

NFL expansion draft New clubs get vets

NEW YORK (AP) — Wide receiver J.K. McKay went home to his father, John McKay, coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and linebacker Mike Curtis of the resurgent Baltimore Colts was picked by the Seattle Seahawks yesterday as the National Football League's two expansion teams filled their rosters with 39 veterans from each of the 26 other teams.

The Buccaneers selected, among others, Detroit linebacker Larry Ball, running back Anthony Davis, Oakland running back Harold Hart, Miami linebacker Doug Swift and Buffalo defensive end Pat Tomamy in the lengthy draft.

McKay, who played for his father at the University of Southern California, was the property of the Cleveland Browns. Davis, another Southern Cal star, was officially the property of the New York Jets. Both, however, had played in the World Football League.

Among the notable new Seahawks was Curtis, middle linebacker for the Colts since 1969, a four-time selection to the Pro Bowl and Baltimore's Most Valuable Player in 1974. The Seahawks, coached by Jack Patera, also chose Pittsburgh defensive back Dave Brown, Miami tackle Norm Evans, New England quarterback Neil Graff, Detroit tight end John McMakin and Baltimore running back Bill Olds.

The defending Super Bowl champion Steelers lost the maximum three players in the draft. Along with Brown went linebacker Ed Bradley to the Seahawks, while Tampa Bay acquired tackle Dave Reavis.

Seattle selected two quarterbacks, Graff and Gary Keithley, a three-year NFL veteran with the St. Louis Cardinals who did not play during the past two seasons.

Tampa Bay did not select a quarterback.

Also among the Tampa selections were Chicago linebacker Bubba Broussard, New Orleans running back Morris LeGrand, Oakland tight end Robert Moore and Miami linebacker Doug Swift.

Photo by Julie Cipolla

Penn State head baseball coach Chuck Medlar will have to realign his pitching corps for today's contest with Lehigh

Pitching big question in Lion opener at Lehigh

By GARY SILVERS
Collegian Sports Writer

The Penn State baseball team breaks out the bats and balls today when they travel to Lehigh for its season opener.

"We've done pretty well against Lehigh over the years," Lions' coach Chuck Medlar said, "but they're the type of club that always causes trouble, especially at home."

"They're just coming off of a five-game Southern swing in Georgia," he added, "and will throw some excellent pitching at us."

With the departure of pitchers Mitch Lukevics and Len Bartek this year, the Lions will rely heavily on Tim Pearson and Steve Nielsen to pick up the slack. However, since Pearson is currently sidelined with a lower back injury and Nielsen is just coming off a rib injury, sophomore Jim Farr will take the mound today. His relievers are senior Steve Correll, freshman Frank Deutsch, and Dick Miller, a transfer from an Arizona junior college.

"With our two aces gone this year, pitching is our main concern," Medlar said. "We'll see if Farr can go nine today and if not, I'll either go with Correll or Nielsen, depending on the situation." The Lions' infield is composed of sophomore Dave Delenick at first base, Greg Vogel at second, Mickey Kolwicz at shortstop, and Kevin Maronic at third. Garry Koch, who hit .400 last year, returns behind the plate with senior Tim Searer doing the back-up duties.

Bob Miller, the team's leading home run hitter last season, will fill the left field slot once again and lead-off man Larry Kramer has the job in center. The big question now is right field, where leftie George Weigel and rightie Jeff Whitlock have been battling it out. However, according to Medlar, Weigel will get the nod against Lehigh. The team's designated hitters this season are Ted Long (left-handed) and John Roetter (right-handed).

"The strength of the club lies in the defense," Medlar said. "I feel we have one of the best defensive infields in the nation."

"Our hitting should also be good," he added. "We have long ball threats in Miller, Delenick, and Maronic, great consistency in Koch, and a second baseman (Vogel) who can do it all — bunt, drag bunt, run, and hit the ball with power."

Last season the Lions' 22-9 record earned them their sixth straight trip to the NCAA's, but they were eliminated from the competition after bowing twice to Michigan in the mid-Eastern regionals. The team's home opener is scheduled for this Sunday when they meet the Villanova Wildcats in a 1 p.m. doubleheader.

Seaver, Sutton—still no deal

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Tom Seaver is still a New York Met and Don Sutton is still a Los Angeles Dodger.

Rumors of the trade of star right-handers continued to rumble throughout the Florida training camps of both teams yesterday — but no deal has been made quite yet.

"The LA talks are still going on," said Mets' General Manager Joe McDonald, after emerging from a 30-minute meeting with Seaver.

McDonald talked with Sutton and the pitcher's agent, Larue Harcourt, when the Mets played the Dodgers at Vero Beach Sunday.

"Sutton indicated that if he were traded, he would prefer an American League team because of the designated-hitter rule that allows pitchers to complete more games," McDonald said. "But he also indicated he could be satisfied by the New York Mets."

So far, Seaver hasn't been satisfied by the Mets.

There had been reports that Seaver, holding out for a three-year $800,000 contract, would sign at the meeting. But he didn't.

"The major issue is money," said the three-time Cy Young Award winner.

The Mets made their first money offer to Seaver on Monday.

Hoosier fans live it up

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — For one day, the rest of the world took a back seat and the normally quiet people of Indiana rejoiced in triumph. Their Hoosiers from Indiana University came home yesterday — NCAA basketball champions at long last.

"The only thing I can say now is we're No. 1," senior guard Quinn Buckner told about 7,000 students packed tightly around Assembly Hall — scene of some of his finest moments as a basketball player.

A white sign emblazoned with bright red letters served as a backdrop and told the story of the big Red's long march to the top of the college basketball world, long dominated by UCLA. "Welcome Home NCAA Champs," it said.

Some students, basking in the aftermath of Monday night's 86-68 triumph over Big Ten foe Michigan, wore buttons with the inscription, "UCLA who?"

Coach Bobby Knight, looking to duplicate the past dominance of the Bruins and to rebuild a team that will lose four of its five starters, spent the day in Washington, D.C., on a recruiting mission.

Missing also was starting guard Bobby Wilkerson, listed in satisfactory condition in a Philadelphia hospital with a concussion suffered in the opening minutes of the game.

The Hoosiers were greeted by 2,500 people when they arrived in Indianapolis yesterday morning and were treated to a state police escort through the farmlands of central Indiana on a 50-mile convoy from the capital to the campus.

"It should have been this way last year," said Chuck Mascus, a 34-year-old accountant. He referred to the heartbreaking defeat in the Midwest Regional final a year ago, when Scott May sat on the bench with a broken arm.

Wilkerson woozy, but okay

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "I don't remember nothing until today, not even that we won," Indiana's Bobby Wilkerson said yesterday from his hospital bed.

The 21-year-old Wilkerson, a starting guard on the Hoosiers' national championship basketball team, suffered a cerebral concussion only 2 minutes and 43 seconds into Indiana's

Monday night 86-68 victory over Michigan in the NCAA title game.

The 6-foot-7 Wilkerson was still woozy after spending the night at Temple University Hospital. "I remember now Coach Bobby Knight coming in last night and telling me that we won," Wilkerson said slowly.

He took a blow on the head from the elbow of Michigan's Wayman Britt as Britt drove for a layup. Wilkerson lay under the basket for several minutes, then was taken from the court on a stretcher. His face is swollen and he has discoloration under one eye.

Dr. Joseph Torg, head of Temple's sports medical clinic, discounted the initial reports Monday night that Wilkerson suffered only a mild concussion.

Major league standings

NBA Eastern Conference				NHL Campbell Conference
Atlantic Division				Patrick Division
W	L	Pct	GB	W	L	Pct	GB
x-Boston	30	23	685	x-Philadelphia	49	12	16.14	447
Buffalo	41	34	547	NY Island	41	19	16.98	281
Philphi	41	34	547	Atlanta	31	33	11.77	232
New York	34	41	451	NY Rangers	27	41	9.61	253
Central Division				Smits Division
Washington	46	30	605	Chicago	30	30	17.77	238
Cleveland	43	30	589	Vancouver	31	32	14.76	257
Houston	39	37	507	St. Louis	28	35	13.79	246
N Orleans	35	40	467	Minn	29	31	6.46	188
Atlanta	28	46	378	Kansas City	12	52	12.26	178
Western Conference				Wales Conference
Midwest Division				Norris Division
Milwaukee	33	42	440	x-Montreal	55	11	11.121	320
Detroit	41	43	419	Pittsburgh	34	31	12.80	326
Kansas City	29	46	367	Los Angeles	33	32	9.79	246
Chicago	22	52	297	Detroit	26	41	9.61	211
				Washington	9	57	10.28	209
Pacific Division				Adams Division
x-Golden State	34	21	720	x-Boston	47	14	15.109	401
Phoenix	38	36	514	Buffalo	44	20	12.180	421
Seattle	38	36	514	Los Angeles	34	29	14.82	296
Los Angeles	30	39	494	Toronto	31	39	14.82	294
Portland	21	42	440	Calif	28	41	10.62	241

Spring Time Savings — A Large Selection of Hardback and Paperback Books

*** At Savings Up To ***

80% OFF

The Original List Price

PENN STATE BOOKSTORE
Basement McAllister Building
Right next to the HUB

• GET INTO THE GRIND •

with the NEWEST selection of GRINDERS only at
HI WAY PIZZA CUT SHOP

10¢ off Turkey and Bacon Grinders
Regular price and Italian Sausage Grinders CUTSHOP

Monday thru Thursday
Hours: 11:30 a.m. - 2:00 a.m.
112 S. Garner St.

We're booting 'em out at 15% off!

Lowa Dachstein
for light to medium trail use.
Norwegian welted with Roccia Vibram sole and
nylon shank. split grain leather
size 9 weighs
3 lbs. 4 oz.
they were 45.00
they're now $38.25

Lowa Scout — for medium to heavy
backpacking.
one-piece top grain
leather upper. Vibram Montagna sole and
full nylon shank.
size 9 weighs 4 lbs. 5 oz.
used to be 59.00
now just $50.00

appalachian outdoor house
OPEN MONDAY - FRIDAY TILL 9
324 W. College Ave.
Beside Roy Rogers, with parking behind