

Square dance Saturday ; Thalia Trio plays Monday

The Spring Creek Ramblers will be playing for the Folklore Society's square dance at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the HUB Ballroom. A live caller will be performing with the band and the inexperienced are welcome. Admission is 50 cents for Folklore Society members, $1 for non-members.

The Fred Waring Show, starring Fred Waring and his young Pennsylvanians, will appear in a benefit performance for the Stemon and Elizabeth Gallu Scholarship fund at 8:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 15 in the University Auditorium. Tickets go on sale at the box office Monday.

the University Chapel Service in Eisenhower Chapel at 11 a.m. Sunday.

The Compagnie Bernard Uzan will present a French play entitled "Un Spectacle Moliere" at the University Auditorium at 8 p.m. Thursday. Tickets are on sale at the HUB desk and will also be sold at the Auditorium one hour before performance.

drawings and prints which opens Sunday.

University Theatre Productions offers a special student preview of their production "Scapino" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Preview tickets may be obtained by bringing I.D. cards to the Playhouse Box Office beginning 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Free public tours of the Museum of Art will be held every Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Arts notes

The Thalia Trio will perform works by Mozart, Bloch and Saint Saens at 8:30 p.m. Monday in the Music Building recital hall.

Re-Creation, a student choral group, will perform at

The Friends of the Museum of Art will present a gallery talk by Jeffrey Wortman at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday. Wortman, a scholar of Flemish art, will be speaking on the exhibition of Antwerp

Bud Greenspan, writer, director, and producer of the TV series "The Olympiad," will show his new experimental film, "An Olympic Symphony," at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Room 102 Forum Bldg.

The Spring Creek Ramblers (left to right), Mike Rovine, Bruce Young, Reed Bernstein and Mark Ralston, will be playing at the Folklore Society's square dance tomorrow night.

Puppet porno flick mildly funny

By BOB FRICK
Collegian Staff Writer

The recent rumblings in Southern California aren't due to the San Andreas fault, they're Walt Disney doing cartwheels in his casket over "The Erotic Adventures of Pinocchio" (rated X) now playing at the State Theatre.

movie review

Up to a point, "Adventures" faithfully recreates the original flick — there is a kindly woodcarver.

That's where the similarity ends, however, for sculptor

Gepetta carves Pinocchio for her own sexual amusement. She is so anxious to try him out, they hit the sack before the fairy godmother turns him from pulp and sap into flesh and blood.

Because of splinters or dry rot, she isn't fulfilled and stalks off with a chip on her shoulder.

The metamorphosis soon does take place, but before Pinocchio can get together with the virgin Gopetta, he's lured into a house of ill repute to perform amazing acts of stamina with more than 50 women in one sitting.

More concerned with laughs than gasps, the strictly softcore "Adventures" is never more than mildly funny, destroying potentially laughable scenes with cheap one-liners.

NBC chooses Pauley

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC, seeking a permanent female cohost to replace Barbara Walters on its "Today Show" apparently has chosen Jane Pauley, a Chicago newscaster whose career began only three years ago, it was learned Thursday.

But network sources said Miss Pauley, 25, who co-anchors a news show at NBC-owned WMAQ-TV in Chicago, and her agent still are negotiating her "Today" contract and no agreement has been signed.

NBC, while saying Miss Pauley is a leading contender for the "Today" job, declined to say if it definitely has chosen her for the job.

It said an announcement on who will be the regular female co-anchor may be made Friday or early next week.

Miss Pauley, contacted in Chicago, declined comment.

SPECIAL FEATURE!

A collection of unique jewelry from Afghanistan

The Caravan
116 S. Garner

The G.S.A. and international council are sponsoring a:

BARN PARTY

FOR ALL YOU GRADS! GET YOUR FEET A-STOMPIN' OVER TO KOA KAMPGROUNDS (MAPS IN 95A, 305 KERN) SATURDAY, OCT 2 (TOMORROW) FOR SOME GOOD'OLE DANCIN' (YA-WHO!!) HAYRIDES, CIDER + FOOD FOOD!! IT ALL BEGINS AT 7PM. SO BRING YOUR PARTNER... IT'S FREE!! AND BE SURE TO WEAR WARM CLOTHES.

IF YOU NEED A RIDE OR CAN PROVIDE ONE, CALL THE GSA OFFICE - 865-9061.

HANDCRAFTED BASKETS

SUNSHINE
220 S. Fraser
(across from the post office)

10:30 to 5:30
Tues. through Sat.

Dresses are Exciting at

THE ALLEY CAT

alleycat
135 Calder Alley

When you've been looking all week for a place to live and this is the best thing you've seen so far ...it's no time to get filled up.

Lite Beer from Miller.
Everything you always wanted in a beer. And less.

© 1976 The Miller Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wis.