

American Billy Martin got good use from his backhand shots as he overcame Guillermo Vilas, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 yesterday in the third round of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships. Vilas had been seeded No. 3.

Yanks star in Wimbledon upset

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Billy Martin and Tim Gullikson, rising stars of American tennis, were heroes on another day of upsets in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships yesterday.

Martin, 20, of Palos Verdes, Calif., demolished the No. 3 seed, Guillermo Vilas of Argentina, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Gullikson, the right-hander of the 25-year-old Onalaska, Wis., twins, ousted Raul Ramirez of Mexico, the No. 7 seed, 6-3, 6-4, 8-9, 6-4 in a nerve-rattling struggle lasting almost four hours.

Martin moved into the fourth round, Gullikson, a round behind, into the third. With the tournament less than half over, seven of the 16 seeds have been eliminated — a reminder of the depth of talent throughout the men's game.

Bob Lutz of San Clemente, Calif., seeded No. 15, also was knocked out of the tournament. Kim Warwick of Australia edged him 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 2-6, 8-6 in another see-saw marathon.

For the second straight day the all-time attendance figures were broken, with 37,815 people cramming the grounds of the All-England Club.

The two top seeds escaped the massacre and went serenely on.

Jimmy Connors hustled through his match with Cliff Drysdale, 36-year-old South African, 6-2, 7-5, 6-4.

Bjorn Borg of Sweden, the defending champion and No. 2 seed, had a tough fight with the experienced Nikki Pilic of Yugoslavia but finished in a canter to win 9-7, 7-5, 6-3.

Billie Jean King took Brazil's Maria Bueno 6-2, 7-5. There was never much doubt about the result. The two have 71 years and nine Wimbledon singles titles between them. Ms. King first won in 1966, Ms. Bueno in 1959.

Ms. King's fiercest rival, top-seeded Chris Evert, won easily into the third round, beating Britain's Winnie Woodbridge 6-0, 6-2.

The other seeded women who won were Sue Barker of Britain, who beat Ann Kiyomura of San Mateo, Calif., 6-2, 6-1; Martina Navratilova, the Czech who has exiled herself in the United States, who defeated Lesley Charles of Britain 6-2, 6-2; Francoise Durr of France, who beat Virginia Ruzici of Romania 6-3, 7-5, and Bima Jusovec of Yugoslavia, who downed Wendy Turnbull of Britain 6-4, 6-3.

Third base coach new pilot Stanky strands Rangers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Eddie Stanky abruptly quit as manager of the Texas Rangers yesterday after only one game to return to his former job as a college coach.

Third base coach Connie Ryan was named interim manager by Eddie Robinson, executive vice president of the Rangers. Although there was no official announcement, it was expected that Ryan will take over for the remainder of the season.

Robinson said no decision would be made on another manager until he discussed the matter with team owner Brad Corbett.

Frank Lucchesi was fired as Rangers' manager only 24 hours earlier. Stanky, 59, made his comeback as a major league manager as Texas overcame a 4-0 deficit to defeat the Twins 10-8 Wednesday night.

A startled Robinson received a telephone call about 8:15 a.m. yesterday from Stanky, who was at the airport heading for home.

"You've got to be kidding," Robinson said he told Stanky.

Robinson said Stanky responded that he had thought it over all night, decided that he couldn't leave his family and aged father. "He had deep pangs of remorse," said Robinson.

Robinson said Stanky told him, "You've got a good ball club, you've given me a wonderful contract and I know what I'm turning down."

Robinson said he urged Stanky to stay at the airport until he could get there so they could discuss the matter face-to-face. Robinson said Stanky replied, "No, I've made my decision. There will be no second thoughts."

At Mobile, the school's athletic director, Mel Lucas, said Stanky was "homesick" and found out quickly that he didn't want to return to the major leagues.

"I don't think anyone can understand how strong his family ties are," Minnesota Manager Gene Mauch said of Stanky.

Bert Hawkins, the Rangers' traveling secretary, said he spent some time after Wednesday night's game and said Stanky was "smiling and very happy" when he went to his hotel room.

Ryan, who last managed in 1968 in the minor leagues, figured in earlier speculation that had him replacing Lucchesi. But Robinson said flatly at that time that Ryan would never replace Lucchesi as the Rangers' manager.

"Now we have a completely different situation," said Robinson. "I see no reason why Connie couldn't run the ball club until such a time as we needed somebody else."

Cauthen back in the saddle

NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Cauthen, cheered from the paddock to the post, returned to the races yesterday after a month's layoff because of injuries and won with his first mount — a 4-year-old claimer named Little Miracle.

The 17-year-old riding sensation sent Little Miracle between horses an eighth of a mile from the finish and, with the crowd rooting him on, finished 1 1/4 lengths ahead of Pilot's Son.

"Thatawya, Steve! We missed ya!"

bellowed one fan as Cauthen brought Little Miracle to the winner's circle, where they were surrounded by a battery of photographers and television cameramen.

"I enjoyed my rest," said Cauthen. "I was relaxed for the first two weeks and then I got better. And when you get better, you want to race."

Cauthen came back as an apprentice, but the five-pound weight allowance that goes with that status will be taken away Tuesday.
