ENGINEERS, YOUR SHIP IS COMING IN.

It might be a nuclear sub. Or a billion dollar aircraft carrier. At the Norfolk Naval Shipyard, you can test and maintain the most sophisticated technology in the world, with hands-on experience that could increase your salary by 50 percent in three years. That's a lot faster than you can advance in almost any private industry.

Our representative will be on campus Tuesday, October 17, 1978. Make an appointment now. Find out for yourself what a career at Norfolk Naval Shipyard can offer you.

I'm Dorothy Hamill. Have we been properly introduced?

Oleg Cassini.
 Geoffrey? What's the difference between an optometrist and an optamologist?

Geoffrey Beene.
 Ophthalmologist, Oleg. He treats diseases of the eye. The optometrist diagnoses vision defects, and prescribes lenses to correct them. Both are doctors, actually.

Stanley Blacker.
 Then what's an optician?

Elizabeth Arden.
 Someone who grinds lenses and fits frames according to the doctor's prescription.

Oscar de la Renta.
 Then you mean... without those two "Big O's," all of us are...?

Gloria Vanderbilt.
 Nowhere, man.

Givenchy.
