Vegas bout set

NEW YORK (AP) — Ken Norton and Jimmy Young will shoot for a chance at heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali when they fight Nov. 5 not far from the dice, cards, slot machines and roulette wheels at Las Vegas' gambling palaces.

"We took the fight because it's the best fight anybody can make in the heavyweight division, and that includes an Ali fight," Sid Gathier of Caesars Palace said yesterday at a news conference to formally announce the 12-round fight.

The site — a 5,000-seat sports pavilion at the hotel-casino — was the only thing not known before the news conference.

The participants and the television arrangement for the Don King promotion were an open secret, and it was also known that each fighter will get at least $1 million. Neither King nor the fighters' connections would give an exact amount.

Most insiders agreed that the No. 1-ranked Norton will get $1.5 million plus $100,000 in expenses while the second-ranked Young will receive $1 million plus $100,000.

"I suddenly have amnesia," said King when asked the exact purses for the promotion, which he is calling his comeback as a major fight promoter.

"I came very close to being removed from the scene, not from action but from innuendos," King said of the various charges made in connection with his United States Boxing Championships, a tournament suspended by ABC and which still is being investigated by a federal grand jury and the network.

Then, in keeping with the gambling motif of a Las Vegas fight, the former numbers banker from Cleveland noted the bout was being announced on July 7, '77 and said, "If I was in the numbers business that would be a triple 7."

Both Norton and Young stated that they would have fights before meeting each other in November.

ABC announced that the fight, which could provide Ali with an opponent for a final "big-money" bout, will be part of a televised tripleheader which will be shown during 2½ hours of prime time.

The other fights have not been determined, a network spokesman said.

Mansfield retires spikes

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ray Mansfield, the Pittsburgh Steelers' oldest veteran at 36, announced his retirement from pro football yesterday.

The 6-foot-3, 260-pound center said he would leave the game to devote his time to selling insurance, an off-season job until now.

Mansfield played 14 seasons with the National Football League, and all but one of them was with the Steelers. He began his career in 1963 with the Philadelphia Eagles and his contract was purchased the following year by Pittsburgh.

Mansfield never missed a game and played 186 consecutive regular season games, 182 of them with Pittsburgh.

Boston, Chicago win Phillies' streak still alive

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Henderson started it with a triple and scored on John Stearns' single. Doug Flynn later doubled across a third run and Espinosa singled home two more for a 4-3 Met lead.

The Phillies came back in the last of the fourth to knock out Espinosa and go ahead 5-4. Maddox and Bowa singled and Schmidt walked to load the bases with two out.

Luzinski then singled off Lenny Randle's glove at third, scoring Maddox, and when the ball bounced to Bud Harrelson at short and he threw past first for an error allowing Bowa to score.

CHICAGO (AP) — Rich Reuschel recorded his 12th victory and Larry Bittner smacked his second homer in as many games yesterday as the Chicago Cubs defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 2-0.

Staked to a first-inning unearned run, Reuschel, who has lost twice, struggled all the way, allowing nine hits, and retired the side in order only twice, in the eighth and ninth innings. The shutout ran his streak of scoreless innings to 16 2-3.

BOSTON (AP) — Carlton Fisk drove in three runs in the third, hit a long home run to start the fifth, before doubling in the seventh.

Boston relief ace Bill Campbell, who hiked his record to 7-5 victories in the first two games of the series, blanked the Blue Jays for three innings, preserving the victory for Bob Stanley, 5-3. Campbell earned his 16th save.

Blue Jays with a 5-2 victory.

Fisk, who broke an 0-for-14 slump Wednesday night, drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in the first inning and beat out an infield single in the third inning. Then he lined his 16th homer in the seventh after Rice had led off with a double.

Rice singled to set up a run in the third, hit a long home run to start the fifth, before doubling in the seventh.

Boston relief ace Bill Campbell, who hiked his record to 7-5 victories in the first two games of the series, blanked the Blue Jays for three innings, preserving the victory for Bob Stanley, 5-3. Campbell earned his 16th save.

Hayes hits low

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP) — Mark Hayes, with the best score ever in this 106-year-old event, a 63, and Roger Maltbie led a talented group of Americans who turned the second round of the British Open yesterday into a shoot-out more typical of the U.S. tour.

Maltbie, meanwhile, romped to a 66 and sole control of the lead of 137, three under par on Turnberry's Ailsa course, 6,875 imposing yards that were stripped of their terror by unusually warm sunshine and the absence of the prevailing gales off the Irish Sea.

U.S. Open champion Hubert Green had a hole-in-one and a string of five consecutive birdies for a 66 that left him in a four-way tie with three other Americans.

Sharing second with Green one shot out of the lead at 138, were Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Masters champ Tom Watson.

NADS crumble Rocks, stay undefeated in IM's

The NADS added another game to the win column and remained undefeated after scoring a 5-0 victory over the Rolling Rocks in Intramural softball action Wednesday night.

After a no hit, no run first inning, the NADS came out strong in the second with three runs. Henry John drove in the first two runs while the other score came from Tim Graham on an overthrow.

Play moved along quickly with no runs and relatively few hits until the bottom of the sixth when Tom Ashcom of the NADS drove in two runs. The Rolling Rocks were unable to come back in the seventh.

The win gives the NADS a record of 4-0 while the Rolling Rocks are 2-2. To stay in the running for first place, the Rocks must win the remainder of their games this season.

"It was a tough defensive game. They're a good solid team and the toughest we've faced so far," said Michael Durkot of the NADS after the win.
