

Lion booters rise to biggest test

Costello, Marsden key win

Kevin Costello (left) played one of his best all-around games this season, as did the rest of the Lion soccer team

With raindrops constantly falling on their heads, the Penn State booters met the Temple Owls last Friday night in their biggest game of the season. Both teams played brilliantly and it took two extra periods to decide the outcome — Penn State 4-Temple 2.

Even though the weather was poor, the sun did shine over the heads of Kevin Costello and John Marsden, both of whom scored vital goals in the contest.

Costello broke a 1-1 tie at the 21:11 mark of the second half, when a clearing pass smacked him right in the face and temporarily dazed him. He then picked himself up, stole a lead pass, and kicked a beauty to Leo Bodossian, who shot high.

The midfielder went down again at the 6:12 mark of the first overtime period after being kicked in the stomach. As soon as the official finally blew the whistle to stop play, Costello regained his breath and didn't even wait for the team trainer.

"I switched the ball real well tonight," said Costello, "and the whole team shot great."

"We were more psyched up than usual and it seems like we're improving each game we play," he added.

"Even though I'm not a starter, I have been worked in and tried to contribute all Mr. story. It also holds true for Costello because he not only scored, but also hustled, dug, scrapped, and played superb defense.

The transfer from Mercer College hit the deck twice, only to get right back up and play even harder.

Bahr wanted," said Costello. "If that's the way he wants it, it's OK by me."

"I need the most improvement on my one-on-one coverage and mental preparation," he added.

Costello attended Mercer County Community College before transferring to Penn State this year. He scored 25 goals as a freshman and 11 as a sophomore. His team, which also included Audie Penacale, Kerry Marsden, Jim Adams, and Steve Reid, went to the nationals both years and finished seventh and fifth in the country.

Marsden, who is playing in his final season for the Lions, is hoping to play professionally after graduation.

"I've been playing soccer all my life and it has always been my dream," he said.

"There will be many scouts watching if we make it to the NCAA's," he added, "and there will also be a lot at the Senior Bowl. The draft starts in February."

"The team will have a solid nucleus when I leave," said Marsden. "The second year freshmen will carry them along with some of the guys that didn't start this season."

The Lions' last regular season home game is scheduled for Friday at 7 p.m. against Pittsburgh.

Raiders' Robinson to replace McKay

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John Robinson, a disciple of John McKay, was named yesterday to succeed his ex-mentor as head football coach of the University of Southern California Trojans starting in 1976.

McKay, winningest coach in Southern Cal history, announced 10 days ago he was quitting to coach the new Tampa Buccaneers of the National Football League next season.

President John R. Hubbard of Southern Cal split McKay's dual job as director of athletics and head coach. In addition to naming the 40-year-old Robinson to run the football program, Hubbard named a sports-oriented academician, Dr. Richard Perry, to become athletic director.

No contract terms were divulged, but Robinson was believed to have at least a three-year agreement.

Dr. Perry, 46, coached basketball at Long Beach State nine years before coming to Southern Cal, where he is an associate professor of physical education and is a former president of the Faculty Senate.

Robinson's career has paralleled that of McKay as a player and an assistant coach.

Both attended the University of Oregon and both were assistants there before coming to Southern Cal — although Robinson was on the Oregon football squad when McKay was an assistant at the school.

Robinson is currently an assistant with the Oakland Raiders, handling the NFL team's offensive backfield — a job he took this year after three seasons under McKay in a similar capacity at Southern Cal.

Asked why he switched from the collegiate ranks to the pros, Robinson answered: "The best way to get ahead is to get a broader base of experience. I was ambitious. I felt it was important that I get a variety of experience."

During the three years Robinson assisted McKay, the Trojans compiled a 31-3-2 record, went to the Rose Bowl all three seasons and won two of those classic New Year's Day battles against the champion of the Big Ten Conference.

A Man For Others--
A Foreign Missionary Priest

That's what a Columban Father is. He's a man who cares and a man who shares. A man who reaches out to missions in Asia and Latin America to share the Good News that Jesus truly cares for them. He's a man who commits his life totally to others so they can live their lives as God intended. Being a COLUMBAN FATHER is a tough challenge. But if you think you have what it takes and are a Catholic young man, 17 to 26, write today for our

TRAFFIC OFFICE
ANNOUNCES
REGULATIONS

Students are reminded that beginning November 15, 1975, and continuing to April 1, 1976, winter regulations regarding parking on University Park Campus will be in effect. During this period vehicles may not park between 2:30 A.M. and 6:00 A.M. in certain areas. These regulations are in effect whether there is snow on the ground or not. If snow should accumulate before November 15, 1975, or after April 1, 1976, students are requested not to park their vehicles in snow removal areas between the designated hours.

All restricted areas will have signs posted at the entrances of the parking lots designated "No Parking 2:30 A.M. to 6:00 A.M." (Subject to change).

Area 80 still remains the same. No parking from 2:30 A.M. to 7:00 A.M. daily. This is the commuter area. All-night student parking areas are as follows: 83-N, 83-W, 43, and 42. Students with disability permits must contact the Student Traffic Office to confirm parking assignment in one of the following special areas:

West Campus—Red A- Back section North-west section.
North Halls—Blue A- North-east section.
East Halls—Orange B- North-east side of Snyder and Stone.
South Halls—Blue G- East section off McKean Road, south of Shunk Hall.
