Jeni Malara, Student
"I had C's in high school. After Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics, I was able to maintain an A average."

Chris Walsh, Engineering
"It's boring to read the way most people are taught. This way, you look at a page of print—you see the whole page. It's great!"

John Futch, Law Student
"With 60 briefs a week, the average student takes all week to prepare for class. In an evening, I'm finished!"

Jim Creighton, Student
"It's easy. Once you know how to do it, it's super easy!"

Richard St. Laurent, Teacher
"I was skeptical, but now I'm reading around 2300 words a minute. Puts you that much ahead of everyone else."

It'll make homework a lot easier this year. In fact, you can cut your study time almost in half with the copyrighted techniques you learn in one free lesson. We'll give you the incredible secrets to easy speed reading, better concentration and greater comprehension. Taught in more than 300 cities throughout the U.S. It's easy. It's fun. It works.

Increase your reading speed as much as 100%!

State College resident wins civil suit

Betty Bunnell, of Towanda, lost a civil suit Wednesday when she tried to recover $470 from Alice Gaut, State College.

Bunnell bought a car and gave it to Gaut with an agreement to use the car to take Bunnell's uncle to doctor appointments.

Bunnell said that Gaut often used an old truck with no heat to take her uncle to appointments. She said her uncle complained and after a while Gaut refused to take him to the appointments.

Bunnell offered to pay for the repairs and the new tires. The car was previously registered in Gaut's name and she was allowed to keep the car.
