

WHY ALBERT JOHNSON VOTES THE WAY HE DOES! SEE WHO PAYS HIS BILLS!

Congressman Johnson has filed his report for October 1st thru October 18th. It shows:

- 1. Large contributors in these final days $26,322
- 2. Only 6 of 37 contributors live in the 23rd District
- 3. Big contributions from Washington, D.C., Virginia, Texas, Chicago and California
- 4. Large contributors from OIL, BANKING, LAWYERS and other special interest groups.

HERE'S THE LIST — YOU JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

NOTE: The names, places and amounts are exact quotes from THE Johnson report filed October 25, 1976 with the election bureau. The material in "()" is inserted by the advertiser.

- Committee for Thorough Agricultural Pol. Education, San Antonio. $ 5,000
(Who is this? Milk prices?)
- American Medical Pol. Action Committee, Chicago. $ 3,500
- Auto. & Truck Dealers, Election Comm., McLean, Virginia. $ 2,000
- ADEPT, Springfield, Missouri. $ 1,000
(Who is this? Milk prices?)
- Attorneys Congressional Campaign Trust, Washington, D. C. $ 500
(Tax loop holes?)
- Edward J. Carrall, Bryn Mawr Consultant. $ 500
(Consultant for what?)
- Chrysler Pol. Support Committee, Detroit, Mich. $ 500
(Auto. pollution standards?)
- Benson Ford, V.P. Ford Motor Co., Dearborn, Mich. $ 200
(Auto. pollution standards?)
- House Pac, Watergate, Six Hundred, Washington. $ 200
(Who?)
- C.S. May, Investment Management, Ligonier. $ 1,000
(C. S. Scaife May, niece of the late Richard King Mellon of Mellon Bank)
- James Nemecek, lawyer, Palm Beach, Fla. $ 200
- 1200 Committee, Philadelphia. $ 300
(Fidelity Bank?)
- ACPAC, Houston. $ 200
- Bonpac, Morristown, N.J. $ 300
- Conpac, Washington. $ 200
- Conpac, State College. $ 500
- LUPAC, Washington. $ 200
- LMB PAC, Dayton, Ohio. $ 250
- National Consumer Finance Association PAC. $ 300
- PET PAC, Long Beach, Calif. $ 500
- WAWAC, Dallas. $ 400
(Who are all these PAC's and what interest do they have?)
- E. F. Hutton Group, Pol. Action Comm., New York City. $ 500
(An investment House)
- James D. Robertson, Ltd., Partner, Goldman Sachs, San Francisco. $ 500
(Another Investment House)
- Panhandle Energy Pol. Action Comm., Amarillo, Texas. $ 250
(What kind of energy?)
- Miss Ethel Pew, housewife, Philadelphia. $ 500
(The Pews who own Sun Oil Co.)
- Public Service Political Action Comm., Vienna, Va. $ 500
(Who?)
- Restaurateurs Pol. Action Comm., Chicago. $ 500
- National Republican Congressional Comm., Washington. $ 1,500
- There are 11 more in miscellaneous amounts from individuals with banking, oil and mining interests or management political action committees $ 1,600
- The report also shows itemized contributions of $ 2,627

TOTAL $26,322

QUESTION: Why is Albert Johnson's campaign so important to these "Fat Cat" special interests? THINK ABOUT THAT ON ELECTION DAY.

Provided for your information by the AMMERMAN FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE
Jo Hays, Chairman, Richard McKeown, Treasurer

A PHOTO COPY OF THIS REPORT IS AVAILABLE AT OUR HEADQUARTERS FOR YOUR EXAMINATION.

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Defense leads Steelers past Chargers; Eagles hand Giants eighth straight loss

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The statistics said it was the best defensive game the Pittsburgh Steelers have ever played. Joe Greene didn't quite agree.

"We've shut people off better, dominated them more than we did today," Greene said yesterday after the Steelers yielded just seven first downs, 44-yards rushing and 80 passing in a 23-0 victory over the San Diego Chargers.

"But the statistics do say we kicked the heck out of them," Greene added with a grin after the once-sputtering Steelers won their third straight.

"We're not all the way back, but we're getting ready to play some defense," end L. C. Greenwood added after the Steelers raised their record to 4-4, their first time at the .500 mark this season. San Diego fell to 4-4.

"They're equal to other Steeler defenses that we've seen," said Charger coach Tommy Prothro, whose team trailed only 3-0 until the Steelers erupted for three touchdowns in a seven minute span in the last quarter.

"We're playing with the attitude that we can't lose another game. That's the only way we can look at it," said Steeler middle linebacker

Jack Lambert, who had 10 solo tackles.

Offensively, the Steelers piled up a season-high of 255 yards rushing, 108 of them by reserve running back Reggie Harrison, who entered the game after Franco Harris sustained muscle cramps.

Quarterback Terry Bradshaw also turned to action after missing two games with a neck injury, and he helped the Steelers score three touchdowns in a seven minute span of the final quarter.

With rookie Mike Kruczek starting at quarterback, the Steelers took a 3-0 lead 6:54 into the second quarter when Roy Gerela kicked a 36-yard field goal set up by a fumble recovery.

Bradshaw, who entered the game late in the second quarter, dove one yard for the initial touchdown with 8:31 left in the game.

He passed 117 yards to rookie Ernest Fough for the second touchdown on the next Steelers' series, and a fumble recovery set up a three-yard scoring plunge by John Fuqua with 1:15 left in the game second.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—Mike Boryla lobbed a 13 yard scoring pass to Harold Carmichael and the Philadelphia Eagles took a 10-0 National Football League decision over the winless New York Giants, who absorbed their eighth loss in the worst start of their history.

Boryla's scoring pass, with 9:23 gone in the second period was set up by a 10 yard pass to tight end Charles Young and Dave Hampton's 10 and three yard runs which carried the ball to the 13. Carmichael got free in the left corner of the end zone where Boryla hit him.

Kickoff and punt return specialist Larry Marshall kept the Eagles in good field position all day.

Major league standings

NFL
AMERICAN CONFERENCE				Central Division
Eastern Division				West Division
W	L	T	Pct.	PF	PA
Balt	6	1	0	.857	203	114
N Eng	5	3	0	.625	201	154
Miami	4	4	0	.500	152	153
Buff	2	6	0	.250	151	161
NY Jets	2	6	0	.250	69	206
Cincel	6	2	0	.750	192	102
Hsin	4	3	0	.571	128	103
Pitts	4	4	0	.500	181	116
Cleve	4	4	0	.500	154	208
Oakland	7	1	0	.875	167	157
Deny	4	4	0	.500	177	112
S Diego	4	4	0	.500	160	164
Kan City	3	5	0	.375	178	232
Tpa Bay	0	8	0	.000	75	184
NATIONAL CONFERENCE
Eastern Division				Central Division
Dallas	7	1	0	.875	201	116
S Louis	6	2	0	.750	197	159
Wash	5	3	0	.625	154	144
Phila	2	5	0	.286	97	159
NY Giants	0	7	0	.000	76	165
NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE
PACIFIC DIVISION				CENTRAL DIVISION
W	L	T	Pct.	GF	GA
NY Isl	6	2	2	.667	40	25
Phila	5	3	2	.611	36	32
Atl	5	6	2	.455	40	50
NY Rang	5	6	1	.455	47	46
St. Lou	7	5	0	.583	41	46
Chgo	6	5	1	.545	41	32
Minn	4	6	1	.400	33	45
Vancvr	4	7	1	.357	32	50
Colo	3	8	1	.273	31	38
WESTERN DIVISION
Mont	9	3	1	.750	66	29
LA	7	3	3	.611	51	35
Pitts	7	6	4	.545	34	56
Wash	2	5	2	.286	22	39
Drt	2	7	1	.231	27	32
EASTERN CONFERENCE
Atlantic Division				Pacific Division
Boston	4	0	1,000
NY Knicks	3	2	.600	1 1/2
Phila	3	2	.600	1 1/2
Buffalo	2	3	.400	2 1/2
NY Nets	2	4	.333	3
Cleve	4	0	1,000
N Orleans	3	1	.750	1
Houston	3	1	.750	1
Atlanta	2	3	.400	2 1/2
S Antonio	2	4	.333	3
Wash	2	4	.333	3
WESTERN CONFERENCE
Midwest Division				Sunday's Games
Denver	4	0	1,000
Indiana	3	3	.500	2
Detroit	2	3	.400	2 1/2
Kan City	2	3	.400	2 1/2
Chicago	2	3	.400	2 1/2
Milwkee	1	5	.167	4
Portland	9	2	.818	49	34
Buff	4	4	.500	25	24
Toto	3	5	.375	41	44
Cleve	3	5	.375	32	31
Chgo 4, Detroit 1
Phila 3, NY Isl 3
Boston 4, Montreal 3
NY Rang 2, Pittsburgh 2
Toronto 5, Minnesota 1
St. Louis 3, Colorado 1
LA 4, Cleveland 3
LA 4, Seattle 6
Minn at Phila
Boston at Buff
Detroit at NY Rang
Wash at Chicago
Buff at Mont
Toronto at Cleve
NY Islanders at Vancouver

Cowboys maintain lead; Vikings take first spill

Dallas spelled doom for Washington and Chicago broke Minnesota's unbeaten spell in the National Football League yesterday.

The Cowboys rolled over the Redskins 20-7 to dim Washington's playoff hopes. And the Bears, avenging a one-point loss in Minnesota earlier this year, handed the Vikings their first setback by a 14-13 score.

The Dallas victory gave the Cowboys a 7-1 record in the National Conference East. It kept them one game ahead of St. Louis, which beat San Francisco 23-20 in sudden-death overtime, and dropped the Redskins to 5-2, two games off the pace with six to go in the regular season.

The Vikings, at 6-1, are still solidly ahead in the NFC Central race. Chicago and Detroit are second at 4-4.

In Sunday's other NFL action it was Miami 10, New England 3; Philadelphia 10, New York Giants 0; Cincinnati 21, Cleveland 6; Pittsburgh 23, San Diego 0; New York Jets 19, Buffalo 10; Detroit 27, Green Bay 6; Kansas City 28, Tampa Bay 19; Atlanta 23, New Orleans 20; Oakland 19, Denver 6, and Los Angeles 45, Seattle 6. Houston is at Baltimore tonight.

Staubach, quarterbacking

the Cowboys with a broken pinky on his right hand, scored a touchdown on a one-yard dive and Doug Dennison bulled in from the three for the scores that enabled Dallas to win in Washington for the first time since 1971.

Staubach apparently wasn't bothered by the injury. He completed 13 of 23 passes for 152 yards. Efen Herrera kicked field goals of 37 and 21 yards for Dallas while Washington scored in the last minute on a seven-yard TD pass from Joe Theismann to Roy Jefferson.

Jim Bakken's 21-yard field goal 6:42 into sudden death overtime enabled St. Louis to beat the 49ers and drop San Francisco, 6-2, one-half game behind Los Angeles in the NFC West.

The Vikings were the only unbeaten NFL team going into Sunday's game, then lost that distinction as Walter Payton and Johnny Musso scored touchdowns for a Chicago victory. Minnesota quarterback Fran Tarkenton broke Johnny Unitas' record of 40,239 career passing yards, passing for 272 and a career total of 40,421.

Miami's defensive corps welcomed back Bill Arnsparger, fired last Monday by the Giants, with an inspirational showing against New England. Arnsparger, rehired Wednesday by the Dolphins, had made Miami's "No-Name Defense" the league's strongest in the early 1970s. A 16-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese to Jim Mandick in the second period was the winning margin.

Ken Anderson hit Isaac Curtis with a 69-yard touchdown pass and Boobie Clark ran for 100 yards and two TDs to lead Cincinnati past the Browns.

Rookie quarterback Richard Todd tossed a 20-yard touchdown pass and the Jets withstood a Buffalo charge to beat the Bills. Ray Jarvis caught touchdown passes of 74 and 13 yards from Greg Landry in the Lions' romp over Green Bay.

Mike Livingston woke up Kansas City's slow-starting offense with a pair of third-quarter touchdown passes to keep Tampa Bay winless. Scott Hunter came off the bench in the second half to fire two touchdown passes and lift the Falcons past New Orleans.

Ken Stabler's 31-yard touchdown pass to Fred Biletnikoff broke a fourth quarter tie and carried Oakland past the Broncos. James Harris returned to action after recuperating from a shoulder injury and fired two touchdown passes in the Rams romp over Seattle.

Women grab 2nd crown Harriers class of East

The team was the big winner though, with Hilary Noden (third, 17:33), Liz Berry (fifth, 17:39) and Donna Gardner (eighth, 17:50), supporting Mills and Bankes to give the Lady Lions the Eastern title. Their team score of 16 was one away from being perfect.

Middleberry University, from Vermont, with a team made up of cross country skiers, (sans their skis), finished second with 59 points. They were followed by the University of Massachusetts, (84); Rutgers, (146); Lock Haven, (175); and Vermont, (190).

Brooks said the field of runners for the Easterns, held in Albany, New York, was larger than she expected.

"Earlier this year it was estimated that 15 teams would be at the meet," Brooks said. "To have 19 teams, 36 schools and 145 runners competing at this level was just fantastic. It should mean that the distance program in the spring will be stronger."

But Brooks isn't really looking that far ahead. Not with the National Championships at Madison, Wisconsin, looming on the horizon.

"Our girls will have to be ready to give 110 per cent at the Nationals in two weeks," Brooks said. "They were flat on Saturday, coming off hard, pressure workouts last week, but it was a planned fitness."

"Now we'll start to do less distance and more speed work in an effort to get freshened up."

If they get any fresher they'll have to be picked first in Madison.

Wintz leads tourney

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Longshot Gary Wintz scrambled out of the pack with a four-under-par 67 and established a surprise, one-stroke lead yesterday in the rain-delayed third round of the $125,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

Wintz, who hasn't even come close to winning a title in his two years of tour activity and has career earnings of only $14,000, put together a three-round total of 207, six under par on the 6,549-yard Pensacola Country Club course.

"It just seems like everything is going the right way," said the 28-year-old Wintz who played for a couple of years on the mini-tours before gaining his PGA playing rights.

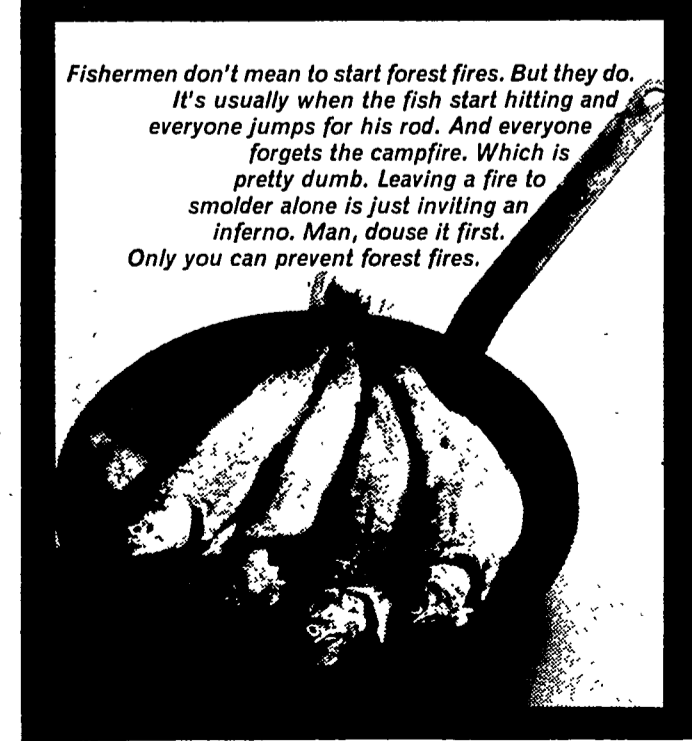

Veteran Frank Beard took sole possession of second place with a 206 total, one shot back. He had a 69 in the chilly, windy weather of the third round that had been postponed by a rainstorm that washed out Saturday's action. The tournament is set to end today.

Jerry McGee, the defending champion who led or shared the lead through the first two rounds, slipped to a 73 and was in a four-way tie for third at 209, four under par and only two back going into the last round.

He was tied with Tom Purtzer, Mark Hayes and former Pensacola champion Lee Elder. Purtzer, who has challenged twice this season, shot a 68. Elder and Hayes, the Byron Nelson champion, matched 70s.

Lee Trevino blew to a 77-219. Jerry Pate, the hometown boy who holds both the U.S. and Canadian Open titles, had to rally for a 71 that left him at 213, five back.

Wintz, who ranks a distant 147th on the year's money-winning list with only $8,837, hasn't finished higher than 23rd—in the New Orleans Open this season.

Fishermen don't mean to start forest fires. But they do. It's usually when the fish start hitting and everyone jumps for his rod. And everyone forgets the campfire. Which is pretty dumb. Leaving a fire to smolder alone is just inviting an inferno. Man, douse it first. Only you can prevent forest fires.

Spikers lose pair on road

Women's volleyball had a tough weekend, losing to both Slippery Rock and Edinboro in a triangular meet held Saturday at Slippery Rock. Edinboro, who Penn State coach Tom Tate considers one of the best teams in the East, handed the Lady Lion spikers losses of 15-8 and 15-13.

Slippery Rock defeated Penn State 15-7 and 15-11. Tate felt that his young team, despite the two losses, has improved throughout the season. Their biggest remaining problem, according to Tate, is consistency.

Both Edinboro and Slippery Rock are taller, more experienced squads, averaging 5'10". Penn State players average 5'6".

Next weekend, the team travels to Pittsburgh to face Robert Morris and Duquesne. Their final home match is scheduled for Nov. 13 against East Stroudsburg and Edinboro.

—Joyce Tomana

Paul Newman can drive, too

FLOWERY BRANCH, Ga. (AP)—Actor Paul Newman, with a steady if slightly spectacular performance, won a national championship yesterday with a two-car length victory over Lee Mueller as the Sports Car Club of America's amateur national championships ended.

Newman, driving a Triumph TR6 in only his fifth year of auto racing, took the D Production title in the best of the weekend's 21 races, zooming past Mueller on the last lap in true Hollywood tradition.

Newman, now 51, won the pole position in qualifying and led the competitive field going into the first turn of the first lap. But Jim Fitzgerald, Clemmons, N.C., moved ahead as Newman dropped back to fourth.

James Reeve, Atlanta, took the lead briefly from Fitzgerald, but both were gone with mechanical troubles by the 13th of 18 laps around the Road Atlanta course.

In other races Sunday, Jerry Hansen, the racing stockbroker from Wayzata, Minn., was foiled in his bid to take his third individual title of the weekend. Bobby Brown, Syosset, N.Y., edged him in Formula B.

Elliott Forbes Robinson, La

Crescenta, Calif., joined Hansen, with two earlier titles bringing his career total to 16, as the weekend's only other multiple winner. Forbes Robinson, who celebrated his 33rd birthday Sunday, added the C Production title.

Herm Johnson, Eau Claire, Wis., took the Formula Super Vee title; Gene Bothello, Auburn, Calif., earned the A Production crown.

Brian Fuerstenau, a two-time former winner from Herdon, Va., suffered broken bones and a possible spinal injury in the E Production race when his car slammed into a fence.