Booters top Owls in OT

Collegian Sports Writer When Friday night's Penn State-Temple soccer game at Jeffrey Field went into overtime with the teams tied 1-1, there was little doubt that the Lions would have to come out for the extra periods with nothing but "win" on their minds. A tie beats a loss, of course, but neither would result in a NCAA bid.

This may explain why the booters (8-3-1) played possible their most impressive soccer of the season in the overtime to beat the Owls, 4-2 Matt Bahr and John Marsden netted goals and Temple did not get off a single shot against Lion goalie Tim Dantzig.

'We dominated the overtime," said coach Walter Bahr, whether from second wind or desire, I don't know. Temple came back strong in the second half, but seemed to have a letdown in the overtime.

The biggest blow against the Owls came at 8:14 of OT, when fullback Arnold Menge tripped Marsden inside the 18yardline. Matt Bahr was chosen to take the penalty kick and beat Dave Bragg with a shot that was a bit different for him.

"I've been practicing that type of shot by shooting line drives," said Bahr. "This time, though, I decided to let up on my shot " Bragg guessed one way, and the sophomore midfielder grounded the shot behind the goalie for his first goal of the year.

The win was assured when Marsden took Bill Klauberg's pass, broke away from hobbling Owl back John Whitehead, came in alone on Bragg and scored his fifth goal with 44 <econds remaining

The Lions now play a waiting game to see if one of four bids o be extended tomorrow night goes to them.

"I don't know where we stand for the tournament," said coach Bahr "Temple seemed assured of a bid, but now that's in jeopardy. There are still games to be played before Tuesday." The Owls seem to now have a win-or-else situation of their own, as they meet Rider tomorrow.

The Penn State coach certainly got a performance worthy of a tournament team on Friday, and he spread praise on four players in particular. "Dantzig bailed us out of some situations when the defense got mixed up, and had a great night," he noted. "Rich Reice and Marsden played well, and Kevin Costello came off the bench to give us a solid game.'

Reice opened the night's scoring for the Lions four minutes after Jack Dietz got the game's first goal at 8:43 of the first half. Reice scored from the right wing after Matt Bahr had hit him with a cross-field pass; Dietz had headed a shot past Dantzig after the goaler had come out of the net to stop another shot

At 9:27 of the second half, Costello's 25-yarder from the right side trickled over the line after hitting goaltender Bragg. Temple put up a mild protest that the ball had not crossed the line, but the score stood. At 30:51, however, Joe DiSalvo took a pass from George Lesyw and tied the game with his 11th goal from in front of the net

From that point until Bahr's gamewinner, most of the excitement was provided by Reice's near-goals, including a bullet that floored Bragg with 10 minutes left in regulation and a shot that caught the goalie backing into the net after coming out early in the overtime.

NOTES: The goals by Costello and Reice were the third of the year for each.....Dantzig was forced to make saves on 16 of Temple's 20 shots, with his most impressive being a sliding stop of DiSalvo's shot near the end of the first half State had 26 shots, nine resulting in saves by Bragg Temple coach John Boles was displeased most of the night, especially with the fans who crowded behind the nets
