Ali pounds out decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Muhammad Ali, calling on every trick he has learned in his long and controversial career, pounded out a unanimous 15-Found decision over Ken Norton last night and retained his world heavyweight championship.

The 34-year-old Ali, sometimes floating like the butterfly he has bragged about, other times stinging like a bee with solid jabs and short right leads, seemed to control the tempo from the outset although Norton kept moving forward and landed the harder punches.

Ali even resorted to the rope-a-dope defense he used when he wrested the title away from George Foreman.

There was only one thing he did not do. He did not destroy Norton as he predicted he would do.

Referee Arthur Mercante scored the fight 8-6-1 for Ali while judges Harold Lederman and Barney Smith each had it 8-7 for Ali.

The Associated Press had it 9-6 for the champion. Norton now has gone 39 tough rounds with the man who proclaims himself the greatest fighter of all time. The only thing he has to show for it is one victory, some real good money and a night of

The defeat probably wrote an end to Norton's boxing career. At 31, movies seem to be more in his future than fights.

Ali, who predicted the fight would not go more than five rounds, came out flat-footed, gunning for power. His best weapons in the first six rounds were short right hands, many of them leads.

But Norton gave as good as he got and after eight rounds it seemed to be anybody's fight.

Then, in the ninth, Ali came out dancing and jabbing and the jab was effective. The champion also shook Norton with a left-right-left to the head in the round which ended with Norton scoring a solid right

In the 10th, Ali was dancing and jabbing again and Norton couldn't do anything about it. Ali made it three rounds in a row, at least on The AP card, when he took the 11th round, in which Norton imitated Ali's rope-a-dope, a tactic the champ had used earlier in the fight.

Then in the 11th, Ali scored with two telling rights, both of them leads, and two good lefts to the head.

But Norton kept coming and punching with all his power, although he was never able to land the punch that could turn the tide for him in the final four rounds. And Ali remained effective with his left hand right to the final bell, although he missed more in the final 12 minutes than he had for most of the

The 15th round ended with Norton, weighing 217½, bulling the 221 pound Ali into a neutral corner and scoring with several hard punches to the head and body.

When the final bell rang Norton had a look of jubilation on his face. But when he left the ring a few minutes later there were tears in his eyes.

Tishov could not find the words to verify the story, but did comment extensively on the field goal.

"I hit it good" he said.

Pi Kappa Alpha had several big opportunities to put the game away with a touchdown. The biggest opportunity came when Mike Labreque intercepted Delta quarterback Tom Moore's deflected pass and returned it inside the Delta 20. "It was tough out there tonight," Moore said. "The ball was extremely wet." Could the smell of manure have bothered him?

'It was a combination of things," he closed.

Reice's late goal lifts booters to 4th victory

By PETE DOUGHERTY Collegian Sports Writer

Speedy winger Rich Reice picked up a loose ball and, through a strong individual effort, scored the winning goal last night as Penn State's soccer team recorded a 3-2 victory at West Chester.

Reice, a junior who also assisted on the Lions' second score, tallied his third goal of the year at the 24:32 mark of the second half as Penn State upped its record to 4-1.

Steve Beck of the host team got the only goal of the West Chester-dominated first half at 32:04. Lion goalie Dan Gallegher made the initial save on a shot taken from inside the 18yard line, but he was hurt on the play and was unable to get back up as Beck rammed home the rebound.

Midfielder Leo Bodossian, Penn State's leading goal-getter of a year ago with eight when he played forward, scored his first of this season five minutes and 42 seconds into the second half to knot the count at 1-1.

Bodossian was credited with the score after eammate Jim Stamatis' head shot deflected off the midfielder behind West Chester goalie

The Lions kept the pressure on and it resulted in a goal at 58:29 by Sal Bommarito, his first of the year.

Bommarito took a shot that Todd deflected into the goal post. Reice followed with a shot that also struck the post, but Bommarito pounced on that rebound and put the ball past

West Chester tied the game, however, at 68:17 as Jim Hess took a pass from right winger Jamie Toledo and beat Gallagher from 18-yards out.

But Reice notched the winner just 1:15 later. His first shot hit a fullback's leg, but Reice got the ball back and put it in from 12

THROW-INS — The Lions slipped to 15th in the national rankings after the 2-1 loss to Hartwick. They were ninth. Hartwick remained sixth this week....West Chester's record slipped to 2-1. Its previous victims were Bucknell and Rider.

Penn State outshot West Chester on the game, 23-9, and held the advantage in corner kicks, 8-3 Gallagher was forced to make three saves while Todd credited with nine The game was played on a football field, which turned out to be only slightly shorter, but was 12 yards narrower than Jeffrey Field, home of the Lions Penn State is at home Friday against West Virginia.
