

Senate ousts Denenberg from PUC

HARRISBURG (AP) — Herbert Denenberg, who built a nationwide reputation as a consumer advocate during four years in state government, was ousted yesterday from the Public Utility Commission.

The 28-22 Senate vote against Denenberg touched off charges over who was to blame for the loss. He fell 12 votes short of the 34 needed for confirmation to an eight-year term on the regulatory agency.

Denenberg and some senators charged that Shapp played a role in the loss by forcing the issue in the Senate. Shapp replied angrily at an afternoon news conference that Denenberg had twisted statements and was unwilling to accept the defeat.

"He lost now, would I put my thumb in the dike, and would have lost in the near future, primarily because he is totally incapable of working within a system which he completely alienated," Shapp declared.

"To be presented now with the kind of attacks he has leveled at me, in deliberate distortion of the facts, is regrettable," Shapp said.

"I do hope that those who seek to place the blame elsewhere, including Mr. Denenberg, look to the man himself."

"How is it that everyone else is always responsible for his achievements?" Shapp praised Denenberg for helping to bring about change during his tenure as insurance commissioner.

But he added, Denenberg could use some lessons in temperment. Shapp said he reached the "end of the road" with Denenberg in a letter he sent to senators and the press.

In it, Denenberg charged that Shapp had broken his promise to keep him on the PUC.

"Mr. Denenberg had no such promise and he knows it," Shapp said.

Shapp said he worked to keep the nomination in committee in February, but that a pending change in the constitution changed the strategy.

The amendment, which must be decided by the voters in May, would end the governor's interim appointment power, which he used to name Denenberg. The nomination had to be acted on now because Denenberg would eventually have been forced off the PUC by this summer, the governor argued.

Shapp did not make clear why Denenberg could not serve out the interim term without a Senate vote.

Uncharacteristically, Denenberg had no immediate comment. But he promised to meet with the press this morning.

Shapp noted that lawmakers are still smarting from the no-fault insurance battle two years ago, when Denenberg accused them of conflict of interest.

The governor continues to maintain that he supported Denenberg to the hilt.

But Denenberg and some senators said Shapp pressed for a Senate vote despite warnings that Denenberg would go down to defeat.

At Denenberg's urging, Shapp asked Senate leaders Tuesday for another delay, but Democratic floor leader Thomas Nolan, a Denenberg foe, refused. He said the governor's request didn't seem as sincere as his previous ones.

In a surprise move, Nolan brought the nomination before the Rules Committee Tuesday and called the Senate into a special morning session yesterday for a final vote.

"I'm not going to say anything," said Nolan after the vote. "The result speaks for itself."

Sen. Henry Messinger, D-Lehigh, a Denenberg supporter, said the fight was futile from the beginning.

He spoke bitterly of Shapp's maneuvering through the controversy.

"I don't like to be lied to with a straight face," he said.

"If things continue the way they have in the beginning of the second administration the governor is going to run into more and more problems...."

Sen. Joseph Ammerman, chairman of the subcommittee on executive nominations, said Shapp was obviously intent on disposing Denenberg, but through the Senate.

Republican floor leader Richard Frame said if Shapp did have that motive, then it was the right one.

"By experience and temperament, he (Denenberg) is unqualified for the position to which he aspires," Frame said.

Another opponent, Sen. Edward Zemprelli, D-Allegheny, said he wants Denenberg's replacement to be consumer oriented, but from western Pennsylvania.

"I think it's an insult to the people of Pennsylvania to think that there is only one consumer advocate in a commonwealth of 12 million people," he said.

Prosecution strengthens case against Connally

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Watergate prosecutors yesterday produced 10 technical witnesses in an attempt to bolster testimony by their key witness Jake Jacobsen that he and John Connally conspired to cover up a $10,000 payoff to the former Treasury secretary.

The prosecution was expected to complete its case Tuesday against Connally, who is charged with two counts of bribery in connection with payoffs from milk producers in return for helping convince the Nixon administration to increase milk price supports.

Jacobsen testified earlier that he paid the money to Connally in 1971 and two years later conspired to hide the transaction from Watergate investigators.

Most of the 10 witnesses were called to support Jacobsen's contention that Connally gave him $10,000 in a cigar box to replace the payoff funds.

Seven federal reserve bank officials from across the nation testified that the actual money was put in circulation prior to Oct. 26, 1973, the date Jacobsen said Connally gave him the money. If even one of the 280 bills that make up the $10,000 was not in circulation at that time, it would discredit Jacobsen's story.

Prosecution spokesmen said five more federal reserve bank officials would be among their closing witnesses today in an attempt to seal what they call the "money chain" in the case.

Defense lawyer Edward Bennett Williams questioned each of the bank men closely, and got one to admit that one of the bills may not have gone into circulation until Sept. 30, 1973, just a month before the alleged transaction.

Jacobsen turned the $10,000 over to prosecutors in March of 1974, more than five months after he said he received it from Connally. It was one of two batches of bills totaling $10,000 each he claimed Connally gave him to replace the payoff money.

Prosecutors suffered a setback when they apparently were prevented from reading to the jury portions of Connally's testimony to the grand jury and the Senate Watergate committee.

Prosecutor Frank Teurkheimer began to read Connally's testimony but was prevented by an objection from defense lawyer Edward Bennett Williams. Then came two bench conferences and one in the chambers of U.S. District Court Judge George L. Hart Jr.

When court resumed, Teurkheimer called his next witness rather than reading the Connally testimony.

Technical discussion of the money by three FBI agents and a Treasury Department official seemed to confuse the jurors and Hart, who said "I don't understand all this."

Jacobsen testified earlier that on October 6, 1973, Connally gave him a cigar box containing $10,000. A month later, Jacobsen said Connally called him and said some of the money in the box was "too new" to have been in circulation at the time of the alleged payoffs in 1971.

Connally then gave him another $10,000 wrapped in a newspaper, Jacobsen said. These were the two batches of money that prosecutors displayed before the jury Wednesday.

John Craven, an official of the U.S. Treasury Bureau of Engraving and Printing, went through a complicated explanation of the series and serial numbers on the bills.

He said some of the bills from the cigar box carried the name of Secretary George Shultz, Connally's successor in the Treasury Department.

Trombonist

URBIE GREEN, New York's top trombonist will be guest soloist with the Penn State Concert Band in University Auditorium 4 p.m. Sunday. He will perform five numbers, three with the Blue Band and two with 21 trombones. The concert is free and open to the public.

Poet to read his works

Michael S. Harper, poet and professor of English at Brown University, will read his poetry at 8 tonight in 112 Kern.

Harper, who is the author of six volumes of poetry, was nominated for the National Book Award when his first book, "Dear John, Dear Coltrane," came out in 1970. He has received awards from both the Black Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters for his "grave, blunt poems (which) deal with human and black experiences, simultaneously welcoming white Americans into their music as far as our imaginations and our hearts permit it and our history entitles us to go."

Harper, who was born in Brooklyn in 1938, received his master's degree from the Writer's Workshop at the University of Iowa.

His Penn State appearance is sponsored by the English department, the Black Cultural Center and the Graduate Student Association.

University Park Calendar

April 10-20, 1975

Items to be included in this calendar should be sent to the editor, Room 312 Old Main, by Thursday of the week preceding publication.

Special Events

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Poetry reading by Michael S. Harper, Brown University, 8 p.m., Room 112 Kern, sponsored by department of English, Black Cultural Center, and Graduate Student Association.

Thursday, Apr. 10 — FSHA 410 dinner, "Mexico," 5:30 p.m., Maple Room, Human Development. Reservations required, 865-7441.

Thursday, Apr. 10 — GSA workshop, 7:30 p.m., Room 101 Kern.

Thursday-Saturday, Apr. 10-12 — NIAID Show, Natatorium, 8 p.m. Tickets at 105 White and Natatorium.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Artists Series, Newark Boys Chorus, 8:30 p.m., University Auditorium.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Folk and Square Dance Roundup, 7:30 p.m., north gym, White.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Commonsplace Coffeehouse, 8 p.m., Room 112 Kern, Stan Shepherd.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Campus 4-H Club dance, 7:30 p.m., HUB ballroom.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Operation Skywatch, 7:30 p.m., Davey Lab, weather permitting. If skies not clear, postpone to next night.

Friday-Saturday, Apr. 11-12 — Sports: Nittany Lion Track and Field Relays, Beaver Stadium, 1 p.m., Friday, Saturday, 9 a.m.

Saturday, Apr. 12 — Dr. Jane Faily, clinical psychologist, University of North Carolina, on "A New World Society," 8:30 p.m., Room 112 Kern. Sponsored by the Bahai Students Association.

Saturday, Apr. 12 — Sports Golf, vs. George Washington, 1 p.m.; Lacrosse, vs. Syracuse, 8 p.m.

Saturday-Sunday, Apr. 12-13 — Hetzel Union Board Arts and Crafts Festival, noon to 4 p.m., HUB ballroom. Items for sale.

Saturday, Apr. 12 — 50th Annual Dairy Exposition dairy cattle judging, 9:30 a.m. Sunday, Apr. 13 — Penn State Glee Club and Carlow College Choir, 1:30 p.m., Music Bldg. recital hall.

Sunday, Apr. 13 — Penn State Concert Blue Band program, 4 p.m., University Auditorium.

Sunday, Apr. 13 — Chapel Service, 11 a.m., Eisenhower Chapel. Rev. Leon B. Hall, Pastor, Black Christian Fellowship.

Sunday, Apr. 13 — Black Christian Fellowship worship service, 11 a.m., Black Cultural Center.

Monday, Apr. 14 — Mary Ann Frazier, organ recital, 8:30 p.m., Music Bldg. recital hall.

Monday, Apr. 14 — Library seminar on methodology and problem solving, 7 p.m., Room W106 Pattee Library.

Monday, Apr. 14 — Sports, Women's soccer and softball round robin tournaments begin; soccer 6 p.m., softball, 6:30 p.m.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Gallery talk by Carl Christian Dauterman, Metropolitan Museum of Art, on "The Royal Manufactory at Sevres," 10:30 a.m., Museum of Art.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Sports: Baseball, vs. Bucknell, 3:30 p.m.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Artists Series film, Ingmar Bergman's "Winter Light," 8:30 p.m., University Auditorium.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Pi Lambda Theta, program and initiation, 7:30 p.m., Rooms 102 and 112 Kern.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — "Noondays" devotional service, 12 noon, Eisenhower Chapel. Rev. Robert Boyer.

Note: the program of music by Musica da Camera, scheduled originally April 16, has been changed to Thursday, May 1 at 8:30 p.m. in the Music Bldg. recital hall.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — University Theatre student preview, "Jim Dandy," 8 p.m., Pavilion Theatre.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — Hillie rally for Israel Independence, 7:30 p.m., HUB ballroom.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — Valentina Litvinoff, choreographer, lecture-demonstration, 8 p.m., White Bldg.

Wednesday-Thursday, Apr. 16-17 — FSHA 410 dinner, 5:30 p.m., Maple Room, Human Development. Wednesday, "United States," Thursday, "Japan." Reservations required, 865-7441.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Food Science program, film, "Food: Green Grow the Profits" (ABC News Close Up), 2:20 and 7:30 p.m., Room 117 Boriand Lab. Discussion follows.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — GSA garden plot workshop, 7:30 p.m., Room 112 Kern.

Thursday-Saturday, Apr. 17-19 — Artists Series, Martha Graham Dance Company, 8:30 p.m., University Auditorium.

Thursday-Saturday, Apr. 17-19 — Penn State Aquatic Institute, Natatorium.

Thursday-Saturday, Apr. 17-19 — University Theatre, "Jim Dandy," 8 p.m., Pavilion Theatre.

Thursday-Friday, Apr. 17-18 — Phi Delta Kappa and Pennsylvania Educational Research Association Conference, Conference Center.

Friday, Apr. 18 — Sharon Brook, piano recital, 8:30 p.m., Music Bldg. recital hall.

Friday, Apr. 18 — Commonsplace Coffeehouse, 8 p.m., Room 112 Kern.

Friday, Apr. 18 — Men's tennis, vs. Bloomsburg, 2 p.m.

Saturday, Apr. 19 — Men's track vs. Kent State, 1:30 p.m. Women's track vs. Pitt and Western Pa. Track Club.

Sunday, Apr. 20 — Kathryn Cowdrick, vocal recital, 3:30 p.m., Music Bldg. recital hall.

Sunday, Apr. 20 — Chapel Service, 11 a.m., Music Bldg. recital hall. Dr. Norman R. Dixon, professor of higher education, University of Pittsburgh.

Sunday, Apr. 20 — Black Christian Fellowship worship service, 11 a.m., Black Cultural Center.

Sunday, Apr. 20 — Men's tennis, vs. East Stroudsburg, 2 p.m.

Seminars

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Man-Environment Relations, 4 p.m., S131 Human Development. Dr. Samuel Klausner, U. of Pennsylvania, on "Energy and the Poor."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Agronomy, 8:30 a.m., Room 111 Tyson. Richard Eshelman on "Concept of Ion Activities in Soil-Plant Systems."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Physics and Astronomy, joint colloquium, 8:35 p.m., Room 117 Osmond. Edward E. Harrison, University of Massachusetts, on "Recent Developments in Cosmology."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Chemistry, 12:45 p.m., Room 333 Whitmore. G. A. Somorjai, University of California, Berkeley, on "Elementary Steps of Catalytic Reactions on Metal Surfaces."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Air Pollution Control, 2:20 p.m., Room 145 Fenske. Floyd Elder, Canadian Center for Inland Waters, Burlington, Ontario, on "Contamination of Water Bodies by Air Pollution."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Biophysics, 4 p.m., Room 617 Life Science I. Dr. Harold Lecar, Laboratory of Biophysics, National Institute of Nervous Diseases and Stroke, on "Synthetic Excitable Membranes."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Microbiology, 1 p.m., Room S2 Frear. Katherine D. Thompson on "The Defect in Translation of Poliovirus RNA at the Non-permissive Temperature; and at 4 p.m., Room S2 Frear, Dr. Nat Sternberg, NIH, Bethesda, on "Packaging of DNA by Bacteriophage Lambda."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Transportation Institute, 2:20 p.m., Room 189 Materials Research Lab. Ronald Adler, geography, on "Communication vs. Travel."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Statistics, 4 p.m., Room 69 Willard. Lawrence A. Kilmko, on "Maximum Likelihood Estimation with the Weibull and Lognormal Models."

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Mathematics, 4 p.m., Room 115 McAllister. Dr. G. Glauberman, on algebra.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Physical Chemistry, 4 p.m., Room 333 Whitmore. H. Handley, National Bureau of Standards, on "Molecular Dynamics of Calculation of the Thermodynamic Properties of Fluids."

Monday, Apr. 14 — New Communities, Architecture, 2 p.m., Room 322 Sackett. Dr. John Dickey, Director of Center for Urban and Regional Studies, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, on "Innovations on Transportation Systems for New Towns."

Monday, Apr. 14 — Genetics, 3:55 p.m., Room 111 Tyson. Gordon Buswell on "Techniques for Studying Anthocyanin Inheritance in Plants."

Monday, Apr. 14 — Horticulture, 12:45 p.m., Room 10 Tyson. Frank A. Blazich on "Cold Resistance and Injury in Woody Plants."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Plant Pathology, 9:45 a.m., Room 213 Buckhout. Rick Latin on "Estimation of Yield Loss Due to Disease."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Geosciences, 4 p.m., Room 26 Mineral Sciences. John M. Dennison, University of North Carolina. AAPG Distinguished Lecturer, on "Influence of Eustatic Sea-Level Changes on Oil and Gas Accumulations in the Appalachian Basin."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Operations Research, 3:45 p.m., Room S-131 Human Development. Dr. E. Emory Ensore, on "An EQQ Model when Production Standards are Assumed to be Normally Distributed."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Agricultural Communications, 7:30 p.m., Room 301 Agricultural Administration. Sue Benedetti and Gary Nugent, Extension Service-U.S.D.A., on "Youth/4-H information and news."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Chemical Engineering, 3:45 p.m., Room 140 Fenske. J. E. Lane, CSIRO, Australia, on "A Short History of Surface Science."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Solid State, 3:45 p.m., Room 250 MRL. Dr. E. W. Mueller, physics, on "Observations of Surfaces by Field Ion Microscopy."

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Solid Waste Management, 2:20 p.m., Room 140 Fenske. Joseph Barr, Vice President for Research and Development, U.S. Utilities Corp., Monroeville, on "Hazardous and Industrial Wastes. Telling It Like It Is."

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — Fuel Science and Acoustics joint seminar, 4 p.m., Room 301 Mineral Industries. Dr. Leonard G. Austin, fuel science, on "Mechanical Properties of Coal."

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — Remote Sensing, 2:30 p.m., Room 225 Electrical Engineering West. Film, "To Water by Air," a demonstration of the use of remote sensing techniques to prospect for water.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Transportation Institute, 2:20 p.m., Room 189 Materials Research Lab. Charles Hoppe, U.S. Railway Association, on "USRA's Planning for Passenger Service."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Physics and Nuclear Engineering joint colloquium, 3:35 p.m., Room 17 Osmond. Alvin M. Weinberg, Director, Energy Research and Development Office, Washington, D.C., on "Is Nuclear Energy Acceptable?"

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Agronomy, 8:30 a.m., Room 111 Tyson. Joe Smith on "A Source of Male Sterility in Mating Barley."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Chemistry, 12:45 p.m., Room 333 Whitmore. J. Kochl, Indiana University.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Microbiology, 4 p.m., Room S2 Frear. Dr. W. Munyon, Department of Medical Viral Oncology, Roswell Park Memorial Institute Buffalo, on "Expression of the Herpes Genome in Transformed L Cells," and at 1 p.m., Room S2 Frear. Dr. Mary F. Notter on "Herpes Virus Non-Virion Antigen: Diagnostic Significance."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Air Pollution Control, 2:20 p.m., Room 145 Fenske. Margery Drucker, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Boston on What It Is Like Working for a Federal Air Pollution Control Agency.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Mathematics, 4 p.m., Room 115 McAllister. P. Enflo on Analysis.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Ceramic Science, 11 a.m., Room 301 Mineral Industries. Dr. J. D. MacKenzie, U. of California at Los Angeles, on "Glass and Ceramic Science at UCLA."

Friday, Apr. 18 — Ecology, 3:55 p.m., Room 101 Kern. Dr. Robert May, Princeton University, on "Biological Populations with Non-Overlapping Generations; Stable Cycles, Chaos."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Chemistry, 12:45 p.m., Room 333 Whitmore. J. Kochl, Indiana University.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Microbiology, 4 p.m., Room S2 Frear. Dr. W. Munyon, Department of Medical Viral Oncology, Roswell Park Memorial Institute Buffalo, on "Expression of the Herpes Genome in Transformed L Cells," and at 1 p.m., Room S2 Frear. Dr. Mary F. Notter on "Herpes Virus Non-Virion Antigen: Diagnostic Significance."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Air Pollution Control, 2:20 p.m., Room 145 Fenske. Margery Drucker, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Boston on What It Is Like Working for a Federal Air Pollution Control Agency.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Mathematics, 4 p.m., Room 115 McAllister. P. Enflo on Analysis.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Ceramic Science, 11 a.m., Room 301 Mineral Industries. Dr. J. D. MacKenzie, U. of California at Los Angeles, on "Glass and Ceramic Science at UCLA."

Friday, Apr. 18 — Ecology, 3:55 p.m., Room 101 Kern. Dr. Robert May, Princeton University, on "Biological Populations with Non-Overlapping Generations; Stable Cycles, Chaos."

Films

Thursday-Sunday, Apr. 10-13 — Centre Cinema, "Jonathan Livingston Seagull," 7:30 and 10 p.m. Thursday, Simmons lounge. Friday-Sunday, Room 105 Forum.

Monday, Apr. 14 — French Department film series, Ophuis' "La Ronde," 7 and 9 p.m., Room 112 Kern.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — Commonsplace Theatre, "Citizen Kane," 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., Room 112 Kern.

Thursday-Sunday, April 17-20 — Centre Cinema, "Lasi Tango in Paris," 7:30 and 10 p.m. Thursday, Simmons lounge. Friday-Sunday, Room 102 Forum.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Senate Committee on Academic Affairs, 8 a.m., Room 101 Kern.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — College of Education faculty luncheon, 12:30 p.m., Room 101 Kern.

Tuesday, Apr. 15 — Central Pa. Chapter of the Association of Computing Machinery, 7:30 p.m., Room 26 Mineral Sciences. Carl P. Palmer on computers in phototypography.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — USG Academic Assembly, 7:30 p.m., Room 351 Willard.

Wednesday, Apr. 16 — A.P.E.S. (Anthropology Promotion and Enrichment Society), 8 p.m., HUB Reading Room. "Cultural Perspectives on Women" series, with speaker Dr. Warren Morrill, anthropology.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Faculty women of College of Education, coffee, 10 a.m., Room 101 Kern. Speaker, 11 a.m., Room 112 Kern.

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Department of Economics faculty, 2 p.m., Room 101 Kern.

Friday, Apr. 18 — AIAA Central Pennsylvania Section, 4 p.m., Room 232 Hammond. Professor Hiro Tani, Professor Emeritus, University of Tokyo, on "Some Application of Weakly Nonlinear Stability Theory to the Problems of Boundary-Layer Transition."

Lecture

Interdisciplinary Colloquium on The Medieval World April 10-12, Room 402 Keller.

Thursday, Apr. 10 — Brian Tierney, Cornell University, "Medieval Constitutional Ideas and Realities," 10 a.m.

Thursday, Apr. 10 — David Herlihy, Harvard University, on "What We Know about Medieval Marriage," 3 p.m.

Friday, Apr. 11 — John Leyerle, University of Toronto, on "The Game and Play of Courtly Love," 10 a.m.

Friday, Apr. 11 — Harry Bober, New York University, on "The Imagery of Mysticism and Mystical Revelation in a Gothic Illuminated Manuscript," 3 p.m.

Saturday, Apr. 12 — Edward Synan, The Pontifical Institute, Toronto, on "Love of Wisdom in the Middle Ages," 10 a.m.

Tuesday-Thursday, Apr. 15-17 — Health Planning and Administration, 4 p.m., Room 117 Human Development. Dr. John Dowdney, University of New South Wales.

Tuesday on "New Guinea, Witch Doctors or Which Doctors?" Wednesday, on "The Fed vs. the States: Australian Health Services." Thursday, on "Australia's Health Services — Non-socialized Medicine."

Thursday, Apr. 17 — Doyger Lecture, 8 p.m., Room 112 Kern. John N. Findlay, professor of philosophy, Boston University, on "The Good, the Mind, and the Soul in Platonic Teaching."

DANDELION MARKET

221 E. BEAVER AVE.

HAS:

NATURAL ICE CREAM — SHILOH FARMS BREWERS HAZZERT-DARZ

THE FAMOUS DANDELION DELIGHT

VEGETARIAN SANDWICHES

OPEN

4:30-6:00 MON-SAT

EVERYTHING GOES

AT CLARK'S

GOOD USED CARS

1968 Chevrolet Impala 2 dr. H.T. 6-stick	$795
1969 Plymouth Fury 2-dr. H.T. Aut, P.S.	$795
1968 Ford Torino 2-dr. Sedan, 8-aut. P.S.	$595
1959 Mercury 2-dr. Aut.	$100
1965 Buick Skylark G.S. 2-dr. H.T. Aut, Buckets	$650
1967 Opel Kadette Sedan, 4-speed, good condition	$395
1967 Ford Falcon 2-dr. Sedan Automatic	$695

CLARK MOTOR COMPANY

Sales and Service

Imperial - Chrysler - Plymouth - Valiant - Jeep

1080 E. College Ave. 234-4321