Pirate G.M. retires

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Joe L. Brown announced his resignation yesterday as general manager of baseball's Pittsburgh Pirates in words echoing those of King Edward VIII when he left the English throne.

"I have a woman that I love," Brown said of his wife, Virginia, with whom he shared their 36th wedding anniversary last Friday.

'I have not devoted as much time to her as I care to — as I'm going to," he added, his voice choked with emotion.

Edward VIII abdicated four decades ago amidst discord over his marriage to an American divorcee. There was no such outside pressure on Brown, secure in his post after 21 seasons and two World Series championships as Pirate general manager.

"I have worked under the most ideal condition but I think it's a matter of priorities," said the 58-year-old son of the late movie and stage comedian Joe E. Brown.

No successor was named, and there was no immediate word on whether Manager Danny Murtaugh might join his close friend and boss in retirement.

"I don't think what I do will have any effect on Danny's decision," said Brown, whose team won National League East titles five of the past six seasons.

He also said his move wasn't influenced by this year's also-ran finish by the Pirates, who won the National League East title five of the

"I think we're a championship team anyhow," he said. "I think championships lie. in the heart.

Brown was joined at the news conference by Pirate board chairman John Galbraith and his son, club president Daniel Galbraith. The Galbraiths said Brown would stay with the club as a scout, but he'll move with his wife to California.

'I won't give you my address because if I do Murtaugh will get it and move in with me." Brown said, breaking into a smile that brought a more relaxed tone to the news

Born in New York City, Brown later attended UCLA, where he studied journalism. "I was going to be a sportswriter until I met several," he quipped.

He began his baseball career in 1939 as assistant business manager with the Lubbock, Tex., team in the Texas-New Mexico

In 1940, he came to Pittsburgh as general manager of the Pittsburgh Hornets hockey club. One of the stick boys on that team was Joe O'Toole, now the Pirates' assistant general manager. He joined the Pittsburgh organization in 1950 as general manager of their Waco, Tex., club, and in 1955 he succeeded the late Branch Rickey as Pirate general manager. Prior to his arrival, the Pirates finished last in the National League in four of five seasons

"I'm' not runnin' away from difficult times," Brown said. "I came here in difficult

Looking back on his trades, Brown said his best was the 1959 swap that brought Don Hoak, Smokey Burgess and Harvey Haddix here from Cincinnati for Frank Thomas, Jim Pendleton, Whammy Douglas and Johnny Powers.

That deal proved pivotal in Pittsburgh's 1960 drive to the World Series title. "There are some other ones I'm trying to forget," Brown said. Among them were deals that sent pitcher Bob Purkey to Cincinnati and shortstop Dick Groat to St. Louis. "My two worst," Brown

Nonetheless, Brown made more good deals that bad ones, and he molded the Pirates into one of baseball's most successful teams in this decade. "I'll hate to see him go," said Pirate outfielder Al Oliver, who attended the news conference in his capacity as a local sports-

Just last winter, Oliver admitted he was openly miffed that Brown had considered trading him. Oliver's future and that of other Pirates remains uncertain for next season.

It's possible Brown's duties could be shared by both O'Toole, assistant general manager and his current top business assistant, and Harding Peterson, director of the Pirates' scouting and minor league

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Jerry Martin slammed a one-out double in the eighth inning, snapping a 5-5 tie and lifting the Philadelphia Phillies to a 6-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals last night.

Mike Schmidt assumed the major league home run lead by pounding his 38th of the season to highlight an early Philadelphia assault off Cardinals starter Bob Forsch. hits in the game.

PITTSBURGH (AP) -Rick Monday's two-out home run in the sixth inning backed Steve Renko's five-hitter to give the Chicago Cubs a 1-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates last night.

Monday's homer came on the first pitch and went over the 360-foot mark in left field. It was only the second hit off right-hander Larry Demery, 10-7, who allowed just three Francisco's swaggering John Montefusco came within one pitch of a perfect game last night, hurling a 9-0 no-hitter against the Atlanta Braves.

The youngster, known as "The Count" for his exceptional poise and cocky appearance on the mound, allowed only one batter to reach base — a walk on a 3-1 pitch to Jerry Royster leading off the fourth inning. Montefusco, last year's Rookie of the Year in the National League, was in command all the way. San Francisco fielders only had routine plays behind the rangy right-hander. Montefusco struck out four batters and forced the Braves to hit the ball into the ground for the most part. Shortsop Johnnie LeMaster alone had Montefusco pitched the fourth no-hitter of the year in the major leagues this season. Earlier this year, Houston's Larry Dierker hurled a no-hitter against the Montreal Expos, John "Blue Moon" Odom and Francisco Barrios combined on a nohitter for the Chicago White Sox against the California Angels, and John Candelaria pitched a no-hitter for the Pittsburgh Pirates against the St. Louis Cardinals.

The last Giant to pitch a nohitter was Ed Halicki, who did it last season against the New York Mets. The only other no-hitter pitched in Atlanta has been by the Braves' Phil Niekro against eight chances. the San Diego Padres on Aug.

Montefusco, a native of Long Branch, N.J., advanced to the majors in less than 116 years after being signed by " scouts out of Brookdale Community College in Lin-croft, N.J. In his first major league season last year, "The Count" compiled a 15-9 record with a 2.88 ERA to run away with "Rookie of the Year"

LeMaster keyed a four-run uprising for the Giants in the second off Atlanta starter Jamie Easterly, 1-1, driving in a pair of runs with a double to right. Derrel Thomas and Larry Herndon also had RBI hits in the inning.

The Giants pummeled Easterly for six hits in 1 2-3rd innings. Bobby Murcer opened the second inning with a single and Gary Alexander (? followed with another hit before Thomasson fouled out. Thomas then drilled a single to right for one run and LeMaster followed with a line drive double to right. LeMaster scored one out later Herndon's broken-bat single to left.

Gary Matthews opened the Giants' three-run fifth with a double to right center off reliever Preston Hannah. Murcer walked Alexander reached on Jerry Royster's error to load the bases. Thomasson then singled to center, scoring two runs, and one out later LeMaster lifted a sacrifice fly to center.

Murcer knocked in a final & run for the Giants in the ninth.
