

Faces Connors tomorrow

Another McEnroe upset

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — John McEnroe, 18 years and 4 months old, upset Phil Dent of Australia yesterday and became the youngest men's semifinalist in 100 years of Wimbledon.

The fair-haired left-hander from Douglaston, N.Y., who plays as an amateur among big-money professionals, won 6-4, 8-9, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

"I wasn't sure if I would get into the tournament at all," McEnroe said. "And when I did get in, I didn't expect to win more than a few games in each set."

The young hero of the century tournament now faces the No. 1 seed, Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill., who defeated Byron Bertram of South Africa 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

The other semifinals set for Thursday will be between Vitas Gerulaitis of Howard Beach, N.Y., and defending champion Bjorn Borg of Sweden.

Gerulaitis overran Billy Martin of Palos Verdes, Calif., 6-2, 8-9, 6-2, 6-2 while Borg played some of his finest tennis to win 6-0, 8-6, 6-3 over Ilie Nastase of Romania, the man he beat in last year's final.

McEnroe, an excitable youngster with a white headband around his long, blond hair, had many moments of frustration before overcoming the 13th-seeded Dent. He threw his racket, shouted at a linesman and fell full length on the grass more than once, holding his head in his hands.

But he brought his emotions under control and came from behind to win the last two sets — just when it looked as if Dent, nine years his senior, was taking control.

He said he does not take prize money because he has been planning to go to Stamford University.

"Connors? No, I've never played him. In fact, I don't think I've even met him. But I would know him if I saw him."

Connors had to work hard for his victory over Bertram, a broad-shouldered man, with powerful ground strokes.

Speed and power carried Connors to victory. He broke Bertram's service to win the third set 6-4 with a forehand that flashed past the South African as he stood on his baseline. The ball travelled so fast that Bertram made no attempt at a return.

Borg sped about the center court and angled his shots with such subtlety that Nastase was often immobilized.

The Romanian created the usual diversions. He held up play by arguing over line calls and later complained that a bird's feather had floated down in front of him.

The umpire, Jeremy Shales, picked up a telephone and told the tournament referee: "I am reporting Nastase for time-wasting."

He forgot to switch off his microphone, so the crowd of 15,000 heard it over the public address system.

Yanks split, Cubs win

TORONTO (AP) — Mickey Rivers singled in the tie-breaking run with two out in the 11th inning and Graig Nettles hammered a two-run double as the New York Yankees scored four times and beat the Toronto Blue Jays 5-1 to salvage a split of yesterday's twilight double-header.

The Blue Jays won the opener 8-3, coming from behind with four runs in the seventh inning after New York outfielders Mickey Rivers and Reggie Jackson misplayed fly balls to set up the tying and lead runs.

Despite the split, the Yankees pulled within

1 1/2 games of Boston in the American League East when the Red Sox lost to Detroit.

MONTREAL (AP) — Pinch-hitters Gene Cline and Greg Gross drove in runs with sacrifice flies in the 10th inning to give the Chicago Cubs a 4-2 victory over Montreal.

The Cubs loaded the bases against Joser Will McEnaney, 2-2, on singles by Steve Ontiveros and Mick Kelleher and a fielder's choice by Steve Swisher, who was safe at first when McEnaney fielded his bunt but was late trying to force Ontiveros at second.

Bucs cage Cards in twinbill, Robinson's salary to be paid

ST. LOUIS (AP) Buddy Schultz gave up five hits through 7-1/3 innings in his first major league start and the St. Louis Cardinals rode a 12-hit attack to a 6-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the first game of their twilight double-header yesterday.

The 26-year old Schultz, recalled Sunday from the minor leagues, halted Pittsburgh on one hit after giving up four hits and the lone Pirate run in the first inning. Schultz improved his record to 4-1, retiring 20 of 21 batters at one point before giving way to Al Hrabosky after suffering a pulled leg muscle in the eighth.

Terry Forster, 1-2, was the Pirates' loser in his first start of the year. Hernandez had three hits for St. Louis and Tyson drove in two runs.

Pittsburgh also announced yesterday that they agreed to pay a full year's salary to first baseman Bob Robertson whom they released during spring training.

The 30-year-old ballplayer was given 30 days pay when he was released March 31 after eight years in the major leagues.

He claimed he was entitled to a full-year's pay because he suffered a back injury in spring training. Pirate Vice President Harding Peterson contended that the back injury was an old ailment.

Robertson filed a grievance with the Major League Players Association, claiming he was due full pay, reported at $50,000.

The settlement was reached before the question went before an arbitration panel.

Robertson recently underwent surgery to correct a disc problem in his back.
