Parker unhappy, may seek trade from Bucs

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National League batting leader Dave Parker has told the Pittsburgh Pirates he wants to talk about a possible trade.

"I'm not happy in Pittsburgh. I don't want to be playing there next year," the 26-year-old rightfielder said in Montreal where the Pirates are in the middle of a three-game series with the Expos. .

His comments were reported in yesterday's editions of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and the Pittsburgh Press. Parker, who is batting .341, would not discuss his reasons for wanting to leave the club.

'It's a problem between me and the front office. If it can be eliminated, I'll stay," the powerful outfielder said.

Parker signed a three-year contract with the Pirates last winter. He will reportedly receive $200,000 for the next

Parker joined the Pirates in 1970 as a 14th round free agent draft choice. He came up to the majors in 1973. His batting average the past two seasons has been over .300.
