

Bahr, booters kick Temple 3-1

By BRIAN MILLER
Collegian Sports Writer

Matt Bahr rammed home two goals and Rich Reice scored one as Penn State defeated Temple 3-1 Saturday afternoon in Philadelphia to almost guarantee the Lions of an NCAA Soccer Tournament bid.

Penn State fell behind early as Temple's George McBrien snuck the ball past Lion goalie Tom Dantzig at 19:35 of the first half for a 1-0 Owl lead.

Temple was on top of us in the beginning of first half. Penn State coach Walter Bahr said "We were lucky to give up just one goal."

Penn State settled down from the rocky beginning and scored two goals before the half was over.

Chris Bahr fed his brother Matt who booted the ball past Owl netminder Woody Hartman at the 28:10 mark to knot the score at one.

Then at 35:35, Reice took a goal kick from Dantzig at midfield, ran down the sideline and beat Hartman to send the Lions ahead 2-1. The tally was Reice's fifth goal of the season.

Temple couldn't rally after Reice's goal and the Lions put the contest out of reach in the second half when again the Bahr boys went to work. Chris took a pass from John Marsden and relayed to Matt who once again tapped the sphere past Hartman upping the Lion lead to 3-1.

"Even without the scores, I think it was one of Matt's better games," said Walter Bahr. "He just happened to be in the right spot for the goals but throughout the game he played the ball cleanly and distributed it well."

Penn State is now 7-0-3 on the year and a tournament bid is almost assured. The Lions do have a game remaining with Pittsburgh on Nov. 15 which might present a problem since the Lions must play their first tournament game before Nov. 20.

"I'd like to play the Pitt game but I'd like to play the tournament game before school is out, possibly Friday night of this week," Bahr said. "We could play the Pitt game a day or so later but that of course is up to them."

Stemmer's final burst helps overhaul Pitt

By DAVE BROWN
Collegian Sports Writer

Lion harrier Paul Stemmer's thrilling, down-to-the-wire victory highlighted Penn State's 25-32 win over Pittsburgh Saturday morning.

Stemmer lead nearly the entire race, but Pitt's Nick Martin forged ahead with less than a quarter-mile to go. Stemmer stayed on Martin's heels until the last 50 yards, when he poured on a tremendous burst of speed. The Penn Stater's kick left Martin behind as Stemmer scored a 10-yard victory with a 24:20 clocking, the third best time ever on the White golf course.

"He's got it when he needs it," PSU coach Harry Groves said of his promising cross-country star. "Martin waited for Paul to make his kick, so I thought he (Stemmer) had it."

"I figured I could outkick him."

Stemmer said discussing his winning strategy. "But they were up for it. They were really tough."

The win was a must for the Nittany Lions who needed an impressive showing in their final dual meet of the season to ensure a berth in the NCAA Championships.

Pitt, now 3-2, gave the Lions all they could handle. The two traditional rivals alternated runners until tenth place. After Stemmer and Martin, George Malley, Ken Wilson, Greg Stremmel, and George Christopher nailed down the 3rd, 5th, 7th, and 9th spots for PSU. Panthers' Mel Boyd, Terry Wile, and Don McDonald finished 4th, 6th, and 8th.

Penn State won the five-mile meet by parading five straight runners - Walt Majak, Paul Augustin, Jim Morrison, Paul Single, and Steve Balmer - across the finish line before Pitt's fifth man.

"It was actually closer than the score indicates," Pitt coach Jim Banner said. "We didn't have our fifth man (due to injury)."

"It was a great race, a tremendous race today. It was a thoroughly enjoyable one to watch. The times were outstanding. I can't complain to Martin for not winning with a time like that (24:21). He and Paul (Stemmer) did a great job. I was pleased with our whole team," Banner said.

Saturday's race was the fifth consecutive win for Stemmer and the sixth time in seven outings that the Lion ace has grabbed top honors. Groves was pleased with Stemmer's performance and also with the showing of an "upward trend" by Malley and Wilson.

Despite the win which raised the Lions' record to 5-3, Groves saw room for improvement. "We had a lot of one-on-one duels over the last two and a half miles, but nobody did anything. We didn't lose all of them," the perfectionist said. "We were coming up but we couldn't go the rest of the way."

Was the win conclusive enough to guarantee an NCAA berth from the District 2 selection committee?

"For that committee not to pick us, they're gonna have to cheat," Groves said. "The only team in the district to beat us was Georgetown. We didn't have one damn patsy meet."

Next Sunday PSU has a final tune-up before the national finals when the Lions host a rugged field in the Eastern United States Track and Field Federation Championships.

Rich Reice's goal sent Penn State ahead of Temple to stay

Lady Lion harriers cop Cornell meet

Penn State's woman cross country team defeated Cornell 29-49 Saturday to win the Cornell Invitational at Ithaca, N.Y.

Syracuse could not field a complete team although a Syracuse runner, Kristie Chilly, won the meet, touring the 2.6 mile course in 15:53.2.

Penn State's Kristen Banks finished second in the time of 17:24. The Lady Lions also took the third spot with Mary Loncher crossing the finish line in the time of 17:33.

Cornell's Kathy Young was fourth, 17:41.
