Campanis Shoe Store

GRAND OPENING SALE

FRIDAY
JULY 15, 1977

#1 For Campanis Shoe Store I have created this prose with the hope that you will let us cover your feet and toes.

#2 We have been dyeing to say this for just a short while, And decided this is the best way—with real class and style!

#3 We don't just sell shoes, some we can mend, so do us a favor and tell a good friend.

#4 Some guys may act like the heels we replace. But we're sure we can save their soles and not lose face.

#5 We'll not monkey around trying to find the right shoe, But you will see us go ape over our service to you.

#6 With quality, service, and reputation making points in the game.

Customers of Campanis Shoe Store have given us the distinction and name.

#7 This is the final day of suspense, Now my friends, let's talk dollars and cents.

#8 The last verse of my poem demands a standing ovation, 'Cause we're having a sale at our new Beaver Ave. Location!
