Jurgy jolts Eagles, 27-20

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sonny Jurgensen passed 30 yards to Charley Taylor for the winning touchdown Sunday as the Washington Redskins took advantage of a blocked punt, a fumble in the end zone, a missed extra point and a key offside penalty to rally for a 27-20 victory over the Philadelphia

Washington's winning TD came with 2:15 remaining in the game. All told, Taylor caught nine passes for 155 yards and moved into third place on the alltime NFL pass receivers list.

After Philadelphia had gone ahead 7-0 in the first period on the first of quarterback Roman Gabriel's three touchdown passes. Washington tied it with the help of a blocked punt.

The Redskins took over at the Eagles six and scored when Duane Thomas smashed over from the one.

The Eagles regained the lead on a 13-yard TD pass from Gabriel to Harold Carmichael, and boosted it to 20-7 in the third period on a one-yard touchdown toss from Gabriel to Tom Sullivan But Tom Dempsey missed the conversion because of a bad snap from center.

Washington cut the lead to 20-14 when Gabriel fumbled into the end zone and linebacker Chris Hamburger recovered for the Redskins

Then, Washington scored on former Eagle, Mark Moseley's 40-yard field goal to slice the Eagles margin to 20-17.

In the fourth quarter Washington moved from its 34 to a first down at the Eagles 25 The Eagle defense stiffened, but Moseley kicked a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 20-20

On the next drive the Eagles had forced the Redskins into a punting situation but were offsides on the kick and the penalty gave Washington a first down.

The Redskins marched 75 yards for the winning touchdown with Jurgensen completing six passes, the last one 30 yards to Taylor in the end zone.

The Eagles came back and drove from their own 32 to a first down at the Washington nine, but Ken Stone intercepted for the Redskins in the end zone to stop the threat with 21 seconds

Bengals end Steelers streak

CINCINNATI (AP) - Ken Anderson completed 20 of 22 passes for 227 yards, then made a game-saving tackle to help the Cincinnati Bengals preserve a 17-10 National Football League victory Sunday that snapped the Pittsburgh Steelers' five-game winning streak.

The game ended with the Steelers threatening on the Cincinnati 30-yard line, but Bengal linebacker Ron Pritchard upended quarterback Terry Bradshaw as time ran out.

Anderson completed 15 of his first 17 attempts, setting an NFL consecutive completion record of 16 over two games, getting eight last week.

Running back Ed Williams scored both of the Bengal touchdowns on short bursts.

Cincinnati's victory left the Steelers with a halfgame lead over the Bengals. Pittsburgh is 6-2-1 to the Bengals' 6-3.

The Steelers got a 24-yard field goal from Roy Gerela as time ran in the first half. Pittsburgh drove back to score on a oneyard run by Preston Pearson with 10 minutes remaining in the Anderson tackled Mike Wagner with less than two minutes left to save what appeared to be the tying touchdown after Wagner streaked 69 yards with a fumble.

Williams scored on runs of two and one yards. He put Cincinnati ahead 7-0 after Anderson engineered a 70-yard drive. Williams scored again to make it 17-3.

Packers trounce ailing Bears

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Rookie Steve Odom's club record 95yard punt return and two field goals by Chester Marcol lifted the Green Bay Packers to a 20-3 National Football League victory over the punchless Chicago Bears Sunday.

Odom sored three seconds before halftime to break a 3-3 tie. The Bears, who lost three fumbles and an interception in steady drizzle, have not scored a touchdown in the last 15 quar-

Odom fumbled Bob Parsons' punt at the packer five but

The Bears took a 3-0 lead on a 44-yard field goal by Mirro Roder, set up by a 24-yard pass from Gary Huff to Charlie Marcol's first field goal, a 45-yarder, tied the score early in the second quarter. The kick came after Alden Roche recovered a Huff fumble at the Bear 26.

Hardin: 'Pitt is No. 1 in East'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitt still seems at least an upset away from a bowl bid, but the Panthers have already won backing from Temple Coach Wayne Hardin.

'They're the No. 1 team in the East, and there's no question in my mind they deserve a bowl bid," Hardin said Saturday after 19th-ranked Pitt defeated Temple 35-24 with the help of four touchdowns by freshman Elliot Walker.

Walker subbing for injured All-American Tony Dorsett, scored two touchdowns in the last five minutes to secure the fifth straight win for Pitt, 7-2. Hardin, whose team fell to 6-2, was miffed last season when Temple went 9-1 and was ignored by postseason scouts while Pitt took a 6-4-1 record to the Fiesta Bowl

'My hat is off to Pitt this year," Hardin said after Saturday's showdown, first Temple-Pitt game since a 0-0 tie in 1946. Yet even though they already have more wins than last year, the Panthers have been snubbed so far-by the bowls because they still must play Notre Dame and Penn State.

Their only hope seems to be the Liberty Bowl, and to rate serious consideration they'll likely have to beat Notre Dame next week in South Bend.

'The team and I aren't going to lose any sleep over it," Pitt Coach Johnny Majors said when asked about the bowls.

"I admit that I was personally disappointed when the bowl people stampeded like a herd of buffalo over a cliff, but we have two great games ahead," he added.

Majors also took a swipe at the NCAA decision to lift the restriction which used to delay official bowl bids until late

"I'm not a bowl official, but I think it's much more realistic the center at midfield and outraced a defender into the end to have a rule that bids should be given out no earlier than the reek before the last game," Majors said.

Walker ran 29 yards in the second quarter for Pitt's first touchdown, but Don Bitterlich kicked a 22-yard field goal six seconds before halftime to give Temple a 10-7 edge. The Owls lost their 10-7 lead on the first series of the third quarter when Billy Daniels passed 33 yards to wingback Bruce Murphy for a Pitt touchdown. Temple regained the lead 17-14 a series later on a four-yard scoring by Hynoski. Yet early in the final period Walker ran two yards for his second touchdown to put Pitt ahead 21-17. Once again, the Owls battled back. Linebacker Rich Taber intercepted a Daniels' pass at the Pitt 39, and seven plays later Hynoski became Temple's career rushing leader with a twovard touchdown run.

Walker put the game away a series later with a 62-yard scoring run that came after Pitt safety Glen Hodge intercepted

Hayes is fuming again—says officials 'blew it'

An embittered Woody Hayes and we couldn't get one play blamed game officials and dirty football tactics by the opposition for Ohio State's controversial 16-13 upset loss to Michigan State.

When there's that much of a pileup, the officials should call a time out," the volatile Buckeyes coach fumed during weekly post-game television program. "That's where they blew it.'

Hayes was referring to a pileup, just short of the Michigan State goal line when the Buckeyes were trying to run a play in the closing seconds of Saturday's game at East Lansing
