

Shine, Williams in Bicen track meet

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Four days after the final Olympic race, Steve Williams, the world record holder in the 100 meters, will finally get his chance to prove he is the best.

Williams, who owns the record at 9.9 seconds, missed the Olympics because of a leg injury. So did another American, Houston McTeer, who was also sidelined with a leg problem.

But, the two will be in the field for the 100 meters when the Bicentennial Meet of Champions begins at 7:30 p.m. today, although the Olympic gold medalist, Hasely Crawford of Trinidad, is skipping the meet.

"How did I react to the athletic death of Steve Williams?" Williams reflected.

"It was a nightmare," he said of his injury which occurred at the U.S. Olympic Trials at Eugene, Ore.

"It made me old, it was a learning experience, there was a void in my head which was amusing," he said. "Yes, amusing. Suddenly, no Olympic obsession, no reason to train. To be so consumed by one athletic event!"

But make no mistake about it — Williams is out to prove he is still the world's fastest human.

"Hasely Crawford never beat me in his life, even on my worst days," he said. "He's the world's fastest human? Well, we'll see if he defends it as often as he should."

Don Quarrie of Jamaica, who won a silver in the 100 and a gold in the 200, will also be in the field.

The 100 and 200 meters will also feature U.S. Olympians Steve Riddick, Mark Lutz and Dwayne Evans, bronze medalist in the 200, and Guyana's James Gilkes, who tried to re-enter the Olympics after his country joined the boycott by African nations.

The main event of the three dozen track star meet, however, will be what meet promoters had billed as a "dream mile."

New Zealand's John Walker, the 1,500 meter gold medalist in Montreal, will test his world record 3:49.4 on Franklin Field's all-weather track to run against a field that includes four sub 3:54 milers.

The 3,000 meters and 400-meter hurdles will be extensions of Olympic rivalries.

Lasse Viren, the first to win gold medals in the 10,000 and 5,000 meters in successive Olympics, will be up against Dick Quax of New Zealand. Viren nipped Quax by four-tenths of a second in the Olympic 5,000.

The favorites in the hurdle event will be America's 400 meter Olympic gold and silver medalists Ed Moses and Mike Shine, the 1976 Penn State graduate.

NCAA champ Quentin Wheeler, fifth in Montreal, and former world-record holder Jim Boulding should make it a good event.

National schoolboy champion Tony Darden (45 second relay leg) and Villanovian Tim Dale (45.4) will test U.S. bronze medalist Herman Frazier in the 400 meters.

Bronze medalist Dwight Stones, who owns the world high jump record of 7-7 1/4 will face fellow American Olympian Bill Jankunis who has cleared 7-5 1/4.

In the pole vault, Dave Roberts of Florida, the world record holder at 18-8 1/4, leads the field of Earl Bell of Arkansas and Terry Porter of the Pacific Coast Club.

In the 800 meters, U.S. Olympian Mark Enyeart with a 1:14.9 best will tackle NCAA champ Tom McLean (1:45) of Bucknell, and Mark Belger of Villanova and former Villanovian Ken Schappert, both of whom have run 1:46-plus.

Phillies Mike Schmidt (20), Johnny Oates (6), and Jim Kaat (39) all are after this 6th inning pop fly of the first game of yesterday's doubleheader. The Phils lost this one but took the second against the Chicago Cubs.

Phillies split with Cubs, Buc homer clips Cards

CHICAGO (AP) — Garry Maddox' grand-slam home run carried the Philadelphia Phillies to an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday for a doubleheader split.

Rookie Wayne Tyrone's first major league homer and Jerry Morales' 12th of the season backed the nine-hit shutout pitching of Rick Reuschel and gave the Cubs a 4-0 triumph in the opener.

Maddox' homer was his second career grand slam. It came in the fourth off loser Steve Stone, 2-4, after the Phillies had loaded the bases on singles by Tim McCarver and Larry Bowa and a walk to Dave Cash.

Steve Carlton, 12-4, was staked to a four-run lead in the first inning on a sacrifice fly by Mike Schmidt, a run-scoring double by Jay Johnstone and a two-run single by McCarver.

Ron Reed relieved in the eighth to pick up his eighth save.

The Cubs got two back in the bottom of the first on a leadoff inside-the-park homer by Joe Wallis and a run scoring double by Morales. Carlton retired 15 straight batters before Tyrone singled in the sixth and scored ahead of Bill Madlock's 11th homer.

By winning the opener, the Cubs stretched their winning streak to five games, their longest of the season. Reuschel picked up his 10th victory against eight losses. Jim Kaat, 10-6, took the loss. Tyrone hit his homer in the first inning and Morales' came in the eighth.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Duffy Dyer's two-out home run in the last of the ninth inning lifted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 2-1 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game of a doubleheader last night.

The homer came off Bill Grief, the third Cardinal pitcher, who had come on in the ninth and struck out the first two batters he faced.

Liberty, not girl for Soviet diver

MONTREAL (UPI) — Attorneys said yesterday teenage Soviet Olympic diver Sergei Nemtsanov defected for love, but it was for love of freedom and not for love of an American millionaire's daughter.

Alex K. Paterson, acting as lawyer and security screen for 17-year-old Nemtsanov, scoffed in an interview yesterday at reports the athlete was in love with an unidentified American heiress he met last year during a diving meet in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

"That's not the reason for his defection," he said. Spokesmen for the department of Immigration and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police agreed.

"What he has told us and what he has told everyone about his reasons for defecting is that he wanted freedom, freedom to travel and move about and follow the life he wants."

"He did say it is his intention to stay with friends in Canada. He has a lot of friends in Canada."

"He never gave a love affair as his reason for defecting to us, nor in our presence did he say it to the RCMP or Immigration people."

"There are no Americans involved in the situation at all, as far as we know. He has not contacted any and we have not been contacted by Americans on his behalf," said Paterson.

Nemtsanov has been in seclusion since his Thursday defection.

In scotching the love affair reports, Paterson said, Nemtsanov "has competed in the United States and knows a lot of divers there, girls and boys. I am not going to be surprised if they continue to say he knows a diver in the United States. He does, but that's not the reason for his defection."

Nemtsanov's defection has prompted Soviet charges that he was kidnapped by an unidentified group and then "brainwashed" to prevent his accepting a request to return home.

Canada's refusal to accept a Soviet demand for his return has tainted USSR-Canada sport relations and could cause the Soviets to pull out of next month's Canada Cup hockey series here.

Paterson also shot down published reports Nemtsanov did not intend to remain in Canada but would later move to the United States.

And he said reports that the athlete had been touch by telephone with Mikhail Baryshnikov, a dancer who defected from the Bolshoi troupe in Toronto in 1974, were incorrect.

"That's another absolutely false statement," he said, "Nemtsanov does not know Baryshnikov."

Washington IM champs

Hustling for 32 straight minutes was the key as Washington House fought off a good Cross Halls team, 32-25, to win the I.M. Basketball Dorm League championship.

Leading Washington to victory was Donnie Adams with 10 points. Bruce Harnish contributed 9 big points, and Rick Zong threw in 6 more.

The other two members of the starting team were captain Seth Paul and Jim Lockard.

Brass Construction will play the Piggdogs tonight for the Independent Basketball League championship.
