

Linkwomen take eastern crown

Lady Lion golfers brought home the team championship from the EAIAW Tournament at Bristol Harbour Golf Course, New York, this past weekend.

Penn State's 36-hole score of 335 put them ahead of Mount Holyoke's 340, and Cortland's third place finish of 353.

"The course is one of the most difficult courses that we could ever expect to play on," said coach Annette Thompson. "It's new, only about two years old. The large rolling greens can easily force the golfers to play some extra shots."

The course was designed by Robert Trent Jones, one of today's premier golf-course architects.

"Each of our players had their own personal ups and downs, and we left knowing we were the best team there," she said.

The individual championship went to Princeton's Charlotte Allen, who shot a 163 (82.81). Penn State's Renie Kelleher was tied with Allen after the first eighteen holes 82-82. After the final hole Kelleher was tied with Mount Holyoke's Anne Locke for second place.

The tie was resolved by the scores of the final day. Locke's totals of 85 and 80 gave her second place over Kelleher's 82-83.

Judi Mitchell's total of 171 (85.86) placed her sixth overall. Sophomore Kelly Grimes finished behind her with a 172 (90.82).

Kathy Patrick, still plagued with ankle problems, took ninth place with a 180 (88.92). Sally Slater, a freshman with only two years golfing experience, scored a 185 (92.93), and finished eleventh.

—Joyce Tomana

Philadelphia Phillies' manager Danny Ozark (left) congratulates Steve Carlton (right) after the lefty won his 20th game yesterday against the Mets.

Carlton hurls 20th win; Pirates end with sweep

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pirate players, veterans and rookies alike, filed into Danny Murtaugh's office between games of a double header sweep yesterday afternoon to bid farewell to the four-time manager and to General Manager Joe L. Brown, both of whom last week announced their retirement from baseball.

The Pirates defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 1-0 in both ends of the twin bill as the season closed.

"Danny definitely is going to be missed," said Willie Stargell, captain of the team. "So will Joe. We knew it was only a matter of time until Danny retired. He hadn't been in good health."

"But the retirement of Brown was a surprise. He did an awful lot for me since I have been here, and I cannot express in words my appreciation."

Bruce Kison, lanky pitcher who finished the season with a 14-9 record, said that Murtaugh "certainly has been an inspiration and an excellent leader for this team in the six seasons I've been here. So has Joe Brown. Not only will the team miss them, but so will all of Pittsburgh."

Jerry Reuss, who gave the Cardinals just six hits in winning the nightcap, said that he didn't know what effect the losses of Brown and Murtaugh might have on the Pirates in the future, but added "I respected both of them."

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Steve Carlton tuned up for the opening game of the National League playoffs with his 20th victory, pitching the Philadelphia Phillies to a 2-1 decision over the New York Mets in their final game of the regular season yesterday. Carlton checked the Mets on three hits, one after the second inning, while striking out 12 and walking four. It was the third 20-game or better season for the 31-year-old left-hander, who won 20 for St. Louis in 1971 and 27 for the Phillies in 1972. He joined Randy Jones, Jerry Kosman, Don Sutton, and J.R. Richard as National League 20-game winners.

There's gold in them thar free agents

NEW YORK (AP) — Consider for a moment this possibility.

It is the ninth inning of the fifth game of next week's National League playoff. The bases are loaded with two out in a one-run game and Dave Cash steps to bat for Philadelphia against Don Gullett of the Cincinnati Reds.

The game, the season, the pennant are on the line.

And the irony of the situation is that the two players involved in the showdown are virtual lame ducks. Neither is likely to be working for his respective club one month after this confrontation ends.

Cash and Gullett are among the 29 players who become free agents when their season ends. Most of them attained that status yesterday when the regular season ended for 20 of the 24 major league clubs.

The list includes the full range of players, from major league stars like Baltimore's Reggie Jackson to minor league unknowns like California's Mike Miley. The one thing they have in common is their freedom to decide where they will play next year.

Besides Gullett, Cash, Jackson and Miley, the list includes Baltimore's Bobby Grich and Wayne Garland and Oriole minor leaguer Royle Stillman; and Joe Rudi, Sal Bando, Gene Tenace, Bert Campaneris, Don Baylor, Rollie Fingers and Willie McCovey of Oakland.

Also available are Richie Hebner of Pittsburgh; Gary Matthews and Bruce Miller of San Francisco; Philadelphia's Wayne Twitchell and Phillie farmhand Sergio Ferrara; Minnesota's Steve Brye, Steve Braun, Eric Soderholm and Bill Campbell; Tito Fuentes of San Diego; Doyle Alexander of the New York Yankees; Steve Stone of the Chicago Cubs; and California minor leaguers Billy Smith, Lonnie Dade and Tim Nordbrook.

Major league standings

National League				American League
	W	L	Pct.		W	L	Pct.
x-Phila	101	61	.623	x-New York	97	62	.610
Phila	92	70	.568	Balt	88	74	.537
New York	86	76	.531	Cleveland	81	78	.509
Chicago	75	87	.463	Boston	83	79	.512
St. Louis	72	90	.444	Detroit	74	87	.460
Montreal	65	107	.340	Milwaukee	66	95	.410
West				West
x-Cinci	102	60	.630	x-Kansas City	90	72	.556
Los Ang	92	70	.568	Oakland	87	74	.540
Houston	90	82	.494	Minnesota	85	77	.525
San Fran	74	88	.457	California	76	86	.469
San Diego	73	89	.451	Texas	76	86	.469
Atlanta	70	92	.432	Chicago	64	97	.398
x-clinched division title				x-clinched division title
Saturday's Games				Saturday's Games
Pittsburgh 6, St. Louis 0	Atlanta 3, Cincinnati 0	Chicago 3, Montreal 1	Houston 10, San Fran 1	Pittsburgh 6, St. Louis 0	Atlanta 3, Cincinnati 0	Chicago 3, Montreal 1	Houston 10, San Fran 1
Philadelphia 7, New York 4	San Diego 4, Los Ang 1
Yesterday's Games				Yesterday's Games
Pittsburgh 1-1, St. Louis 0-0	Philadelphia 2, New York 1	Cincinnati 11, Atlanta 1	Chicago 8, Montreal 2	Cleveland at New York 2, ppd, rain	Minnesota 5, Kansas City 3	Detroit 5, Milwaukee 2	Texas 3, Chicago 0
San Diego 3, Los Angeles 2
Only games scheduled				REGULAR SEASON ENDS

SPECIAL FEATURE!

A collection of unique jewelry from Afghanistan

The Caravan
116 S. Garner

CHICKEN DIVAN

Chunks of Chicken in a creamy, tangy sauce in casserole over broccoli. Served with house salad, Italian bread and butter. $2.95

1:30-9:00 every Monday

junction of College and Garner

THE TRAIN STATION

REGISTRATION

MILLER TIME

FALL OPENING PROGRAM
JEFFREY PALMER, N.Y.A.
FRIDAY, OCT. 15, 1976
TICKETS: 7.50

PHILOSOPHY ANTHROPOLOGY BEER

UNITED STATES READING LAB OFFERS SPEED READING COURSE IN STATE COLLEGE

U.S. READING LAB will offer a 4 week course in speed reading to a limited number of qualified people in the State College area. This recently developed method of instruction is the most innovative and effective program available in the U.S. Not only does this famous course reduce your time in the classroom to just 1 class per week for 4 short weeks but is also includes an advanced speed reading course on cassette tape so that you can continue to improve for the rest of your life.

In just 4 weeks the average student should be reading 4-5 times faster. In a few months some students are reading 20-30 times faster attaining speeds that approach 6000 words per minute. In rare instances speeds up to 13000 wpm have been documented. Our average graduate should read 7-10 times faster upon completion of the course with market improvement in comprehension and concentration.

For those who would like additional information, a series of free 1 hour orientation lectures have been scheduled. At these free lectures the course will be explained in complete detail including classroom procedures, instruction, class schedule, and a special one time only introductory tuition that is less than 1/2 the cost of similar courses. You must attend any of the meetings for information about the State College classes. The orientations are open to the public above age 14 (persons under 18 should be accompanied by a parent if possible).

If you have always wanted to be a speed reader but found the cost prohibitive or the course too time consuming, now you can, just by attending 1 evening per week for 4 short weeks. You can read 7-10 times faster, concentrate longer, and comprehend more. If you are a student who would like to make A's instead of B's or C's or if you are a business person who wants to stay abreast of today's ever changing accelerating world then this course is an absolute necessity.

These special free 1 hour lectures will be held at the following times and places. State College meetings:

Mon.	Oct. 4	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Tues.	Oct. 5	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Wed.	Oct. 6	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Thurs.	Oct. 7	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Fri.	Oct. 8	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Sun.	Oct. 10	2:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn
Mon.	Oct. 11	6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.	at the Sheraton Inn

If you are a businessman, student, housewife, or executive this course which took 5 years of intensive research to develop is a must. You can read 7-10 times faster, comprehend more, concentrate better and remember longer. Students are offered an additional discount. This course can be taught to industry or civic groups at group rates upon request. Be sure to attend whichever free orientation that best fits into your schedule.

Now comes Miller time.

© 1976 The Miller Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wis.