

Phils stay on rampage

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jay Johnstone knocked in four runs with two homers and a single, Mike Schmidt stroked his 24th homer and Tim McCarver socked a bases-loaded homer as the Philadelphia Phillies bombed the New York Mets 12-1 last night for their sixth straight victory.

Steve Carlton pitched seven innings of one-hit, shutout ball before leaving for a pinch-hitter and letting reliever Warren Brusstar complete the left-hander's 11th victory of the season. Carlton has lost four times.

The surging Phillies advanced to within three games of slumping first-place Chicago in the National League East as the Cubs lost to the Montreal Expos 9-8 earlier in the day. The Phillies have picked up 5½ games on the Cubs in six games.

The Phillies' Tim McCarver celebrates his grand slam home run over the Mets last night as Philadelphia routed the New Yorkers 12-1. McCarver, Mike Schmidt, and Jay Johnstone all dialed-8 for the Phils as they moved within three games of the first place Cubs.

Cards nail Bucs

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mike Tyson belted the first grand slam home run of his major league career to back the seven-hit pitching of Bob Forsch and lead the St. Louis Cardinals to a 7-3 victory last night over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Tyson's homer, his third this year and his 10th in five seasons with the Cardinals, came in the fourth inning off losing pitcher John Candelaria.

St. Louis had loaded the bases on a walk to Ted Simmons and singles by Keith Hernandez and Ken Reitz before Tyson drove his home run over the left field wall.

Candelaria, who also allowed a run-scoring triple in the third by Gary Templeton, fell to 8-3 with the loss.

Forsch, 10-4, yielded a three-run homer to Al Oliver in the fifth that trimmed the Cardinal lead to 5-3, but Simmons added a two-run insurance homer for St. Louis in the eighth off Grant Jackson.

Three Pirate runs in the fifth were unearned after Tyson muffed a grounder to second by Rennie Stennett. Dave Parker followed with a two-out single before Oliver drove the ball over the center field wall for his 10th homer.

Slumping Cubs fall to Expos

CHICAGO (AP) — Andre Dawson hit two home runs and a single and drove in four runs and Tony Perez batted in three runs yesterday to lead Montreal past the Chicago Cubs 9-8 for the Expos' seventh straight victory.

The loss was the seventh in the last eight starts for the skidding Cubs, leaders in the National East.

Dawson hit a solo home run in the third inning, singled in a run in the sixth and hit his homer with a man aboard in the eighth.
