Lions sweep Mansfield

By WILL PAKUTKA
 Daily Collegian Sports Writer
 The baseball team repeated its performance of last week by once again sweeping a double-header from Mansfield State Sunday.
 Dave June went the distance in the first game scattering seven hits in picking up a 5-3 win. June struck out seven Mansfield batters but it was a home run by Jeff Rumberger and a two run single by Joe Urbanovich in the eighth inning that was the deciding factor in State's victory.

The Lions took the second game 3-1 behind the pitching of Greg Smith and Mark Lambert.
 Frank Lewski doubled in the first inning and Jeff Rumberger singled him home to put the Lions out in front early 1-0. Terry Brush got an RBI in the second inning then doubles by Frank Lewski and Mark Spanos made the score 3-1 in the seventh inning.
 The Lions got a scare in the bottom of the seventh when Mark Lambert walked a man to load the bases with two outs. But then Lambert struck out the last man to preserve a Lion victory.

 Coach Chuck Medlar said that he was pleased with the pitching and Rumberger's hitting in the twin bill. He also gave recognition to the defensive play of second baseman Bill Benner and shortstop Dave Morell.
 The team's next test will be Wednesday afternoon when they travel to St. Francis for another double-header. Then they will be spending a weekend at Navy before returning home on Thursday, Oct. 12 for a twin-bill with Shipensburg.

Lady golfers' record unblemished

By WILL PAKUTKA
 Daily Collegian Sports Writer
 Lynn Marriot shot her best round ever Friday and in doing so led the women's golf team to a 335-347 win over Cortland.
 Marriot shot a 78 on Cortland's home course as the Lady Lions kept their autumn record unblemished. Earlier this fall, the golfers stole first place in both the Longwood Invitational in Virginia and the Mount Holyoke Invitational. Cortland was one of the teams ousted by State in the Mount Holyoke Tourney last week.

 "I thought that Cortland would be one of the teams that would challenge us this fall," Coach Annette Thompson said.
 Sally Slater was second for the Lions shooting an 81 while Renee Kelleher was third on the team with an 85. Kelleher ran into some tough luck on the first hole when her second shot hit a tree forcing her to take eight strokes on the hole.
 This match proved to be a good learning experience for the Lady Lion golfers as a few of the regulars were able to take a breather while some freshmen gained valuable experience.

 Kristie Mecklevey shot a 91 in her first duel match and Coach Thompson was very pleased with her play. Stephanie Bell was the fifth Lion to figure in the scoring shooting a 99 on the Cortland course.
 The Lady Lions will be hosting the EAIAW Championships next weekend. There, they will be attempting to keep their record perfect.

U.S. gym team has no room for Simon

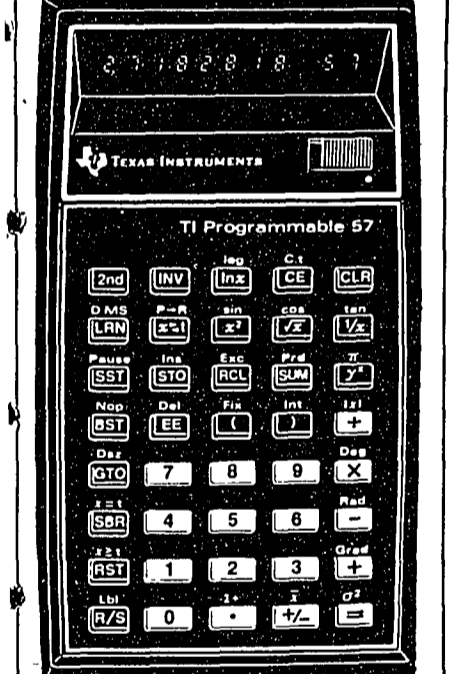

By DARLENE HROBAK
 Daily Collegian Sports Writer
 It's too bad for Paul Simon that almost only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades.
 The Nittany Lion gymnast went to Oklahoma City Sept. 21-23 with an eye on landing one of seven spots on the United States team which will compete in the World Gymnastics Championships. Simon came close, but ended up ninth in a field of 16.
 "I really wanted to make it badly," the senior gymnast said. "It was a disappointment because I was really aiming for that, but it was encouraging too."
 "Especially my optional total because I tried to make 55 all last year and I could never do it."
 The optional day of competition, on which Simon scored his highest total ever of 55.2, wasn't the problem. It was the first day and the compulsories that severely weakened Simon's chances.
 "On the first day, I broke on the high bar routine," Simon said. "My mount was a full twist catch. It really came close to the bar and from there on I sort of came unglued."

 That routine was scored an 8.2 and after the first day of compulsories Simon was in 15th place with 53.35 points, but his chances were now slim.
 The next day was all uphill, but even Simon's best career optional score wasn't enough. He scored a total of 108.55 points over the two-day meet and the seventh and last qualifier compiled a score of 110.00.
 "If I would have hit that high bar routine, I would have been very, very close to the seventh position," Simon said. "And that's encouraging."
 "My ring compulsory routine was a 9.25, my best ever. I was also really encouraged with my pommel horse routines on both days."
 The favorites in the event, Indiana State's Kurt Thomas and Oklahoma's Bart Conner, came out on top with 115.55 points each.
