

Practicums offer work with tribes

By KAREN EGOLF
Collegian Staff Writer

An Indian reservation in the Arizona desert will be the site of a social work, Summer and Fall Term practicum for four University students.

The students will live and work on Fort McDowell Mojave-Apache Indian Reservation, 23 miles northeast of Phoenix.

They will help manage a girl scout troop and other youth activities, publish a monthly newsletter, work with a small community library and act as program managers for various government manpower programs.

"We intervened in crisis situations, acted as advocates, liaisons, open-minded listeners, scapegoats and tried when possible to remain neutral intermediators," wrote Jan Hilde after returning from chairman, contacted Wardell. "Our tribe is presently undergoing major changes, setting up committees and amending the constitution (of the reservation) will help our self-determination," Pattea said. "We need to make use of all our resources and we consider the Penn State program an important community resource."

Applications are being accepted for Summer and Fall Terms. Applicants must be at least seventh term when the practicum begins and must be able to adapt to a new culture when entering and returning from Fort McDowell.

They will be considered for a Summer Term practicum only.

Applications may be obtained from Margaret Matson, 112 Liberal Arts Tower, Ruth Aitken, S-115 Human Development, or Pat Wardell, 304 Liberal Arts Tower. A biographical sketch, a brief statement from the student on several preliminary readings and a statement on why he wishes to participate in the program are required with the ap-

Peer counseling proposed

A peer counseling system to assist the Office of Financial Aid has been proposed by Rick Glazier (9th-foreign service), co-director of the Government Department of Budget and Financial Aid.

Glazier said the 10 counselors in Boucke currently serve 50,000 students from Penn State campuses. Peer counselors would help the current staff and free them to answer more involved questions, Glazier said.

He said a student's peers are his major source of information. "There is much more contact between students than with any administrative office, no matter how well staffed or competent," he said.

Glazier said he hopes a peer counseling service will give correct advice from a student perspective. Students who are on aid programs can inform a fellow student how to "avoid particular bureaucratic hassles with forms," he said.

Glazier said his report, submitted yesterday to John Brugel, director of the Office of Financial Aid, was only preliminary and did not go into full details on funding, selection of personnel or the implementation of the program.

Glazier said he became interested in the concept

Newspaper gag order opposed

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Attorneys for the Des Moines Register and Tribune Co. yesterday requested the Iowa Supreme Court impose a gag order banning a second injunction banning a lower court gag order which would prevent newsmen from publishing or broadcasting the identities of jurors in a murder trial.

The Court will consider the request today.

The request came after Linn County District Court Judge Robert Osmundson reinstated the gag order. The order had been overruled by

Fall preregistration due May 28

The deadline for Fall Term preregistration is May 28 for undergraduate and graduate students who are not enrolling Summer term. File the preregistration form in the records office, 112 Shields Building.

today in S-131 Human Development.

Phi Sigma Honor Society will hold election of officers at 7:30 tonight in 8 life Sciences.

Liberal party head quits

LONDON (UPI) — Liberal party leader Jeremy Thorpe resigned yesterday saying he was driven from office by a press "campaign of denigration" over an alleged homosexual affair with a male model.

"I repeat categorically my denials of the charges," Thorpe said in a bitterly worded letter to Liberal party deputy, David Steel.

"But this campaign of denigration has now endured for over three months.

"No man can lead a party if the greater part of his time has to be devoted to answering allegations as they arise and countering continuing plots and intrigues."

Thorpe, 47, had been leader of Britain's third largest party since 1967.

There was no indication in his letter that he planned to give up his seat as a member of parliament or to bow out of politics.

Collegian notes

This is the last week for juniors to have their pictures taken for LaVie. Sign up from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the HUB cloakroom. Sitting fee will go up to $3 in the fall. LaVie staff members planning to stay for the summer should notify Nancy Weber.

"Minorities and the Mass Media: A Review of Career opportunities" is the subject of an informal discussion at 8 tonight at the Paul Robeson Cultural Center.

Robert Seibel will speak at a psychology colloquium at 3:45 p.m. today in 640 Moore Building.

The Young Socialist Alliance is sponsoring an educational forum, "The Coming American Revolution," at 8 p.m. tonight in 323 HUB.

Kate Dutt will speak on "Anthropology and Education" at 7:30 tonight in 107 Social Science Building.

Graduate Student Association will meet at 7 p.m. tonight in 101 Kern.

Eckankar will meet at 7:30 tonight in 123 Chambers.

Pi Lambda Theta will sponsor a Student Teaching Forum at 7:30 tonight in 321 HUB. Education majors who plan to student teach Fall Term can talk informally with students who student-taught last Winter Term.

Common Cause will have a general membership meeting at 7 tonight in 114 Burrowes.

The Equestrian Club will have its last meeting of the year at 7:30 tonight in 111 Animal Industries.

Meto J. Vroom of the Netherlands will speak on "Environmental Planning in the Netherlands" at 4 p.m.

Representatives of the "July 4th Coalition" will meet to plan the July 4 march in Philadelphia at 8 tonight in 227 HUB.

Walton J. Lord, associate professor of art history, will speak on English painter John Constable at 8 p.m. tonight in the HUB Assembly room.

Police log

Florence Eck reported to University police yesterday the theft of a painting of unknown value from the third floor of the Visual Arts building. Police are investigating.

Lee Shisler yesterday reported the theft of an analytical balance, value unknown, from the Mushroom Research Center lab.

Cheap Thrills

115 S. Fraser

has
Cool, comfortable
100% cotton

Gauze
Shirts

for men
and women....

over 1000 to choose from!

men's
gauze shirts...
reg. $11 to $17...
now $3 off!

women's
gauze blouses....
reg. $12 to $20....
now $4 off!

Save 18%
to 27%!

Save 20%
to 33%!

Solids, stripes,
checks, plaids...
the Largest selection
in the area!

now save at Cheap Thrills
115 S. Fraser St.

Open 10:30 to 8:30 Mon.-Fri.
10 to 6 Saturday

ATTENTION

All Tenants in Pa.

Legislation will come to the floor of the House next week which will be of primary concern to you.

House Bill 1570 will make it illegal for a landlord to evict in retaliation for actions by a tenant.

House Bill 1571 will create a warrant of habitability, which establishes a minimum standard of living conditions to be provided by landlords.

These Bills Are For Your Own Good

to let your representative know you support these bills, fill out the following letter, clip it out and mail to the following address today.

Representative's Name _____

House Post Office _____

The Capitol _____

Harrisburg, PA 17120

Fill in, clip and mail today.

---

Dear Representative _____,

I am a tenant in Pennsylvania and support H.B. 1570 and H.B. 1571. I strongly urge you to vote in favor of this important legislation.

Sincerely,