Phils win, regain 10 game lead as Reds hold off Pittsburgh 9-8

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mike Schmidt raced home during a rundown play in the top of the ninth inning to break a tie and give the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers yesterday.

The Phillies had runners at first and third when Tommy Hutton grounded sharply to first baseman Steve Garvey, who tagged first. But while trying to catch Jerry Martin between first and second, Schmidt scored to snap the Dodgers' four-game winning streak.

Dick Allen homered for Philadelphia in the second. The blast was one of only two hits off Dodger starter

Tommy John, who left for a pinch-hitter in the seventh inning.

Los Angeles tied the game in the sixth when Garvey singled home Bill Buckner.

Ron Reed, 7-3, was the winner in relief of Jim Lonborg, Charlie Hough dropped to 7-4.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Joe Morgan's two-run homer, his 17th of the season, sparked a six-run Cincinnati fifth inning and helped the Reds withstand a late Pittsburgh rush to beat the Pirates 9-8 yesterday.

The Reds' big inning came after the Pirates had taken a 3-1 lead. Pittsburgh starter

Doc Medich gave up singles to Tony Perez and Cesar Geronimo, then threw wildly to first base on Dave Concepcion's sacrifice bunt — permitting Perez to score.

Mike Lum then batted for Reds' starter Don Gullett and tripled to left, driving in Geronimo and Concepcion. Ken Griffey reached first when his grounder turned into a play on pinch-runner Ed Armbrister at the plate. Morgan followed with his homer.

Gullett gave up five hits and four walks as well as three earned runs before departing. His successor, Jack Billingham, 7-7, was credited with the victory. He also singled to drive in Geronimo, who had doubled in the sixth.

Another Cincinnati run in the seventh made it 9-3 before Pittsburgh came close with two runs in the eighth and three more in the ninth.

Bill Robinson singled in the ninth, took second on a passed ball and moved to third on a single by Richie Zisk.

Robinson was out on a play at the plate as Zisk took second, then Bob Robertson powered a Rawley Eastwick pitch over the left field fence for a two-run homer.

The loss dropped Medich's record to 5-8, while Eastwick picked up his tenth save of the season.

Olympic swim marks fall while 26 teams boycott

MONTREAL (AP) — American men and East German women swimmers began smashing records as soon as the Summer Games opened yesterday, but United States' hopes in rowing suffered a setback.

At the same time, the controversy over the withdrawal of African nations continued with Guyana becoming the first Western Hemisphere nation to pull out of the Games.

BULLETIN:

CAIRO (AP) — Egyptian athletes were ordered to pull out of the Olympic Games in Montreal and return home immediately, it was announced here yesterday.

The move was taken in solidarity with African nations which already have withdrawn in protest against participation in the Games of New Zealand, which has athletic ties to apartheid South Africa, the announcement said.

No American crews were eliminated — in rowing there's always a second chance in the "repechage" heats.

But the American eight-oared crew trailed both Australia and New Zealand in the slower of two preliminary heats while the favored East Germans, defending world champions and favorites for the gold medal here, used a following wind to post a time of 5 minutes, 32.17 seconds, some 24 seconds faster than any gold medal effort recorded for the 2,000 meters.

World records are not recognized in rowing, due to the vast differences wind conditions can cause.

The Americans' best finish was a second by Mark Staines and Cal Coffey in the coxless pairs. East Germans had the best preliminary times in five of the eight events.

An East German pistol shooter and a team of four Russian cyclists won the first gold medals, but the big excitement on a balmy yesterday morning was at the pool where the American men and East German women demonstrated their strength.

Steve Gregg of Wilmington, Del., set an Olympic record of 2 minutes, 0.24 seconds in winning his heat of the 200-meter butterfly. The old record of 2:00.70 was set in the Munich Olympics four years ago by Mark Spitz of the United States.

The East German women's team cut seven seconds off the Olympic record and almost matched its own world record in the 400-meter medley relay qualifying race. They clocked 4:13.98, a half second short of their world mark. The American team qualified fourth.

Kornelia Ender, 18-year-old East German swim superstar, set an Olympic record of 55.81 in her heat of the 100-meter freestyle event. Two other women swimmers bettered the old mark yesterday. Enitha Brigitha of the Netherlands clocked 56.71 and Petra Priemer of East Germany was timed in 56.95.

Uwe Potteck, 21-year-old East German student from Wittenberge, scored 573 points out of a possible 600 to win the free pistol gold medal. Another East German, Harald Vollmar, took the silver medal with 566 points and Ragmar Shanaker of Sweden won the bronze with 562.

The Russian cycling team took the first official gold medal of the Olympics with a time of 2:06.53 in the 100-kilometer team road race. Poland clocked 2:09.17 for the silver and Denmark took the bronze in 2:12.20.

The messy political situation which has cast a pall over these Games got worse yesterday when the 16-person delegation from Guyana withdrew from the Games in support of African nations that pulled out to protest New Zealand's participation in the Games.

The African states asked the International Olympic Committee to bar New Zealand from the Games because a rugby team from that nation played a series of matches in segregationist South Africa. The IOC said rugby isn't even an Olympic sport and pointed out that many nations have sent teams to South Africa. New Zealand was allowed to compete; the Africans started pulling out.

As of yesterday afternoon, 26 countries that were supposed to compete in the Games were out, but not all because of political reasons. Zaire and Malawi decided not to enter because their pre-Games performances were not of Olympic caliber.

Boxing opened yesterday with Charles Mooney of the U.S. Army starting his bid for a medal in the 119-pound class. He scored a solid decision over Mohamed Rais of Morocco in their three-round bout. The 25-year-old Mooney was especially impressive in the second round with his jab, a flurry of punches, two scored with a right hand lead and then a good one-two to the head.

Graham, Rankin are golf victors

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — David Graham, the slick-putting Australian who designs his own clubs, took the heart out of two late challenges with a 15-foot birdie putt on the 14th hole yesterday and went on to win the $300,000 Westchester Golf Classic by three strokes, shooting a final-round par 71.

The 30-year-old Graham picked up a $60,000 first prize as he completed a 72-hole total of 12-under-par 272. Fuzzy Zoeller, runner-up in last week's Quad Cities Open, Tom Watson, 1975 British Open champion, and Ben Crenshaw, third leading money-winner this year, finished tied for second with nine-under-par 275.

Grouped another two strokes back at 277 were Brian Allin, John Mahaffey, Ed Sneed, Rick Massengale, Dan Sikes, Mike Hill and Miller Barber.

The 160-pound Graham put together rounds of 63-68-70-71, tied for the lead the first day and led by four at the end of 36 and 54 holes. His only other victory since joining the pro tour in 1971 was a year later at Cleveland. He is better known for overseas victories in such places as France, Japan, Thailand and Argentina.

Hunt cracks 18 year British race string

BRANDS HATCH, England (AP) — James Hunt survived a multi-car crash at the start of the race yesterday and became the first English driver in 18 years to win the British Grand Prix, defeating Austria's world champion Niki Lauda.

Hunt, driving a McLaren, covered the 76-lap, 200-mile race in one hour, three minutes, 27.61 seconds, for an average speed of 115.19 miles per hour.

Lauda was 52 seconds behind at 1:04:19.66 in a Ferrari. Jody Scheckter of South Africa was third in a Tyrrell-Ford in 1:04:35.84.

John Watson of Britain was fourth in a Penske and Tom Pryce of Britain was fifth in a Shadow.

Hunt won despite a wrist injury suffered in a seven-car pileup that occurred as the cars went into the first bend at Paddock Hill. The race was restarted one hour later.

The victory moved Hunt into second place behind Lauda in world championship points. Lauda has 58, Hunt 35 and Scheckter 29.

U.S.A. dribbles by tall Italians

MONTREAL (AP) — Center Mitch Kupchak and forwards Adrian Dantley and Scott May led a balanced United States attack yesterday as the Americans routed Italy 106-86 in the opening round of the men's Olympic basketball tournament.

An effective zone defense bottled up the Italians throughout the game and Coach Dean Smith's U.S. squad broke the game open in the second half, building a lead of as many as 30 points.

Dantley, the corner man from Notre Dame, led the United States with 22 points. He was followed by Kupchak with 19 and May, the college player of the year, with 16.

Kupchak and his North Carolina teammate, Tommy LaGarde, gave the United States 31 points from the center position, where the Americans were considered to be weakest.

The two Tarheels repeatedly drove to the basket and scored easily against the taller but less mobile Italians.

Smith's squad opened an 11 point lead lead at 28-17 with LaGarde, May and Dantley doing most of the damage early in the first half.

When four straight Italian baskets narrowed that edge to three points, Kupchak scored five straight U.S. points and the Americans were on their way again, leading at halftime 50-39.

At the start of the second half, Dantley, May and LaGarde matched baskets with the Italians and Uncle Sam maintained a 10-point spread.

Then Kenny Carr of North Carolina State hit an acrobatic dunk shot that ignited a 24-4 American burst, putting the game out of reach.

In other opening-round games, Cuba defeated Australia 111-89 and Canada beat Japan 104-76.
