

Allen AWOL, fined by Phils

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
AP Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — First baseman Dick Allen, whose off the field troubles often have transcended his great talent in a stormy 12-year major league baseball career, is in trouble again.

The Philadelphia Phillies docked the 35-year-old Allen two days pay and fined him an unspecified amount after he left the ball park without permission during Wednesday night's game and didn't show for yesterday afternoon's contest against the Chicago Cubs.

"We are taking two days of pay (an estimated $2,200) plus a fine," said Phillies Manager Danny Ozark yesterday. "If he doesn't show up tomorrow, the same thing will happen."

The Wampum, Pa., native, who is hitting .289, with 13 home runs and 49 RBI, has been a key factor in the awesome offense that has helped the Phillies build an 11½-game lead in the National League East.

Ozark obviously was upset over the situation. Allen has been the picture of cooperation since being acquired from the Atlanta Braves last May.

Ozark insisted there was no friction between him and Allen, although Allen has voiced his displeasure at being replaced for defensive purposes in late innings, a move he feels is a slap at his ability.

Ozark said he would discuss a possible suspension if Allen doesn't report for the 10-day road swing of New York, Chicago and St. Louis, starting Friday night. He said

Allen was sore and suffering from dizzy spells. Allen reported to the ball park Wednesday night, dressed and talked with Ozark, who said he told the

"I cannot remember a recent thriller that was closer to bloodier, scarier, or funnier, or more effective. Don't hide from 'Sisters'—it's really a good movie." —Gene Shalit, WNBC-TV

"An intelligent horror film is very rare these days. It is just the thing to see on one of those nights when you want to go to the movies for the old-fashioned fun of it. A good, substantial horror film." —Vincent Canby, New York Times

"This is a refreshing, clever and ultimately skin-crawling triumph, a marvelous contemporary horror film that takes on all the elements of a Hitchcock masterpiece."

"The most skillful, entertaining and imaginative horror film since 'Psycho', a movie for film buffs who thrill not only to classic who-dunits but to the entire history of movies as well." —Rich Ritter, New York Daily News

"A BIZARRE FILM! MACABRE FASCINATION . . . horror chills . . . scenes of death and terror." —William Wolf, CUE MAGAZINE

he didn't know if he would start Allen should he show up Friday for the bus to New York.

"I'll listen to what the man has to say when and if I see him. I'll take it from there," Ozark said.

Allen came to the Phillies from their farm system in 1964 and immediately established his major league credentials, hitting .318 and 29 homers and almost carrying the club to the National League pennant.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers open the pro football preseason Saturday with their debut in New Orleans' Superdome.

And it will be a debut of sorts for Saints Coach Hank Stram, who is returning to the National Football League after spending 1975 as a television commentator.

Behind him is a 124-76-10 record and 15 years as head coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. Ahead of him is a big job.

"Things are coming along very nicely," he says of his new charges, who were 2-12 last season. "We have an enthusiastic young squad and it's always invigorating working with young people," he said.

The Steelers have something of an edge going into the game. They have a set team and splashed through three-quarters of a 24-0 rout of the College All-Stars last week.

But the Saints' entire squad reported a day earlier than the Steelers. Included in their schedule has been a scrimmage against the Miami rookies and another 90-play session against Tampa Bay.

In addition, they have had some three-a-day workouts at camp and three mini-camps in April, May and June.
