

PEANUTS

Not all store brands are alike.

Hills® brand products are designed for quality to compete with leading national brands.

Some stores offer their own brand for low prices. Others care more about quality. But it's hard to know for sure who is good...how good...and on which products.

Hills® brand products are not only designed for quality. They're lab-tested against leading national brands, where they exist, for performance proven quality. All at Hills everyday low prices, of course.

When we put our name on a product... we put our reputation on the line.
