Mississippi State 35-0. Michigan, which pulled out a 21-7 victory over Indiana, slipped to fourth in the poll released yesterday. Alabama had two first-place votes and 918 points while Michigan received the only other No. 1 vote and 850 points.

Texas A&M, which had been idling in eighth place for three weeks, roared into the top five after throttling Arkansas 20-10. Auburn, meanwhile, skidded to 10th from fifth after a 25-14 loss to Florida, its first of the season. Florida's fine showing boosted the Gators to sixth from 11th, swapping places with Southern California which had to settle for a 15-15 tie with California.

Penn State moved to seventh from 10th after beating Maryland 24-17 and Notre Dame, the defending national champion, slipped one place to eighth after edging Navy 14-6.

Nebraska remained ninth, with Auburn 10th. Trailing Southern Cal in the Second 10 were Texas, Miami of Ohio, Maryland, Houston, Arizona State, Oklahoma State and California.

Falcons dump Dutchman

ATLANTA (AP) — Norm Van Brocklin was fired as general manager and coach of the Atlanta Falcons yesterday and replaced as coach by Marion Campbell, the National Football League team's defensive coordinator.

Falcon owner Rankin Smith announced the action in a brief statement.

Van Brocklin was in the midst of one of his most frustrating seasons since becoming head coach of the Falcons after the third game of the 1968 season. The team, picked in some preseason estimates as a contender for the playoffs, has a 2-6 record.

The volatile Van Brocklin, a star quarterback during his playing days with the Los Angeles Rams and later the Philadelphia Eagles, has been under intense criticism from local fans and news media and Smith also had been criticized for failing to fire the coach, known as the Dutchman.

The Falcons suffered their worst defeat in three seasons — 42-7 — by the Miami Dolphins on Sunday.

Neither Van Brocklin nor Campbell was immediately available for comment.

Van Brocklin had a brilliant 12-year NFL career that earned him a berth in pro football's Hall of Fame. A masterful quarterback, he led the Rams to NFL titles in 1949, 1950, 1951 and 1955 and later sparked the Philadelphia Eagles to the championship in 1960.

But his career as a coach hasn't been impressive. In 12½ campaigns, he has a career record of 66-100-7, only a .401 percentage. He was the initial coach at Minnesota, coaching the Vikings from the inception of the franchise in 1961 until 1966.

He replaced Norb Hicker as Falcon coach in the middle of the 1968 season and his overall record with Atlanta was 37-49-3.

COMMONSPLACE THEATRE PRESENTS
BRANDO
On the Waterfront

This is the story of a priest who sets out to smash mob control over the New York waterfront... and of an inarticulate longshoreman who slowly becomes aware of what he could amount to in the world. Jam-packed with a realistic and emotional appeal seldom achieved in a motion picture, it shows the longshoreman shift from an "I'm looking out for me" attitude to a willingness to risk his life for what he believes is right. This is a remarkable picture... an intelligent, superior piece of entertainment. Winner of 8 Academy Awards. A top grosser and one of the 10 Best of the Year.
